Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning.

⁹ And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, ^b I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these?

¹¹ So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his ^{||} kinsfolks, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

¹² ¶ And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the [†] shearing house in the way,

¹⁵ ¶ And when he was departed thence, he [†] lighted on Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him: and he [†] saluted him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, ^b give me thine hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot.

¹⁶ And he said, Come with me, and see my [†] zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot.

¹⁷ And when he came to Samaria, ^k he slew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, [†] which he spake to Elijah.

¹⁹ Now therefore call unto me all the ⁿ prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal; whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

²¹ And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the ^o house of Baal; and the house of Baal was ^{||} full from one end to another.

²² And he said unto him that was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments.

²³ And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only.

²⁴ And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, be that letteth him go, ^p his life shall be for the life of him.

²⁵ And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with [†] the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal.

²⁶ And they brought forth the [†] ^q images out of the house of Baal, and burned them.

²⁸ Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

²⁹ ¶ Howbeit from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, ^r the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan.

³⁰ And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in mine heart, [†] thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.

³³ From Jordan [†] eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, ^{||} even ^t Gilead and Bashan.

CHAP. XI.

1 Jehoash, saved by Jehosheba his aunt from the general massacre of the royal family of Judah by Athaliah, is concealed six years in the house of the LORD. 4 In the seventh year Jehoiaada the high priest, having taken measures for his security, bringeth him forth, and crowneth him. 13 Athaliah pressing forward into the temple is seized and slain. 17 Jehoiaada restoreth the worship of God, abolisheth that of Baal, and fixeth the king on his throne to the great joy of the people.

AND when ^a Athaliah ^b the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the † seed royal.

2 But ‖ Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took ‖ Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bedchamber from Athaliah, so that he was not slain.

3 And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Athaliah did reign over the land.

4 ¶ And ^c the seventh year Jehoiaada sent and fetched the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and shewed them the king's son.

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you that enter in ^d on the sabbath shall even be keepers of the watch of the king's house;

6 And a third part shall be at the gate of Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house, ‖ that it be not broken down.

7 And two ‖ † parts of all you that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD about the king.

8 And ye shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he that cometh within the ranges, let him be slain: and be ye with the king as he goeth out and as he cometh in.

9 ° And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiaada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiaada the priest.

10 And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king David's spears and shields, that were in the temple of the LORD.

11 And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right † corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, along by the altar and the temple.

12 And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, † God save the king.

13 ¶ And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the LORD.

14 And when she looked, behold, the king stood by ^a a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets: and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, Treason.

15 But Jehoiaada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges: and him that followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD.

16 And they laid hands on her; and she went by the way by the which the horses came into the king's house: and there was she slain.

17 ¶ And Jehoiaada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD's people; ^b between the king also and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went into the ^c house of Baal, and brake it down; his altars and his images ^m brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And ⁿ the priest appointed † officers over the house of the LORD.

19 And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings.

IN the twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel ^a began ^b Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign.

2 Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done;

4 ^c Save that the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still on the high places.

5 ¶ And the LORD ^d smote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and ^e dwelt in a several house. And Jotham the king's son was over the house, judging the people of the land.

6 And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

7 So Azariah slept with his fathers; and ^f they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

8 ¶ In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah did Zachariah the son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria six months.

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

10 And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and ^g smote him before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

11 And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

12 This was ^h the word of the LORD which he spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth generation. And so it came to pass.

13 ¶ Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of ⁱ Uziah king of Judah; and he reigned ^j a full month in Samaria.

14 For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from ^k Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

16 ¶ Then Menahem smote ^l Tiphshah, and all that were therein, and the coasts thereof from Tirzah: because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it; and all ^m the women therein that were with child he ripped up.

17 ¶ In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria.

18 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

21 ¶ And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

22 And Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

23 ¶ In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25 But Pekah the son of Remaliah, a captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the palace of the king's house, with Argob and Arieah, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and reigned in his room.

28 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

29 ¶ In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took † Ijon, and Abel-beth-maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them captive to Assyria.

30 ¶ And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, † in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

31 And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32 ¶ In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began † Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign.

33 Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.

wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger:

12 For they served idols, ^m whereof the LORD had said unto them, " Ye shall not do this thing.

13 Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, [†] by all the prophets, and by all ^o the seers, saying, ^p Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.

14 Notwithstanding they would not hear, but ^q hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the LORD their God.

15 And they rejected his statutes, ^r and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed ^s vanity, and ^t became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them, that they should ^u not do like them.

16 And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and ^x made them molten images, even two calves, ^y and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, ^z and served Baal.

17 ^a And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and ^b used divination and enchantments, and ^c sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left ^d but the tribe of Judah only.

19 Also ^e Judah kept not the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

20 And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and ^f delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

21 For ^g he rent Israel from the house of David; and ^h they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drave Israel from following the LORD, and made them fin a great sin.

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them;

23 Until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, ⁱ as he had said by all his servants the prophets. ^k So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

24 ¶ And the king of Assyria brought men ^m from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from ⁿ Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which slew some of them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 And the men of ^o Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 ^p And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites ^q burnt their children in fire to Adramelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they feared the LORD, ^r and made unto themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 ^s They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations ^t whom they carried away from thence.

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give || pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

LORD, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.
7 Behold, I will send ^a a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 ¶ So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed ¹ from Lachish.

9 And ^k when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee: he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God ¹ in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered?

12 ⁿ Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed; as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of ⁿ Eden which were in Thelassar?

13 ^o Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah?

14 ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, ^q which dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.

16 LORD, bow down thine ear, and hear: open, LORD, thine eyes, and see: and hear the words of Sennacherib, ^u which hath sent him to reproach the living God.

17 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands, 18 And have [†] cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but ^a the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

19 Now therefore, O LORD our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, ^r that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD God, even thou only.

20 ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, ^z That which thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria ^a I have heard.

21 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The virgin ^b the daughter of Zion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem ^c hath shaken her head at thee.

22 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against ^d the Holy One of Israel.

23 [†] By thy messengers thou hast reproached the LORD, and hast said, With the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down [†] the tall cedar trees thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the lodgings of his borders, and into ^{||} the forest of his Carmel.

24 I have digged and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of ^{||} besieged places.

25 ^{||} Hast thou not heard long ago how ^e I have done it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that ^b thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps.

26 Therefore their inhabitants were [†] of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as ¹ the grass on the house tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

27 But ^k I know thy ^{||} abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

28 Because thy rage against me and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore ¹ I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back ⁿ by the way by which thou camest.

29 And this shall be ^a a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof.

30 ^o And [†] the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

31 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and [†] they that escape out of mount Zion: ^r the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank against it.

36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

1 Hezekiah, warned by Isaiah to prepare for death, upon his prayer is promised an addition of fifteen years to his life: 8 in confirmation whereof the shadow goeth ten degrees backward on the sundial of Abaz. 12 Berodach-baladan sendeth to congratulate Hezekiah on his recovery, who ostentatiously sheweth the ambassadors his treasures. 14 Isaiah bearing this foretelleth the Babylonish captivity. 20 Hezekiah dieth: Manasseh succeedeth him.

IN those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying,

3 I beseech thee, O LORD, remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore.

4 And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

5 Turn again, and tell Hezekiah the captain of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will heal thee: on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD.

6 And I will add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

7 And Isaiah said, Take a lump of figs.

And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

8 ¶ And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day?

9 And Isaiah said, This sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?

10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees.

11 And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the LORD: and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz.

12 ¶ At that time Berodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present unto Hezekiah: for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

13 And Hezekiah hearkened unto them, and shewed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

14 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon.

15 And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All the things that are in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

16 And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD.

17 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried into Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

18 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. And he said, Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my days?

9 But they hearkened not: and Manasseh ^mseduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake by his servants the prophets, saying,

11 ⁿBecause Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, ^oand hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and ^phath made Judah also to sin with his idols:

12 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both ^qhis ears shall tingle.

13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem ^rthe line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, ^s† wiping it, and turning it upside down.

14 And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies;

15 Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.

16 ^tMoreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem [†]from one end to another; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

17 ¶ Now ^uthe rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he finned, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

18 And ^vManasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

19 ¶ ^wAmon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

20 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, ^xas his father Manasseh did.

21 And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them:

22 And he ^yforsook the LORD God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the LORD.

23 ¶ ^zAnd the servants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house.

19 ¶ And all the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el.

22 Surely there was not holden such a passover from the days of the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah;

23 But in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, wherein this passover was holden to the LORD in Jerusalem.

24 ¶ Moreover the workers with familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

25 And like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him.

26 ¶ Notwithstanding the LORD turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations that Manasseh had provoked him withal.

27 And the LORD said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.

IN ^a his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 ^b And the LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, ^c according to the word of the LORD, which he spake [†] by his servants the prophets.

3 Surely at the commandment of the LORD came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, ^d for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did;

4 ^e And also for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the LORD would not pardon.

5 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

6 ^f So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

7 ¶ And ^g the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: for ^h the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt unto the river Euphrates all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

8 ¶ ⁱ Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. And his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of El-nathan of Jerusalem.

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

10 ¶ ^k At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city [†] was besieged.

11 And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants did besiege it.

12 ^l And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his ^m officers: ⁿ and the king of Babylon ^o took him [†] in the eighth year of his reign.

13 ^p And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and ^q cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, ^r as the LORD had said.

14 And ^s he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, ^t even ten thousand captives, and ^u all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save ^v the poorest sort of the people of the land.

15 And ^w he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his ^x officers, and the mighty of the land, those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

16 And ^y all the men of might, even seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths a thousand, all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

17 ¶ And ^z the king of Babylon made Mattaniah ^{aa} his father's brother king in his stead, and ^{ab} changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 ^{ac} Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was ^{ad} Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

19 ^{ae} And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

20 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, ^{af} that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Jerusalem is again besieged, and taken by storm: Zedekiah fleeth, is taken, his sons slain, and his own eyes put out. 8 Nebuzar-adan having burned the temple and all the palaces of Jerusalem, and broken down the walls, carrieth the remnant of the people, except a few labourers, to Babylon. 13 He spoileth and carrieth away the valuable things of the temple. 18 The nobles of Judah are slain at Riblah. 22 Gedaliah, who was set over the people that were left, being treacherously murdered, the rest flee into Egypt. 27 Evil-merodach sheweth kindness to Jehoiachin in his captivity.

AND it came to pass ^{ag} in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built forts against it round about.

2 And the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

3 And on the ninth day of the ^{ah} fourth month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land.

4 ¶ And ^{ai} the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between two walls, which is by the king's garden: (now the Chaldees were against the city round about:) and ^{aj} the king went the way toward the plain.

6 So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon^e to Riblah; and they[†] gave judgment upon him.

7 And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and[†] put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

8 ¶ And in the fifth month,^s on the seventh day of the month, which is^h the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,ⁱ came Nebuzar-adan, || captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem:

9^k And he burnt the house of the LORD,[†] and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire.

10 And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about.

11ⁿ Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the[†] fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carry away.

12 But the captain of the guard^e left of the poor of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen.

13 ¶ And^p the^a pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and[†] the bases, and^s the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.

14 And[†] the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

15 And the firepans, and the bowls, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.

16 The two pillars, [†] one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD; ^q the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

17^x The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the chapter upon it was brass: and the height of the chapter three cubits; and the wreathen work, and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathen work.

18 ¶ And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and^a Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the[†] door;

19 And out of the city he took an || officer, that was set over the men of war, and^b five men of them that[†] were in the king's presence, which were found in the city, and the || principal scribe of the host, which mustered the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land that were found in the city:

20 And Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah:

21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. ^c So Judah was carried away out of their land.

22 ¶ And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler.

23 And when all the^e captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

24 And Gedaliah sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you.

25 But[†] it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed[†] royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah.

26 And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees.

27 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the year that he began to reign[†] did lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison;

28 And he spake[†] kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon;

29 And changed his prison garments: and he did^k eat bread continually before him all the days of his life.

30 And his allowance was a continual allowance given him of the king, a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life.

1 The sons of Israel. 3 The sons of Judah.

13 The children of Jesse. 18 The posterity of Caleb the son of Hezron. 21 The posterity of Hezron by the daughter of Machir. 25 Jerahmeel's posterity. 34 Sheshan's posterity. 42 Another branch of Caleb's posterity. 50 The posterity of Caleb the son of Hur.

THESE are the sons of || Israel; ^a Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun,

2 Dan, Joseph, and Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

3 || The sons of ^b Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shelah: which three were born unto him of the daughter of ^c Shua the Canaanitess. And ^d Er, the firstborn of Judah, was evil in the sight of the LORD; and he slew him.

4 And ^e Tamar his daughter in law bare him Pharez and Zerah. All the sons of Judah were five.

5 The sons of ^f Pharez; Hezron, and Hamul.

6 And the sons of Zerah; || Zimri, ^g and Ethan, and Heman, and Calcol, and || Dara: five of them in all.

7 And the sons of ^h Carmi; || Achar, the troubler of Israel, who transgressed in the thing ⁱ accursed.

8 And the sons of Ethan; Azariah.

9 The sons also of Hezron, that were born unto him; Jerahmeel, and || Ram, and || Chelubai.

10 And Ram ^k begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Nahshon, ^l prince of the children of Judah;

11 And Nahshon begat || Salma, and Salma begat Boaz,

12 And Boaz begat Obed, and Obed begat Jesse,

13 || ^m And Jesse begat his firstborn Eliab, and Abinadab the second, and || Shimma the third,

14 Nethaneel the fourth, Raddai the fifth,

15 Ozem the sixth, David the seventh: 16 Whose sisters were Zeruiah, and Abigail. ⁿ And the sons of Zeruiah; Abishai, and Joab, and Asahel, three.

17 And ^o Abigail bare Amasa: and the father of Amasa was || Jether the Ishmeelite.

18 || And Caleb the son of Hezron begat children of Azubah his wife, and of Jerioth: her sons are these; Jeshur, and Shobab, and Ardon.

19 And when Azubah was dead, Caleb took unto him ^p Ephrath, which bare him Hur.

20 And Hur begat Uri, and Uri begat ^q Bezaleel.

21 || And afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of ^r Machir the father of Gilead, whom he ^t married when he was threescore years old; and she bare him Segub.

22 And Segub begat Jair, who had three and twenty cities in the land of Gilead.

23 ^s And he took Geshur, and Aram, with the towns of Jair, from them, with Kenath, and the towns thereof, even threescore cities. All these belonged to the sons of Machir the father of Gilead.

24 And after that Hezron was dead in Caleb-ephratah, then Abiah Hezron's wife bare him ^t Ashur the father of Tekoa.

25 || And the sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron were, Ram the firstborn, and Bunah, and Oren, and Ozem, and Ahijah.

26 Jerahmeel had also another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.

27 And the sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel were, Maaz, and Jamin, and Eker.

28 And the sons of Onam were, Shammai, and Jada. And the sons of Shammai; Nadab, and Abihur.

29 And the name of the wife of Abihur was Abihail, and she bare him Ahban, and Molid.

30 And the sons of Nadab; Seled, and Appaim: but Seled died without children.

31 And the sons of Appaim; Ishi. And the sons of Ishi; Sheshan. And ^u the children of Sheshan; Ahlai.

32 And the sons of Jada the brother of Shammai; Jether, and Jonathan: and Jether died without children.

4 The sons of Joel; Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,

5 Micah his son, Reaia his son, Baal his son,

6 Beerah his son, whom || Tilgath-pilnezer king of Assyria carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites.

7 And his brethren by their families, ^g when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned, were the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah,

8 And Bela the son of Azaz, the son of || Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in ^h Aroer, even unto Nebo and Baal-meon:

9 And eastward he inhabited unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Euphrates: because their cattle were multiplied ⁱ in the land of Gilead.

10 And in the days of Saul they made war ^k with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand: and they dwelt in their tents † throughout all the east land of Gilead.

11 ¶ And the children of Gad dwelt over against them, in the land of ^l Basphan unto Salcah:

12 Joel the chief, and Shapham the next, and Jaanai, and Shaphat in Basphan.

13 And their brethren of the house of their fathers were, Michael, and Meshulam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Heber, seven.

14 These are the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshithai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz;

15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers.

16 And they dwelt in Gilead in Basphan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of ^m Sharon, upon † their borders.

17 All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of ⁿ Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of ^o Jeroboam king of Israel.

18 ¶ The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, † of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skilful in war, were four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, that went out to the war.

19 And they made war with the Hagarites, with ^p Jetur, and Nephish, and Nodab.

20 And ^q they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battle, and he was intreated of them; because they ^r put their trust in him.

SO ^a all Israel were reckoned by genealogies; and, behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah, who were carried away to Babylon for their transgression.

2 ¶ ^b Now the first inhabitants that dwelt in their possessions in their cities were, the Israelites, the priests, Levites, and ^c the Nethinims.

3 ¶ And in ^d Jerusalem dwelt of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim, and Manasseh;

4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Pharez the son of Judah.

5 And of the Shilonites; Afaiah the first-born, and his sons.

6 And the sons of Zerah; Juel, and their brethren, six hundred and ninety.

7 And of the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hasenuah,

8 And Idneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephathiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah;

9 And their brethren, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty and six. All these men were chief of the fathers in the house of their fathers.

10 ¶ ^e And of the priests; Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, and Jachin, 11 And ^f Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God;

12 And Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah, and Maafai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;

13 And their brethren, heads of the house of their fathers, a thousand and seven hundred and threescore; [†] very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

14 ¶ And of the Levites; Shemaiah the son of Hasfhub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

15 And Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph;

16 And Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Afa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites.

17 And the porters were, Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shallum was the chief;

18 Who hitherto waited in the king's gate eastward: they were porters in the companies of the children of Levi.

19 And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, of the house of his father, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the [†] gates of the tabernacle: and their fathers, being over the host of the LORD, were keepers of the entry.

20 And [†] Phinehas the son of Eleazar was the ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was with him.

21 And Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 All these which were chosen to be porters in the gates were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages, whom ^g David and Samuel ^h the seer [†] did ordain in their [†] set office.

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the LORD, namely, the house of the tabernacle, by wards.

24 In four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south.

25 And their brethren, which were in their villages, were to come ⁱ after seven days from time to time with them.

3 And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul to his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and all his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings unto their idols, and to the people.

10 ¶ And they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

NOW † it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, † Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

8 And David said unto God, ^a I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: ^c but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's seer, saying,

10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I [†] offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [†] Choose thee

12 ^e Either three years famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very ^{||} great ^{are} his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man.

14 ¶ So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an ^h angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and ⁱ he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of ^{||} Ornan the Jebusite.

16 ¶ And David lifted up his eyes, and ^k saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

17 And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but ^{as} for these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

18 ¶ Then the ^l angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD.

20 || And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshingfloor, and bowed himself to David with ^{his} face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, [†] Grant me the place of ^{this} threshingfloor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do ^{that} which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen ^{also} for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat offering; I give it all.

24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take ^{that} which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost.

25 So ^m David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and ⁿ he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering.

27 And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 ¶ At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.

3 And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.

4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers.

5 Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

The number and offices of the singers: 8 their division by lot into four and twenty orders.

Moreover David and the captains of the host separated to the service of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of the workmen according to their service was:

2 Of the sons of Asaph; Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asarelah, the sons of Asaph under the hands of Asaph, which prophesied according to the order of the king.

3 Of Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp, to give thanks and to praise the LORD.

4 Of Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth: 5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6 All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of God, according to the king's order to Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman.

27 And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: † over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite:

28 And over the olive trees and the fycamore trees that were in the low plains was Baal-hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Joash:

29 And over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the vallies was Shaphat the son of Adlai:

30 Over the camels also was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite:

31 And over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagerite. All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's.

32 Also Jonathan David's uncle was a counsellor, a wise man, and a scribe: and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons:

33 And ° Ahithophel was the king's counsellor: and ° Hushai the Archite was the king's companion:

34 And after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and ° Abiathar: and the general of the king's army was ° Joab.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 David in a solemn assembly, having declared God's especial favour toward him, and the promises made to his son Solomon, exhorteth all in general to the fear of God. 9 His particular charge to Solomon to serve the LORD, and to build the temple. 11 He giveth him patterns for the form, and gold and silver for the materials. 20 He encourageth him with assurances of divine and human assistance.

AND David assembled all the princes of Israel, ° the princes of the tribes, and ° the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and ° the stewards over all the substance and ° possession of the king, ° and of his sons, with the ° officers, and with ° the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: As for me, ° I had in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for ° the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building:

3 But God said unto me, ° Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed † blood.

4 Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen ° Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, ° the house of my father; and ° among the sons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Israel:

5 And of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) ° he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

6 And he said unto me, ° Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever, ° if he be † constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.

8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God: that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 ¶ And thou, Solomon my son, ° know thou the God of thy father, and serve him ° with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for ° the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: ° if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

10 Take heed now; ° for the LORD hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

11 ¶ Then David gave to Solomon his son ° the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat,

12 And the pattern † of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, ° of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the dedi-

Furthermore David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom God alone hath chosen, is yet

^a young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God.

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the bras for things of bras, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; ^b onyx stones, and stones to be set, glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house,

4 Even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of ^c Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal:

5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing [†] to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?

6 ¶ Then ^d the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with ^e the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly,

7 And gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of bras eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of ^f Jehiel the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they ^g offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should [†] be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and [†] of thine own have we given thee.

15 For ^k we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: [†] our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none [†] abiding.

16 O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own.

17 I know also, my God, that thou ^m triest the heart, and ^a hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are ^{||} present here, to offer willingly unto thee.

18 O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and ^{||} prepare their heart unto thee:

19 And ^{*} give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for the which ^p I have made provision.

20 ¶ And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD, and the king.

21 And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel:

22 And did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and [†] anointed him unto the LORD to be the chief governor, and Zadok to be priest.

23 ¶ Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.

24 And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, [†] submitted themselves unto Solomon the king.

25 And the LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and [†] bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

26 ¶ Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

27 [†] And the time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; ^a seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

28 And he ^{*} died in a good old age, ^r full of days, riches, and honour: and Solomon his son reigned in his stead.

29 Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the ^{||} [†] book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer,

30 With all his reign and his might, ^z and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

AND ^a Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and ^b the LORD his God was with him, and ^c magnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to ^d the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

4 [†] But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

zaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, || he put before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation fought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the brazen altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

7 ¶ In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead.

9 Now, O LORD God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: for thou hast made me king over a people as like the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great?

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

13 ¶ Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

14 And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 And the king made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plentiful as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycamore trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

17 And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, by their means.

AND Solomon determined to build an house for the name of the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

2 And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 ¶ And Solomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, I build an house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual shewbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

5 And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods.

6 But who is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

7 Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and that can skill to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did provide.

8 Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and algum trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and, behold, my servants shall be with thy servants, 9 Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be wonderful great.

10 And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 ¶ Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.

6. 3.

THEN † Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at † Jerusalem in mount Moriah, || where the LORD appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing-floor of † Ornan the Jebusite.

2 And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 ¶ Now these are the things † wherein Solomon was † instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the † porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And † the greater house he cieleth with fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm trees and chains.

6 And he † garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubims on the walls.

8 ¶ And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

10 † And in the most holy house he made two cherubims || of image work, and overlaid them with gold.

11 And the wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were || inward.

14 ¶ And he made the † vail of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and † wrought cherubims thereon.

15 ¶ Also he made before the house † two pillars of thirty and five cubits † high, and the chapiter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

16 And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made † an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

17 And he † reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand || Jachin, and the name of that on the left || Boaz.

The vessels, furniture, and instruments of gold.

Moreover he made * an altar of bras, twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof.

¶ Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits † from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

And under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast.

It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

And the thickness of it was an handbreadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, || with flowers of lilies; and it received and held ^a three thousand baths.

¶ He made also ^c ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: † such things as they offered for the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

And he made ten candlesticks of gold according to their form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he made an hundred || basons of gold.

¶ Furthermore ⁱ he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with bras.

And ^k he set the sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south.

¶ And ⁱ Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the || basons. And Hiram † finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God;

To wit, the two pillars, and ^m the pommels, and the chapters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapters which were on the pillars;

And ⁿ four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two

He made also ⁿ basets, and || lavers made † upon the basets;

One sea, and twelve oxen under it.

The pots also, and the shovels, and the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did ^p Hiram his father make to king Solomon for the house of the LORD of † bright bras.

In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the † clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathah.

Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the bras could not be found out.

¶ And ^r Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon ^r the shewbread was set;

Moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn ^s after the manner before the oracle, of pure gold;

And ^t the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made ^t be of gold, and that † perfect gold;

And the snuffers, and the || basons, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold: and the entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold.

The temple finished, and the dedicated treasures deposited therein. 2 The ark with great solemnity brought into the most holy place.

Whilst the priests and Levites are praising God with singing and music, a cloud filleth the house.

THUS ^a all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in ^a all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God.

¶ Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD ^c out of the city of David, which is Zion.

Wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king ^d in the feast which was in the seventh month.

And all the elders of Israel came; and the Levites took up the ark.

And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle,

6 Alſo king Solomon, and all the congregation of Iſrael that were aſſembled unto him before the ark, ſacrificed ſheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

7 And the prieſts brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, to the oracle of the houſe, into the moſt holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims :

8 For the cherubims ſpread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the ſtaves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the ſtaves of the ark, that the ends of the ſtaves were ſeen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not ſeen without. And || there it is unto this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark ſave the two tables which Moſes put therein at Horeb, || when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Iſrael, when they came out of Egypt.

13 It came even to paſs, as the trumpeters and ſingers were as one, to make one ſound to be heard in praiſing and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and inſtruments of muſick, and praiſed the LORD, ſaying, ⁱ For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the houſe was filled with a cloud, even the houſe of the LORD;

14 So that the prieſts could not ſtand to miniſter by reaſon of the cloud: * for the glory of the LORD had filled the houſe of God.

2 But I have built an houſe of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever.

3 And the king turned his face, and bleſſed the whole congregation of Iſrael: and all the congregation of Iſrael ſtood.

4 And he ſaid, Bleſſed be the LORD God of Iſrael, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he ſpoke with his mouth to my father David, ſaying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt I choſe no city among all the tribes of Iſrael to build an houſe in, that my name might be there; neither choſe I any man to be a ruler over my people Iſrael:

7 Now ^e it was in the heart of David my father to build an houſe for the name of the LORD God of Iſrael.

8 But the LORD ſaid to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an houſe for my name, thou didſt well in that it was in thine heart :

9 Notwithſtanding thou ſhalt not build the houſe; but thy ſon which ſhall come forth out of thy loins, he ſhall build the houſe for my name.

AND when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

2 And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

4 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his cupbearers also, and their apparel; and his ascent by which he went up into the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.

5 And she said to the king, It was a true report which I heard in mine own land of thine acts, and of thy wisdom:

6 Howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom.

8 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and justice.

9 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

10 And the servants also of Hiram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought alnum trees and precious stones.

11 And the king made of the alnum trees terraces to the house of the LORD, and to the king's palace, and harps and psalteries for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

13 ¶ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold;

14 Beside that which chapmen and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 ¶ And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target.

16 And three hundred shields made of beaten gold: three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17 ¶ Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

18 And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and stays on each side of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the stays:

19 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

20 ¶ And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

21 For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

22 And king Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23 ¶ And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

25 ¶ And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

26 ¶ And he reigned over all the kings from the river even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

27 And the king made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycamore trees that are in the low plains in abundance.

6 Having peace he strengtheneth his kingdom with forts. 8 His army. 9 Attacked by Zerah the Ethiopian, he calleth upon God, and smiting the Ethiopians bringeth away much spoil.

955. SO Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Afa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.

2 And Afa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God:

3 For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and brake down the images, and cut down the groves:

4 And commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.

5 Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.

6 ¶ And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had given him rest.

7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have fought the LORD our God, we have fought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.

8 ¶ And Afa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.

9 ¶ And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto Marefbah.

10 Then Afa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Marefbah.

11 And Afa cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not man prevail against thee.

12 So the LORD smote the Ethiopians before Afa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Afa and the people that were with him pursued them unto Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very much spoil.

14 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar; for the fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

11. 29. seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Now for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law.

4 But when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

6 And nation was destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.

7 Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded.

8 And when Afa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, that was before the porch of the LORD.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Afa.

11 And they offered unto the LORD the same time, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;

13 That whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

14 And they sware unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.

16 And also concerning Maachah the mother of Afa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Afa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Afa was perfect all his days.

18 And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Afa.

C H A P. XVI.

1 Afa maketh a league with Benhadad king of Syria against Baasha, who is thereby diverted from the building of Ramah; Afa with the stones thereof buildeth Geba and Mizpah.

7 Hanani the seer, reproveth him for applying to the Syrians for aid rather than to God, is imprisoned by him. 11 Afa in his sickness seeketh not to God, but to the physicians. 13 His death and burial.

IN the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Afa Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Afa king of Judah.

2 Then Afa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Afa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Afa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

7 And at that time Hanani the seer came to Afa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.

8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubians a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thine hand.

NOW Jehoshaphat ^a had riches and honour in abundance, and ^b joined affinity with Ahab.

2 ^c And ^d after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth-gilead.

3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

4 ¶ And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, ^e Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.

5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the king's hand.

6 ¶ But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD ^f besides, that we might enquire of him?

7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the king of Israel called for one of his ^g officers, and said, ^h Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla.

9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a ⁱ void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until ^j they be consumed.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king ^k with one assent; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of their's, and speak thou good.

13 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, ^l even what my God saith, that will I speak.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand.

15 ¶ And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?

16 Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, ^m but evil?

18 Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left.

19 And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a ⁿ spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so.

22 Now therefore, behold, ^o the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

23 ¶ Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and ^p smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

24 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go ^q into ^r an inner chamber to hide thyself.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 And say, Thus saith the king, ^s Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

27 And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Harken, all ye people.

ther, to ask help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 ¶ And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court,

6 And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and rulest not thou over all the kingdoms of the heaven? and in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou our God, † who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham thy friend for ever?

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, saying,

9 If, when evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, whom thou wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and destroyed them not;

12 O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 ¶ Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, came the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation;

15 And he said, Harken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the LORD unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not your's, but God's.

16 To morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you,

O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to morrow go out against them: for the LORD will be with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

19 And the Levites, of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 ¶ And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, and that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 ¶ And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watch tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

26 ¶ And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day.

889. † 1 Kings 22. 50. ¶ Alone. NOW Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son [¶] reigned in his stead.

2 And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to [¶] Jehoram; because he was the firstborn.

4 Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 ¶ ^b Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of ^c Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a [†] light to him and to his ^d sons for ever.

8 ¶ ^e In his days the Edomites revolted from under the [†] dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to ^f commit fornication, and compelled Judah thereto.

12 ¶ And there came a [¶] writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Afa king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast ^g made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to ^h go a whoring, like to the ⁱ whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also hast ^k slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself:

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by [†] disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was ^k executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and ^l found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.

9 ^m And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: Because said they, he ⁿ is the son of Jehoshaphat, who ⁿ fought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom.

10 ¶ But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.

11 But ^p Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bed chamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.

12 And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of ^a Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the ^f tabernacle of witness?

7 For ^e the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the ^b dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.

8 And at the king's commandment ^l they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made [†] a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD ^k the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and ^l when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and bras to mend the house of the LORD.

13 So the workmen wrought, and [†] the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, ^m whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and || to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15 ¶ But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God, and toward his house.

17 ¶ Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obedience to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of the LORD

God of their fathers, and served ⁿ groves and idols: and ^o wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.

19 Yet he ^p sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.

20 And ^q the Spirit of God [†] came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, ^r Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? ^s because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him, and ^t stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it.

23 ¶ And it came to pass [†] at the end of the year, that ^u the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of [†] Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians ^x came with a small company of men, and the LORD ^y delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they ^z executed judgment against Joash.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) ^a his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the ^b sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; || Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of || Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 ¶ Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of ^c the burdens laid upon him, and the [†] repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the || story of the book of the kings. ^d And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

2 He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

4 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah did.

5 And ^b he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who ^c had understanding † in the visions of God: and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper.

6 And he went forth and ^d warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities ‖ about Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God helped him against ^e the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Mehunims.

8 And the Ammonites ^f gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name † spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 ¶ Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the ^g corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and ‖ fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the desert, and ‖ digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plains: husbandmen also, and vine dressers in the mountains, and in ‖ Carmel: for he loved † husbandry.

11 ¶ Moreover Uzziah had an host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was † an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the host shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and † slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men; to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his name † spread far abroad; for he was marvelously helped, till he was strong.

JOTHAM ^a was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uziah did: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD. And ^b the people did yet corruptly.

3 ¶ He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of ^{||} Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.

5 ¶ He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. [†] So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third.

6 So Jotham became mighty, because he ^{||} prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

7 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

8 He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Abaz reigning very wickedly is smitten by the kings of Syria and Israel. 8 The Israelites, having carried many thousands of Judah captive to Samaria, at the remonstrance of the prophet Oded send them home. 16 Abaz calleth the king of Assyria to his aid, but is not at all benefited by his assistance. 22 In his distress he becometh still more idolatrous. 26 His acts and death: Hezekiah succeedeth him.

AHAZ ^a was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father:

2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also ^b molten images for ^c Baalim.

3 Moreover he ^{||} burnt incense in ^d the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt ^e his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Wherefore ^f the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they ^g smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to [†] Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 For ^h Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all [†] valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was [†] next to the king.

8 ¶ And the children of Israel carried away captive of their ⁱ brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God?

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, 13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men o which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and p gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, q the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

18 s The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken Beth-she mesh, and Ajalon, and Gedereth, and Shochu with the villages thereof, and Timnah with the villages thereof, Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there.

19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of t Israel; for he u made Judah naked, and transgressed fore against the LORD.

20 And v Tilgath-pilnezer king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not.

21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

22 ¶ And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this is that king Ahaz.

23 For y he sacrificed unto the gods of † Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that z they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.

24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, a and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places || to burn incense unto || Or, other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

26 ¶ b Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem: but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

8 Wherefore the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to trouble, to astonishment, and to hissing, as ye see with your eyes.

9 For, lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in mine heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons, be not now negligent: for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, and burn incense.

12 Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought forth the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them:

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

25 And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in

C H A P. XXX.

1 Hezekiah proclaimeth a solemn passover to be kept in the second month, and calleth all Judah and Israel to the celebration of it. 13 The assembly, having destroyed the altars of idolatry in Jerusalem, keep the feast fourteen days. 27 The priests bless the people.

AND Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

c ch. 29. 34.

2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month.

3 For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

† Heb. was right in the eyes of the king.

4 And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.

which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.

4 Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken.

11 Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto him: and he was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD he was God.

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

19 His prayer also, and how God was intreated of him, and all his sins, and his trespasses, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers.

20 So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

21 Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them;

23 And humbled not himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more.

24 And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

Moreover ^a Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the ^b fourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he set the priests in their ^c charges, and ^d encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD,

3 And said unto the Levites ^e that taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, ^f Put the holy ark ^g in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; ^h it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel,

4 And prepare yourselves by the ⁱ houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the ^k writing of David king of Israel, and according to the ^l writing of Solomon his son.

5 And ^m stand in the holy place according to the divisions of † the families of the fathers of your brethren † the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites.

6 So kill the passover, and ⁿ sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

7 And Josiah ^o gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.

8 And his princes † gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their † place, according to the † commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were † present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of † unleavened bread seven days.

18 And † there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20 ¶ † After all this, when Josiah had prepared the † temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Charchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against † the house where-with I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but † disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho † from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore † wounded.

24 † His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried † in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And † all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25 ¶ And Jeremiah † lamented for Josiah: and † all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, † and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations.

26 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his † goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD, 27 And his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

1 Jeboabaz succeeding Josiah is deposed by Pharaoh-necho, and carried into Egypt: Jeboiakim is made king. 5 Jeboiakim reigning wickedly is bound in fetters by Nebuchadnezzar, who carrieth part of the vessels of the temple to Babylon. 9 Jeboiachin is made king, and after a year's reign carried to Babylon with other vessels of the temple: Zedekiah is made king in his stead. 11 Zedekiah reigneth wickedly, despiseth the admonitions of Jeremiah, and rebelleth against Nebuchadnezzar. 14 The sins of the priests and of the people cause the utter destruction of Jerusalem by the Chaldees, and the desolation of the land for seventy years. 22 The proclamation of Cyrus for building the temple.

T H E N † the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem.

2 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt † put him down at Jerusalem, † and † condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jeboiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

5 ¶ † Jeboiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

6 † Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in † fetters, to † carry him to Babylon.

7 † Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jeboiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and † Jeboiachin his son reigned in his stead.

3 And they set the altar upon his bases; for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt offerings morning and evening.

4 ¶ They kept also the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required;

5 And afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

7 ¶ They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 ¶ Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.

9 Then stood Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

1 The adversaries of the Jews offering to join in building the temple, and being rejected, endeavour to hinder the work. 7 They write to Artaxerxes. 11 The copy of their letter. 17 The answer of Artaxerxes, and his decree to stop the progress of the work. 23 The building is suspended for a time.

NOW when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the LORD God of Israel;

2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither.

3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,

5 And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of Ahafuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 ¶ And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

11 ¶ This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king; Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time.

12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have ‖ set up the walls thereof, and † joined the foundations.

13 Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not † pay ⁱ toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the ‖ revenue of the kings.

14 Now because † we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king;

15 That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have † moved sedition † within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

16 We certify the king that, if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.

17 ¶ Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their † companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, Peace, and at such a time.

18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me.

19 And † I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath † made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

20 There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ^k ruled over all countries ⁱ beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them.

21 † Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment shall be given from me.

22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

23 ¶ Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease † by force and power.

24 Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

a Ezra 7. 1.

AND it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of ^a Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and ^b I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but ^c sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid,

3 And said unto the king, ^d Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when ^e the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

6 And the king said unto me, (the [†] queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him ^f a time.

7 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah;

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained ^g to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, ^h according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 ¶ Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11 So I ⁱ came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

12 ¶ And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night ^k by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were ^l broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the ^m gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 ¶ Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

18 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?

20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

THEN Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hananeel.

2 And next unto him builded the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Inri.

3 But the fish gate did the sons of Haseanaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

4 And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz. And next unto them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Mesheza-beel. And next unto them repaired Zadok the son of Baana.

5 And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord.

6 Moreover the old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

8 Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hananiah the son of one of the apothecaries, and they fortified Jerusalem unto the broad wall.

9 And next unto them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem.

10 And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabniah.

11 Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahath-moab, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces.

12 And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Haloheish, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters.

13 The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung gate.

14 But the dung gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-haccerem; he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

15 But the gate of the fountain repaired Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Siloah by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David.

16 After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Beth-zur, unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty.

17 And after him repaired the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani. Next unto him repaired Hashabiah, the ruler of the half part of Keilah, in his part.

18 After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah.

C H A P. IV.

1 While the enemies are wroth, and scoff, Nebemiah prayeth to God, and buildeth the wall.

7 Understanding their secret plottings, he setteth a watch. 13 He armeth the labourers, and giveth instructions how to proceed in case of an alarm.

BUT it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:

5 And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth,

8 And conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it.

9 Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

13 Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the LORD, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with ^b lifting up their hands: and they ^c bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maafeiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, ^k caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.

8 So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

9 ¶ And Nehemiah, which is ^{||} the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, ^m and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, ⁿ This day is holy unto the LORD your God; ^o mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law.

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, ^p and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our LORD: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD is your strength.

11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to ^q send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had ^r understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 ¶ And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even ^{||} to understand the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded [†] by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in ^s booths in the feast of the seventh month:

15 And ^t that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and ^u in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and ^v fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

16 ¶ So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the ^w roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the ^x water gate, ^y and in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very ^b great gladness.

18 Also ^c day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was [†] a solemn assembly, ^d according unto the manner.

C H A P. IX.

1 A solemn general fast and humiliation. 4 The Levites make a religious confession of God's manifold goodness, and of the national sins, which had occasioned the people's miseries.

NOW in the twenty and fourth day of ^a this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, ^b and earth upon them.

2 And ^c the seed of Israel separated themselves from all [†] strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and ^d read in the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

4 ¶ Then stood up upon the ^{||} stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever: and blessed be ^e thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 Thou, even thou, art LORD alone; ^f thou hast made heaven, ^g the heaven of heavens, with ^h all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou ^k preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

9 ^a And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and ^t heardest their cry by the Red sea;
10 And ^s shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they ^t dealt proudly against them. So didst thou ^u get thee a name, as it is this day.
11 ^x And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, ^y as a stone into the mighty waters.
12 Moreover thou ^z leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.
13 ^a Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them ^b right judgments, and ^t true laws, good statutes and commandments:
14 And madest known unto them thy ^c holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:
15 And ^d gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and ^e broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should ^f go in to possess the land [†] which thou hadst sworn to give them.
16 ^g But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and ^h hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, 17 And refused to obey, ⁱ neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed ^k a captain to return to their bondage: but thou ^{art} [†] a God ready to pardon, ^l gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.
18 Yea, ^m when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;
19 Yet thou in thy ⁿ manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the ^o pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.
20 Thou gavest also thy ^p good spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy ^q manna from their mouth, and gavest them ^r water for their thirst.

21 Yea, ^s forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their ^t clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.
22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of ^u Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.
23 ^x Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.
24 So ^y the children went in and possessed the land, and ^z thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them [†] as they would.
25 And they took strong cities, and a ^a fat land, and possessed ^b houses full of all goods, ^{||} wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and [†] fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and ^c became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great ^d goodness.
26 Nevertheless they ^e were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and ^f cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy ^g prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.
27 ^h Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou ⁱ heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies ^k thou gavest them favours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.
28 But after they had rest, [†] [†] they did evil again before thee: therefore ledest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and ^m many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies;
29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they ⁿ dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (^o which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and [†] withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

them, and testifiedst^a against them by thy spirit[†] in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.
31 Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake^a thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art^a a gracious and merciful God.

32 Now therefore our God, the great, the^a mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the[†] trouble seem little before thee, [†] that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, ^a since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

1 The names of those that sealed the covenant, 28 which the rest of the people bound themselves to observe according to the several particulars enumerated.

NOW [†] those that sealed were,^a Nehemiah, ^{||} the Tirshatha, ^b the son of Hachaliah, and Zidkijah,

2^c Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,
3 Pashur, Amariah, Malchijah,
4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,
5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,
6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,
7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,
8 Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah: these were the priests.

9 And the Levites: both Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel;

10 And their brethren, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, 11 Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah,

12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

13 Hodijah, Bani, Beninu.

14 The chief of the people; ^a Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, 15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,

17 Ater, Hizkijah, Azzur,

18 Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai,

19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,

20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,

23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub,

24 Halloheesh, Pileha, Shobek,

25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,

26 And Ahijah, Hanan, Anan,

27 Malluch, Harim, Baanah.

28 ¶ And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinims,^a and all they that had separated themselves from the people of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, every one having knowledge, and having understanding;

29 They clave to their brethren, their nobles,^a and entered into a curse, and into an oath,^b to walk in God's law, which was given[†] by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes;

30 And that we would not give^a our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons:

31^a And if the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and that we would leave the^a seventh year, and the^a exaction of[†] every debt.

32 Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God;

33 For^a the shewbread, and for the^a continual meat offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.

34 And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people,^a for the wood offering, to bring it into the

1 The rulers, together with every tenth man taken by lot, and those that offered voluntarily, dwell at Jerusalem. 3 A catalogue of their names. 20 The residue of the people dwell in other cities.

AND the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem : the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem ^a the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities.

2 And the people blessed all the men, that ^b willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

3 ¶ ^c Now these are the chief of the province that dwelt in Jerusalem : but in the cities of Judah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities, to wit, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and ^d the Nethinims, and ^e the children of Solomon's servants.

4 And ^f at Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of ^g the children of Judah ; Athaiah the son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the children of ^h Perez ;

5 And Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni.

6 All the sons of Perez that dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred threescore and eight valiant men.

7 And these are the sons of Benjamin ; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jesaiah.

8 And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight.

9 And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer : and Judah the son of Senuah was second over the city.

10 ^h Of the priests : Jedaiah the son of Joarib, Jachin.

11 Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the ruler of the house of God.

12 And their brethren that did the work of the house were eight hundred twenty and two : and Adajah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchiah,

13 And his brethren, chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two : and Amasai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahafai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, 14 And their brethren, mighty men of valour, an hundred twenty and eight : and their overseer was Zabdiel, ⁱ the son of one of the great men.

15 Also of the Levites : Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni ;

16 And Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chief of the Levites, [†] had the oversight of ^j the outward business of the house of God.

17 And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Alaph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer : and Bakbukiah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Sham-mua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

18 All the Levites in ^k the holy city were two hundred fourscore and four.

19 Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren that kept [†] the gates, were an hundred seventy and two.

20 ¶ And the residue of Israel, of the priests, and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance.

9 Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren, were over against them in the watches.

10 ¶ And Jeshua begat Joiakim, Joiakim also begat Eliashib, and Eliashib begat Joiada, 11 And Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua.

12 And in the days of Joiakim were priests, the chief of the fathers: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

13 Of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

14 Of Melicu, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

27 ¶ And at ¹ the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they fought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, ^m both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi;

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof ⁿ one went on the right hand upon the wall ^o toward the dung gate:

32 And after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah, 33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, 34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, 35 And certain of the priests' sons ^p with trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph:

36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azrael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with ^q the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them.

37 ^r And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by ^s the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto ^t the water gate eastward.

38 ^u And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond ^x the tower of the furnaces even unto ^y the broad wall;

39 ^z And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above ^a the old gate, and above ^b the fish gate, ^c and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto ^d the sheep gate: and they stood still in ^e the prison gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers [†] sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 ¶ And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions [¶] of the law for the priests and Levites: [†] for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites [†] that waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, [¶] according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David ^h and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: [†] and they [¶] sanctified holy things unto the Levites; ^k and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Upon reading the law Israel is separated from the mixed multitude. 4 Eliashib having in Nehemiah's absence prepared a chamber in the temple for Tobiah, Nehemiah on his return is offended, and causeth the chambers to be cleansed. 10 He reformeth certain abuses concerning tithes, 15 the violation of the sabbath, 23 and the marriages with strange wives.

ON that day ^a [†] they read in the book of Moses in the [†] audience of the people; and therein was found written, ^b that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever;

2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but ^c hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: ^d howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, ^e that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

4 ¶ And before this, Eliashib the priest, [†] having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah:

18 ^y Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem ^z began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: ^z and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

NOW it came to pass in the days of ^a Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, ^b from India even unto Ethiopia, ^c over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

2 That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus ^d sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in ^e Shushan the palace,

3 In the third year of his reign, he ^f made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:

4 When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were [†] present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace;

6 Where were white, green, and ^{||} blue, hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: ^g the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement ^{||} of red, and blue, and white, and black, marble.

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and [†] royal wine in abundance, [†] according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

10 [¶] On the seventh day, when ^h the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, ⁱ Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven ^{||} chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, 11 To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was [†] fair to look on.

12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment [†] by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

13 [¶] Then the king said to the ^k wife men, ^l which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment:

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marfena, and Memucan, the ^m seven princes of Persia and Media, ⁿ which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom;)

15 [†] What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?

16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall ^o despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 [†] If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment [†] from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, [†] that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate [†] unto another that is better than she.

20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall ^p give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

21 And the saying [†] pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, ^q into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should ^r bear rule in his own house, and [†] that it should be published according to the language of every people.

CHAP. II.

1 By advice of his servants Ahasuerus appointeth the fair virgins of his kingdom to be assembled in order to choose out a queen. 5 Esther brought up by Mordecai. 8 She is preferred by Hegai keeper of the women before all the other virgins, but by Mordecai's directions telleth not her kindred. 12 The manner of purification and going in unto the king. 15 Esther pleaseth him, and is made queen. 21 Mordecai discovereth a plot against the king's life, which service is registered in the chronicles of the kingdom.

AFTER these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and ^a what was decreed against her.

2 Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king :

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, † unto the custody of || Hegai the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them :

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

5 ¶ Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite;

6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with || Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he † brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, ^c his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was † fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

8 ¶ So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were ^d gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her ^e things for purification, with † such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and † he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

10 ^f Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, † to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

12 ¶ Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women;)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 ¶ Now when the turn of Esther, ^g the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and || favour † in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king ^h made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a † release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat ⁱ in the king's gate.

AFTER these things did king Ahasuerus promote ^a Haman the son of Hammedatha the ^b Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed, and revered Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai ^c bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the ^e king's commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai ^f bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman ^g full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman ^h sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

7 ¶ In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, ⁱ they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.

8 ¶ And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and ^k their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not † for the king's profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written † that they may be destroyed: and I will † pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

10 And the king ^l took ^m his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' ⁿ enemy.

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 ^a Then were the king's || scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province ^c according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; ^d in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.

13 And the letters were ^e sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, ^f in one day, even upon ^g the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and ^h to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14 ⁱ The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but ^k the city Shushan was perplexed.

3 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, ^c a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he ^d holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, † ^e to destroy him without cause.

4 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

5 ^f But put forth thine hand now, and touch his ^g bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

6 ^h And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; † but save his life.

7 ¶ So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils ⁱ from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; ^k and he sat down among the ashes.

9 ¶ Then said his wife unto him, ^l Dost thou still ^m retain thine integrity? curse God, and die.

10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? ^a shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? ^o In all this did not Job ^p sin with his lips.

11 ^q Now when Job's three ^a friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the ^r Temanite, and Bildad the ^s Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come ^t to mourn with him and to comfort him.

12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and ^u sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground ^x seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

C H A P. III.

1 Job curseth the day of his birth, 11 and wisheth he had never been roused out of the quiet sleep of the grave: 20 he complaineth of life because of his anguish.

AFTER this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Job [†] spake, and said,
3 ^a Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived.

4 Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and ^b the shadow of death ^{||} stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; ^{||} let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; ^{||} let it not be joined unto the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it that curse the day, ^c who are ready to raise up ^{||} their mourning.

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see [†] the dawning of the day:

10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

11 ^d Why died I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

12 ^e Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest, 14 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which ^f built desolate places for themselves;

15 Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:

16 Or ^g as an hidden untimely birth I ^h had not been; as infants which never saw light.

17 There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the [†] weary be at rest.

18 There the prisoners rest together; ⁱ they hear not the voice of the oppressor.

19 The small and great are there; and the servant is free from his master.

20 ⁱ Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the ^k bitter in soul;

21 Which [†] ^l long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than ^m for hid treasures;

22 Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave?

23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, ⁿ and whom God hath hedged in?

24 For my sighing cometh [†] before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

25 For [†] the thing which I greatly feared [†] is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of [†] is come unto me.

26 I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

C H A P. IV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job for want of religious trust: 7 he remindeth him that God's judgments are not for the righteous, but for the wicked. 12 His fearful vision, designed to humble the vain opinion of Man's excellency in the sight of his Maker.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 If we assay [†] to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but [†] who can withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou ^a hast strengthened the weak hands.

4 Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou ^b hast strengthened [†] the feeble knees.

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this ^c thy fear, ^d thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?

7 Remember, I pray thee, ^e who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

CHAP. V.

1 Eliphaz proceedeth to shew that the end of the wicked is certain misery : 6 that Man is born to trouble : 8 that God should be sought to in time of affliction : 17 the happy end of God's correction.

CALL now, if there be any that will answer thee ; and to which of the faints wilt thou || turn ?

2 For wrath killeth the foolish man, and || envy slayeth the silly one.

3 ^a I have seen the foolish taking root :
but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 ^b His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, ^c neither ^{is there} any to deliver them.

5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and ^d the robber swalloweth up their substance.

6 Although || affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground ;

7 Yet man is ^e born unto || trouble, as
† the sparks fly upward.

8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause :

9 ^f Which doeth great things [†] and un-searchable ; marvellous things [†] without number :

10 ^g Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the [†] fields :

11 ^h To set up on high those that be low ; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety.

12 ⁱ He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands || cannot perform their enterprise.

13 ^k He taketh the wise in their own craftiness : and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

14 [†] They || meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope in the noonday as in the night.

15 But ^m he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

16 ⁿ So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

17 ^o Behold, happy ^{is} the man whom God correcteth : therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty :

18 ^p For he maketh sore, and bindeth up :
he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

19 ^q He shall deliver thee in six troubles : yea, in seven ^r there shall no evil touch thee.

20 ^s In famine he shall redeem thee from death : and in war [†] from the power of the sword.

21 ^t Thou shalt be hid || from the scourge of the tongue : neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

22 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh : ^u neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

23 ^v For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field : and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.

24 And thou shalt know || that thy tabernacle shall be in peace ; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not || sin.

25 Thou shalt know also that ^y thy seed shall be || great, and thine offspring ^z as the grafs of the earth.

26 ^a Thou shalt come to thy grave in a

1 Job sheweth that his complaints are not causeless: 8 he wisheth for death, wherein he is assured of comfort: 14 he reproveth his friends of unkindness.

BUT Job answered and said,
2 Oh that my grief were thoroughly weighed, and my calamity † laid in the balances together!

3 For now it would be heavier ^a than the sand of the sea: therefore || my words are swallowed up.

4 ^b For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: ^c the terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.

5 Doth the wild ass bray † when he hath grafs? or loweth the ox over his fodder?

7 The things that my soul refused to touch are as my sorrowful meat.

8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me † the thing that I long for!

9 Even ^d that it would please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!

10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for ^e I have not concealed the words of ^f the Holy One.

11 What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

1 Bildad sheweth God's justice in dealing with men according to their works: 8 he appealeth to antiquity to prove the certain destruction of the hypocrite: 20 he applieth the argument of God's just dealing to the case of Job.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

3 ^a Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

4 If ^b thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away † for their transgression;

5 ^c If thou wouldest seek unto God sometimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;

6 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 ^d For enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:

9 (For ^e we are but of yesterday, and know † nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:)

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?

11 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?

12 ^f Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

13 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the ^g hypocrite's hope shall perish:

15 ^h He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

18 ⁱ If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and ^k out of the earth shall others grow.

20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he † help the evil doers:

21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with † rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be ^l clothed with shame; and the dwelling place of the wicked † shall come to nought.

CHAP. IX.

1 Job acknowledgeth God's justice, wisdom, and power, against which there is no contending:

14 he disclaimeth all thought of justifying himself; 20 but insisteth that a man's innocency is not to be judged by the good or evil that befalls him in this world: 25 he alledgeth his own misfortunes, but will not presume to dispute with the author of them, who is so much above him.

THEN Job answered and said, 2 I know it is so of a truth: but how should ^a man be just || with God?

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4 ^b He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger.

6 Which ^c shaketh the earth out of her place, and ^d the pillars thereof tremble.

7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the stars.

8 ^e Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the † waves of the sea.

9 ^f Which maketh † Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south.

10 ^g Which doeth great things past finding out; yea, and wonders without number.

hinder him? who will say unto him, What dost thou?

¹³ If God will not withdraw his anger, ¹⁴ How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?

¹⁵ Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my judge.

¹⁶ If I had called, and he had answered me; yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

¹⁷ For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds^m without cause.

¹⁸ He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

¹⁹ If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?

²⁰ If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

²² This is one thing, therefore I said it, He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

²³ If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

²⁴ The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is he?

²⁵ Now^p my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good.

²⁶ They are passed away as the swift ships: as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.

²⁷ If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself:

²⁸ I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

²⁹ If I be wicked, why then labour I in vain?

³⁰ If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands never so clean;

³¹ Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me.

³² For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.

³³ Neither is there any daysman betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.

³⁴ Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify me:

³⁵ Then would I speak, and not fear him; but it is not so with me.

¹ Embittered by his sufferings Job taketh more liberty in expostulating with God. ¹⁸ he repineth at having been brought into being, and prayeth for a little respite from pain before his death.

MY soul is weary of my life; I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

² I will say unto God, Do not condemn me; shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.

³ Is it good unto thee that thou shouldst oppress, that thou shouldst despise the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

⁴ Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?

⁵ Are thy days as the days of man? are thy years as man's days,

⁶ That thou enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?

⁸ Thine hands have made me and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

⁹ Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

¹⁰ Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

¹¹ Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.

¹² Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

¹³ And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.

¹⁴ If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

¹⁵ If I be wicked, woe unto me; and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore see thou mine affliction;

¹⁶ For it increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion: and again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.

¹⁷ Thou renewest thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; changes and war are against me.

¹⁸ Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me!

¹⁹ I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

CHAP. XI.

1 Zophar sharply reproveth Job for justifying himself: 7 he sheweth that God's counsels are unsearchable; 13 and that repentance is the only sure way for him to recover lost happiness.

THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should [†] a man full of talk be justified?

3 Should thy ^{||} lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

4 For ^a thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.

5 But Oh that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;

6 And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know therefore that ^b God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.

7 ^c Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

10 ^d If he ^{||} cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then [†] who can hinder him?

11 For ^e he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?

12 For [†] vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt.

13 ^f If thou ^h prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him;

14 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and ^g let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

15 For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear:

16 Because thou shalt ^m forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:

17 And thine age [†] shall be clearer than the noonday; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Job reproveth his friends of false reasoning and partiality: 14 though unable to account for his own afflictions, he professeth his confidence in God: 20 he intreateth to know his sins, and the cause of his affliction.

L O, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 ^a What ye know, the same do I know also: I am not inferior unto you.3 ^b Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.4 But ye are forgers of lies, ^c ye are all physicians of no value.5 O that ye would altogether hold your peace; and ^d it should be your wisdom.

6 Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 ^e Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?

10 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 [†] Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.14 Wherefore ^f do I take my flesh in my teeth, and ^g put my life in mine hand?15 ^h Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: ⁱ but I will [†] maintain mine own ways before him.

16 He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him.

17 Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified.

19 ^k Who is he that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost.20 [†] Only do not two things unto me: then will I not hide myself from thee.21 ^m Withdraw thine hand far from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid.

22 Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities and sins? make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 ⁿ Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and ^o holdest me for thine enemy?25 ^p Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and ^q makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.27 [†] Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and [†] lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print upon the [†] heels of my feet.

28 And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten.

C H A P. XIV.

1 Job intreateth God's forbearance in respect of the shortness and troubles of life, 5 and of the certainty of death, which cutteth short man's hope: 13 he wisheth for some place of shelter, where to wait his appointed change: 18 all created beings are subject to corruption.

M A N that is born of a woman is [†] of few days, and ^a full of trouble.2 ^b He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.3 And ^c dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and ^d bringest me into judgment with thee?4 [†] Who ^e can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.5 ^f Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;6 ^g Turn from him, that he may [†] rest, till he shall accomplish, ^h as an hireling, his day.7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, ⁱ that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:

12 So man lieth down, and riseth not: † till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

14 If a man die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, † till my change come.

15 Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 For now thou numbereest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?

17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling † cometh to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones: thou † wastest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man.

20 Thou prevailest for ever against him, and he passeth: thou changeest his countenance, and sendest him away.

21 His sons come to honour, and † he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

22 But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.

CHAP. XV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job of impiety in justifying himself: 17 he proveth from tradition the disquietude of wicked men.

THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Should a wise man utter † vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

4 Yea, † thou castest off fear, and restrainest † prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth † uttereth thine iniquity, and thou chooseth the tongue of the crafty.

6 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 Art thou the first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills?

8 Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

9 What knowest thou, that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 With us are both the grayheaded and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

11 Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee?

12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? and what do thy eyes wink at, 13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth?

14 What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

15 Behold, he putteth no trust in his fairs; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.

16 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water?

17 I will shew thee, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare;

18 Which wise men have told † from their fathers, and have not hid it:

19 Unto whom alone the earth was given, and † no stranger passed among them.

20 The wicked man travelleth with pain all his days, † and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

21 † A dreadful sound is in his ears: † in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23 He wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that † the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.

26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers:

27 Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collups of fat on his flanks.

28 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darkness;

1 Job reproveth his friends of inhumanity toward him: 7 he pathetically describeth his unhappy case; 17 still protesting his innocence, for which he maketh appeal to God.

THEN Job answered and said, 2 I have heard many such things: ^{mis} miserable comforters are ye all.

^{Or,} 3 Shall ^{trouble-} vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?

^{same.} 4 I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and ^{ch. 13. 4.} shake mine head at you.

16 My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death;

17 Not for any injustice in mine hands: also my prayer is pure.

18 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and ^{let} my cry have no place.

19 Also now, behold, ^{my} witness is in heaven, and my record is ^{on} high.

1 Job longeth to appear before God, 6 in confidence of being heard with mercy, and acquitted. 8 God, though invisible, observeth our ways. 11 Job asserteth his own integrity; 13 but the immutable counsel of God troubleth him.

THEN Job answered and said,
2 Even to day is my complaint bitter: † my stroke is heavier than my groaning.
3 ^a Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!
4 I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

6 ^b Will he plead against me with his great power? No; but he would put strength in me.

7 There the righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for ever from my judge.

8 ^c Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him:

11 ^f My foot hath held his steps, his way have I kept, and not declined.

14 For he performeth the thing that is ^k appointed for me: and many such things are with him.

15 Therefore am I troubled at his presence: when I consider, I am afraid of him.

1 Job sheweth that although man may by his industry search deep into nature, 12 yet is the wisdom and understanding of God's ways beyond his reach, 23 being comprehended by God only. 28 Man's wisdom is to fear God and to depart from evil.

23 God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.

24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and ^s seeth under the whole heaven;

25 ^h To make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure.

26 When he ⁱ made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder:

27 Then did he see it, and ^{||} declare it; he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.

28 And unto man he said, Behold, ^k the fear of the LORD, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 Job calleth to mind his former prosperity and honour, and the worthy use he had made of it.

Moreover Job [†] continued his parable, and said,

2 Oh that I were ^a as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me;

3 ^b When his ^{||} candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness;

4 As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle;

5 When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me;

6 When ^d I washed my steps with butter, and ^e the rock poured [†] me out rivers of oil;

7 When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street!

8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.

9 The princes refrained talking, and ^f laid their hand on their mouth.

10 [†] The nobles held their peace, and their ^g tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:

12 Because ^h I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

14 ⁱ I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

15 I was ^k eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor: and ^l the cause which I knew not I searched out.

17 And I brake ^m the jaws of the wicked, and [†] plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

18 Then I said, ⁿ I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.

19 ^o My root was [†] spread out ^p by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

20 My glory was [†] fresh in me, and ^q my bow was [†] renewed in my hand.

21 Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.

22 After my words they spake not again; and my speech dropped upon them.

23 And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for ^r the latter rain.

• 24 If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

25 I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Job lamenteth the change of his honour into extreme contempt; 15 and of his prosperity into the deepest distress.

BUT now they that are [†] younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

3 For want and famine they were ^{||} solitary; fleeing into the wilderness [†] in former time desolate and waste.

4 Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and juniper roots for their meat.

5 They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them as after a thief;)

6 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in [†] caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.

8 They were children of fools, yea, children of [†] base men: they were viler than the earth.

9 ^a And now am I their song, yea, I am their byword.

10 They abhor me, they flee far from me, [†] and spare not ^b to spit in my face.

11 Because he ^c hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand rise the youth; they push away my feet, and ^d they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper.

14 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

C H A P. XXXI.

Job maketh a solemn protestation of his integrity in several duties.

I MADE a covenant with mine ^a eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?

2 For what ^b portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

4 ^c Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hastened to deceit;

6 † Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity.

7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and ^d mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to mine hands;

8 Then ^e let me sow, and let another eat; yea, let my offspring be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door;

10 Then let my wife grind unto ^f another, and let others bow down upon her.

11 For this is an heinous crime; yea, ^g it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.

12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.

13 If I did despise the cause of my manservant or of my maidservant, when they contended with me;

14 What then shall I do when ^h God riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

15 ⁱ Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and || did not one fashion us in the womb?

16 If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;

17 Or have eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;

18 (For from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided || her from my mother's womb;)

19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;

20 If his loins have not ^k blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

21 If I have lifted up my hand ^l against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate:

22 Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder blade, and mine arm be broken from || the bone.

23 For ^m destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

24 ⁿ If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;

25 ^o If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had † gotten much;

26 ^p If I beheld † the sun when it shined, or the moon walking † in brightness;

27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or † my mouth hath kissed my hand:

28 This also were ^q an iniquity to be punished by the judge: for I should have denied the God that is above.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Elihu is angry with Job and his three friends.

6 He excuseth the boldness of his youth, because wisdom doth not always come from age :

11 he complaineth of the weak reasonings of those, who, instead of confuting Job, had been silenced by him : 16 he sheweth his own zeal to speak, 21 which he professeth to do without respect of person.

SO these three men ceased † to answer Job, because he was ^a righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel ^b the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram : against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified † himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had † waited till Job had spoken, because they were † elder than he.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am † young, ^c and ye are very old ; wherefore I was afraid, and † durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

8 But there is a spirit in man : and ^d the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

9 ^e Great men are not always wise : neither do the aged understand judgment.

10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me ; I also will shew mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words ; I gave ear to your † reasons, whilst ye searched out † what to say.

12 Yea, I attended unto you, and, behold, there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words :

13 ' Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom : God thrusteth him down, not man.

14 Now he hath not || directed his words against me : neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They were amazed, they answered no more : † they left off speaking.

16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more ;)

17 I said, I will answer also my part, I also will shew mine opinion.

18 For I am full of † matter, † the spirit within me constraineth me.

19 Behold, my belly is as wine which † hath no vent ; it is ready to burst like new bottles.

20 I will speak, † that I may be refreshed : I will open my lips and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, ^e accept any man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man.

22 For I know not to give flattering titles ; in so doing my maker would soon take me away.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Elihu offereth himself instead of God to reason with Job in sincerity without terrifying him :

8 he blameth him for insisting so much upon his innocence, and for his complaints against God, who is not accountable to man for his doings.

14 God instructeth and calleth man to repentance by night visions, 19 by afflictions, 23 and by the agency of his ministers. 31 Elihu bespeaketh Job's farther attention.

W Herefore, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

C H A P. XXXIV.

1 Elihu chargeth Job with arraigning God's justice ; 10 whose sovereign perfections suffer him not to be unjust. 31 Man ought to humble himself before God. 34 Job is blamed for his rash discourses.

Furthermore Elihu answered and said,
2 Hear my words, O ye wife men ; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

3 ^aFor the ear trieth words, as the [†]mouth tasteth meat.

4 Let us choose to us judgment : let us know among ourselves what is good.

5 For Job hath said, ^bI am righteous : and ^cGod hath taken away my judgment.

6 ^dShould I lie against my right ? [†]my wound is incurable without transgression.

7 What man is like Job, ^ewho drinketh up scorning like water ?

8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.

9 For ^fhe hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.

10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye [†]men of understanding : ^gfar be it from God, that he should do wickedness ; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.

11 ^hFor the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.

12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty ⁱpervert judgment.

Or,

My father,

let Job be tried.

15 ¹ All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words.

17 ^m Shall even he that hateth right † govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?

18 ^a Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?

19 How much less to him that ^o accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for ^p they all are the work of his hands.

20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled ^a at midnight, and pass away: and † the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

21 ¹ For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

22 ^s There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

23 For he will not lay upon man more than right; that he should † enter into judgment with God.

24 ¹ He shall break in pieces mighty men † without number, and set others in their stead.

25 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are † destroyed.

26 He striketh them as wicked men † in the open sight of others;

27 Because they ^a turned back † from him, and ^x would not consider any of his ways:

28 So that they ^y cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he ^z heareth the cry of the afflicted.

29 When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:

30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest ^a the people be ensnared.

31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, ^b I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:

32 That which I see not teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.

33 † Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest.

34 Let men † of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

35 ^c Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.

36 ^{||} My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end because of his answers for wicked men.

37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against God.

CHAP. XXXV.

Elibu again reproveth Job of setting up his own righteousness against God's, between whom and man there is no comparison. 6 The good or evil actions of men extend not to God. 9 If God beareth not the cry of the afflicted, it is because they address him not as they ought. 14 The application of this doctrine to the case of Job.

ELIBU spake moreover, and said,
2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than God's?

3 For ^a thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, † if I be cleansed from my sin?

4 † I will answer thee, and ^b thy companions with thee.

5 ^c Look unto the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.

6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou ^d against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?

7 ^e If thou be righteous, what givest thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?

8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

9 ^f By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

10 But none saith, ^g Where is God my maker, ^h who giveth songs in the night;

11 Who ⁱ teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

12 ^k There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.

13 ^l Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.

14 ^m Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore ⁿ trust thou in him.

15 But now, because it is not ^o so, † he hath ^o visited in his anger; yet † he knoweth it not in great extremity:

16 ^p Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.

CHAP. XXXVI.

Elibu proceedeth to shew that God is just in all his ways. 8 The end of God's chastisements, and the happiness of making a right use of them. 12 The danger of not profiting by them. 16 God's mercy hindered by Job's offence: 18 he is exhorted to repentance. 22

God's power uncontroulable. 24 His works are to be magnified, but cannot be comprehended.

ELIHU also proceeded, and said,
2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee † that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false:
he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and † wisdom.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the ‖ poor.

7 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

9 Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

10 He openeth also their ear to disci- pline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve him, they shall † spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.

12 But if they obey not, † they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart he heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth them.

14 They die in youth, and their life is among the ‖ unclean.

15 He delivereth the ‖ poor in his afflic-tion, and openeth their ears in oppression.

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and † that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: ‖ judgment and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransom cannot † deliver thee.

19 Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power:
who teacheth like him?

23 Who hath enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold.

25 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and we know him not, neither can the number of his years be searched out.

27 For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof:

28 Which the clouds do drop and distil
upon man abundantly.

29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his ta- bernacle?

30 Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth † the bottom of the sea.

31 For by them judgeth he the people;
he giveth meat in abundance.

32 With clouds he covereth the light;
and commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh betwixt:

33 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning † the vapour.

* C H A P. XXXVII.

1 God is terrible in his great works: 15 his wisdom is unsearchable in them: 23 the excellence of his perfections ought to impress men with lowly fear.

AT this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 † Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his † lightning unto the † ends of the earth.

4 After it a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; † likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He sealeth up the hand of every man;
that all men may know his work.

8 Then the beasts go into dens, and re- main in their places.

9 † Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of the † north.

10 By the breath of God frost is given:
and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth † his bright cloud:

12 And it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

THEN Job answered the LORD, and said, 2 I know that thou ^a canst do every thing, and that || no thought can be withholden from thee.

3 ^b Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge ? therefore have I uttered that I understood not ; ^c things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak : 5 I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear : but now mine eye seeth thee.

6 Wherefore I ^e abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

7 ¶ And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends : for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

8 Therefore take unto you now ^f seven bullocks and seven rams, and ^g go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering ; and my servant Job shall ^h pray for you : for [†] him will I accept : lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

9 ¶ So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them : the LORD also accepted [†] Job.

10 ⁱ And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends : also the LORD [†] gave Job ^k twice as much as he had before.

11 Then came there unto him ^l all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house : and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him : every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.

12 So the LORD blessed ^m the latter end of Job more than his beginning : for he had ⁿ fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

13 ¶ ^o He had also seven sons and three daughters.

14 And he called the name of the first, Jemima ; and the name of the second, Kezia ; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.

15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job : and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

16 ¶ After this ^p lived Job an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.

45 For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

professing his innocence. 10 By faith be seth his defence, and the destruction of his enemies.

* Shiggaion of David, which he sang unto the LORD, concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite.

O LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me:

2 Left he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

3 O LORD my God, if I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (yea, I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy:)

5 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah.

6 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded.

7 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high.

8 The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me.

9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

10 My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart.

11 God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

12 If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

14 Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

15 He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

17 I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high.

1 David describeth the general corruption of mankind. 7 He wisbeth to see the salvation of God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.

2 The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

3 They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the LORD.

5 There were they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous.

6 Ye have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his refuge.

7 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! when the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

P S A L. XV.

The proper character of a citizen of Zion.

A Psalm of David.

LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

3 He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

4 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

5 He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

David fleeth to God for preservation, disclaiming all merit, and professing hatred of idolatry: 5 he rejoiceth in having God for his portion: 8 he confideth in God's present protection, and in a future resurrection, and life everlasting.

|| * Michtam of David.

Preserve me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, Thou art my Lord: my goodness extendeth not to thee;

3 But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

5 The LORD is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

6 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

7 I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night seasons.

8 I have set the LORD always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

10 For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

11 Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

David's psalm of thanksgiving for God's mighty deliverances and manifold blessings.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, ^{} the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of ^{} this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said,

^a Will love thee, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, [†] my strength, ^b in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, ^c who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 ^d The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of [†] ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The ^{||} sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 ^c Then the earth shook and trembled; ^e Aets 4. 31. the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke [†] out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it. [†] Heb. by his.

9 ^f He bowed the heavens also, and came [†] down: and darkness was under his feet. [†] Pf. 144. 5.

10 ^g And he rode upon a cherub, and did [†] fly: yea, ^h he did fly upon the wings of the [†] wind. [†] Pf. 99. 1. [†] Pf. 104. 3.

11 He made darkness his secret place; ⁱ his pavilion round about him were dark ⁱ waters and thick clouds of the skies. ⁱ Pf. 97. 2.

12 ^k At the brightness that was before ^k him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire. ^k Pf. 97. 3.

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave ⁱ his voice; ⁱ hail stones and coals of fire. ⁱ Pf. 29. 3.

14 ^m Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them. ^m Joh. 10. 10. ^{||} Pf. 144. 6. ^{||} Isai. 30. 30.

15 ⁿ Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils. ⁿ Exod. 15. 8. ^{||} Pf. 106. 9.

16 ^o He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of ^{||} many waters. ^o Pf. 144. 7. ^{||} Or, great waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

19 ^p He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me. ^p Pf. 31. 8. & 118. 5.

20 ^q The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me. ^q 1 Sam. 24. 20.

21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.

23 I was also upright [†] before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity. [†] Heb. with.

24 ^r Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands [†] in his eyesight. ^r 1 Sam. 26. 23. [†] Heb. before his eyes. [†] 1 Kings 8. 32. [†] Lev. 26. 23. 24. 27. 28. ^{||} Prov. 3. 34. ^{||} Or, wrestle.

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down ^a high looks.

28 ^a For thou wilt light my ^{||} candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

29 For by thee I have ^{||} run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

30 As for God, ^v his way is perfect: ^z the word of the LORD is ^{||} tried: he is a buckler ^a to all those that trust in him.

31 ^b For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?

32 It is God that ^c girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

33 ^d He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and ^e setteth me upon my high places.

34 ^f He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and ^{||} thy gentleness hath made me great.

36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, ^g that ⁺ my feet did not slip.

37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.

39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast ⁺ subdued under me those that rose up against me.

40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.

41 They cried, but there was none to save them: ^h even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.

42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did ⁱ cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

43 ^k Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and ^l thou hast made me the head of the heathen: ^m a people whom I have not known shall serve me.

44 ⁺ As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: ⁺ the strangers ⁿ shall ^{||} ⁺ submit themselves unto me.

45 ^o The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.

46 The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

47 It is God that ⁺ avengeth me, ^p and ^{||} subdueth the people unto me.

48 He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, ^q thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the ⁺ violent man.

49 ^r Therefore will I ^{||} give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name.

50 ^r Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed ^r for evermore.

2 For they shall soon be cut down ^b like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the LORD, and do good; ^c so shalt thou dwell in the land, and ^d verily thou shalt be fed.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: ^l fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9 ^m For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall ⁿ inherit the earth.

10 For ^o yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, ^p thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 ^q But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked || plotteth against the just, ^r and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

13 ^s The LORD shall laugh at him: for he seeth that ^t his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay ^u such as be of upright conversation.

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as † the fat of lambs: they shall consume; † into smoke shall they consume away.

21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but † the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.

22 † For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him † shall be cut off.

23 † The steps of a good man are || ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way.

24 † Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed † begging bread.

26 † He is † ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed.

27 † Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore.

28 For the LORD † loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: † but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

29 † The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

30 † The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

31 † The law of his God is in his heart; none of his || steps shall slide.

32 The wicked † watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

33 The LORD † will not leave him in his hand, nor † condemn him when he is judged.

34 † Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: † when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

35 † I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like || a green bay tree.

36 Yet he † passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I fought him, but he could not be found.

37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for † the end of that man is peace.

† LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath: † neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 For † thine arrows stick fast in me, and † thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; † neither is there any † rest in my bones because of my sin.

4 For † mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too † heavy for me.

5 My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness.

6 I am † troubled; † I am bowed down greatly; † I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a † loathsome disease: and there is † no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am feeble and sore broken: † I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

9 LORD, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for † the light of mine eyes, it also † is gone from me.

11 † My lovers and my friends † stand aloof from my † fore; and || my kinsmen † stand afar off.

12 They also that seek after my life † lay snares for me: and they that seek my hurt † speak mischievous things, and † imagine deceits all the day long.

13 But † I, as a deaf man, heard not; † and I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For || in thee, O LORD, † do I hope: thou wilt || hear, O LORD my God.

16 For I said, Hear me, † lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my † foot slippeth, they † magnify themselves against me.

1 The church calling to mind former favours, 9 complaineth of present evils: 17 professing her integrity, 23 she fervently prayeth for succour. To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, Maschil.

WE have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old.

2 How^b thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out.

3 For^c they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, ^d because thou hadst a favour unto them.

4 Thou art my King, O God: command deliverances for Jacob.

5 Through thee^f will we push down our enemies: through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us.

6 For^g I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast^h put them to shame that hated us.

8ⁱ In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah.

9 But^k thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

10 Thou makest us to^l turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves.

11^m Thou hast given us[†] like sheep appointed for meat; and hastⁿ scattered us among the heathen.

12^o Thou sellest thy people[†] for nought, and dost not increase^{thy} wealth by their price.

13^p Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

14^q Thou makest us a byword among the heathen, ^r a shaking of the head among the people.

15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, 16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; ^s by reason of the enemy and avenger.

17^t All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.

21^a Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

22^b Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23^c Awake, why sleepest thou, O LORD? arise, ^d cast us not off for ever.

24^e Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?

25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

1 The Psalmist calleth upon all the earth to join him in his meditations: 5 he sheweth the vanity of trusting in worldly wealth.

|| Or, of. To the chief Musician, A Psalm || for the sons of Korah.

HEAR this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2 Both low and high, rich and poor, together.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

4 I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?

6 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him:

8 (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever:)

9 That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption.

10 For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.

13 This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Selah.

1 The majesty of God in the church: 5 his command to gather his saints. 7 God delighteth not in sacrifice, 14 but in a pious heart. 16 The hypocrite rebuked: 23 Salvation promised to the upright.

A Psalm || of Asaph.

THE mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

4 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself. Selah.

7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: I am God, even thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.

9 I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds.

10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most high:

15 And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

P S A L. LXI.

David encouraged by former experience fleeth to God in prayer: 4 he voweth perpetual service unto him because of past, and in prospect of future mercies.

To the chief Musician upon Neginah,
A Psalm of David.

HEAR my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

3 For thou hast been a shelter for me, and ^a a strong tower from the enemy.

4 ^b I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: ^c I will || trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.

5 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

6 ^d Thou wilt prolong the king's life: and his years ^e as many generations.

7 He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy ^f and truth, which may preserve him.

8 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows.

P S A L. LXII.

1 David professing his confidence in God discourageth his enemies. 5 In the same confidence he encourageth the godly. 9 No trust is to be put in worldly things. 11 Power and mercy belong to God.

To the chief Musician, to ^g Jeduthun,
A Psalm of David.

TRULY ^h my soul ⁱ waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

2 ^j He only is my rock and my salvation; he is my ^k defence; ^l I shall not be greatly moved.

3 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: ^m as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

4 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency: they delight in lies: ⁿ they bless with their mouth, but they curse ^o inwardly. Selah.

5 ^p My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him.

6 He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved.

7 ^q In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

8 Trust in him at all times; ye people, ^r pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.

9 ^s Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are || altogether lighter than vanity.

10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: ^t if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

11 God hath spoken ^u once; twice have I heard this; that ^v || power belongeth unto God.

12 Also unto thee, O LORD, belongeth ^w mercy: for ^x thou renderest to every man according to his work.

P S A L. LXIII.

1 David's thirst after God's service in his sanctuary: 4 his manner of blessing God: 9 his confidence of the destruction of his enemies, and of his own rejoicing.

A Psalm of David, ^y when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: ^z my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and ^a thirsty land, ^b where no water is;

2 To see ^c thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

3 ^d Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

4 Thus will I bless thee ^e while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.

5 My soul shall be ^f satisfied as with ^g marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:

6 When ^h I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.

7 Because thou hast been my help, therefore ⁱ in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

8 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 ^j They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.

11 But the king shall rejoice in God; ^k every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

P S A L. LXIV.

1 David prayeth for deliverance, complaining of his enemies: 7 he promiseth himself to see such an evident destruction of his enemies, that the righteous shall rejoice at it.

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:
 3 Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words:
 4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.
 5 They encourage themselves in an evil matter: they commune of laying snares privily; they say, Who shall see them?
 6 They search out iniquities; they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.
 7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly shall they be wounded.
 8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away.
 9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing.
 10 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

P S A L. LXV.

1 David praiseth God: 4 The blessedness of God's chosen because of his infinite power and goodness.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm and Song of David.

PRAISE waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

2 O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

5 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being girded with power:

7 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.

11 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

P S A L. LXVI.

1 David exhorteth to praise God, 5 to observe his great works, 8 to bless him for his gracious benefits: 13 he voweth for himself religious service to God: 16 he declareth God's special goodness to himself.

To the chief Musician, A Song or Psalm.

MAKE a joyful noise unto God, ye lands:

2 Sing forth the honour of his name: make his praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works! through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

4 All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. Selah.

5 Come and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

6 He turned the sea into dry land: they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him.

7 He ruleth by his power for ever; his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.

8 O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard:

9 Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.

10 For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

11 Thou broughtest us into the net; thou laidst affliction upon our loins.

12 Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

PSALM. LXVII.

1 A prayer for the enlargement of God's kingdom, 3 to the joy of the people, 6 and to the increase of God's blessings.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm or Song.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us; and [†]cause his face to shine [†]upon us. Selah.

2 That [†]thy way may be known upon earth, [†]thy saving health among all nations.

3 [†]Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

4 O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for [†]thou shalt judge the people righteously, and [†]govern the nations upon earth. Selah.

5 Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

6 [†]Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

7 God shall bless us; and [†]all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

PSALM. LXVIII.

1 A prayer at the removing of the ark. 4 An exhortation to praise God for his mercies, 7 for his former care of the church, 19 and daily providence over it. 20 The church hath confidence in his future protection. 24 The magnificent pomp of bringing up the ark. 28 A prayer for the confirmation of God's goodness to his church. 32 An exhortation to all kingdoms to praise the God of Israel.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm or Song of David.

LET [†]God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee [†]before him.

2 [†]As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: [†]as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish in the presence of God.

3 But [†]let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yea, let them [†]exceedingly rejoice.

4 [†]Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: [†]extol him that rideth upon the heavens [†]by his name JAH, and rejoice before him.

5 [†]A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.

6 [†]God setteth the solitary [†]in families: [†]he bringeth out those which are bound with chains: but [†]the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

7 O God, [†]when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness; Selah:

8 [†]The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

9 [†]Thou, O God, didst [†]send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst [†]confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: [†]thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor.

11 The LORD gave the word: great was the [†]company of those that published it.

12 [†]Kings of armies [†]did flee apace: and she that tarried at home divided the spoil.

13 [†]Though ye have lien among the pots, [†]yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold.

16 [†]Why leap ye, ye high hills? [†]this is the hill which God desireth to dwell in; yea, the LORD will dwell in it for ever.

17 [†]The chariots of God are twenty thousand, [†]even thousands of angels: the LORD is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place.

18 [†]Thou hast ascended on high, [†]thou hast led captivity captive: [†]thou hast received gifts [†]for men; yea, for [†]the rebellious also, [†]that the LORD God might dwell among them.

¹ David complaineth of his affliction: 7, 19 and of the reproach and insults of his enemies: 13 he prayeth for deliverance: 22 he devoteth his enemies to destruction: 30 he engageth to praise God with thanksgiving. 34 The whole creation is called upon to praise God for his goodness to the church.

To the chief Musician * upon Shoshannim, A Psalm of David.

SAVE me, O God; for ^a the waters are come in unto my soul.

² ^b I sink in [†] deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into [†] deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

³ ^c I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried: ^d mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.

⁴ They that ^e hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away.

⁵ O God, thou knowest my foolishness; and my [†] sins are not hid from thee.

⁶ Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.

⁷ Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face.

⁸ ^f I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children.

⁹ ^g For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; ^h and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

¹⁰ ⁱ When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach.

¹¹ I made sackcloth also my garment; ^k and I became a proverb to them.

¹² They that sit in the gate speak against me; and ^l I was the song of the [†] drunkards.

¹³ But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, ^m in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation.

¹⁴ Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: ⁿ let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of ^o the deep waters.

¹⁵ Let not the waterflood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit ^p shut her mouth upon me.

¹⁶ Hear me, O LORD; ^q for thy loving-kindness is good: ^r turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.

¹⁷ And ^s hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in trouble: [†] hear me speedily.

¹⁸ Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies.

¹⁹ Thou hast known ^t my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee.

²⁰ Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness: and ^u I looked for some [†] to take pity, but there was none; and for ^x comforters, but I found none.

²¹ They gave me also gall for my meat; ^y and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

MAKE haste, ^a O God, to deliver me; make haste [†] to help me, O LORD.

2 ^b Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, which prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

13 Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency.

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

16 When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me;

17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end.

18 Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 As a dream when one awaketh; so, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

22 So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before thee.

23 Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

25 Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee.

26 My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

27 For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.

P S A L. LXXVIII.

1 An exhortation both to learn and to preach the law of God. 9 The story of God's wrath against the incredulous and disobedient. 67 The Israelites being rejected, God chose Judah, Zion, and David.

* || Maschil of Asaph.

GIVE ear, O my people, to my law:
incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable:
I will utter dark sayings of old:

3 Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the Lord, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

5 For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children:

6 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children:

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments:

8 And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not steadfast with God.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

10 They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law;

11 And forgot his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them.

12 Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

13 He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap.

14 In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

15 He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 And they sinned yet more against him by provoking the most high in the wilderness.

18 And they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust.

19 Yea, they spake against God; they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?

20 Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?

21 Therefore the Lord heard this, and was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel;

22 Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation:

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven,

24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full.

26 He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind.

27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea:

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 So they did eat, and were well filled:
for he gave them their own desire;

30 They were not estranged from their lust. But while their meat was yet in their mouths,

31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and † smote down the || chosen men of Israel.

32 For all this ⁱ they sinned still, and ^k believed not for his wondrous works.

33 ⁱ Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

34 ^m When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and enquired early after God.

35 And they remembered that ⁿ God was their rock, and the high God ^o their redeemer.

36 Nevertheless they did ^p flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.

37 For ^q their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant.

38 ^r But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time ^s turned he his anger away, ^t and did not stir up all his wrath.

39 For ^u he remembered ^x that they were but flesh; ^y a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

40 How oft did they || ^z provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!

41 Yea, ^a they turned back and tempted God, and ^b limited the Holy One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them || from the enemy.

43 How ^c he had † wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan:

44 ^d And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink.

45 ^e He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and ^f frogs, which destroyed them.

46 ^g He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust.

47 ^h He † destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with || frost.

48 ⁱ † He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to || hot thunderbolts.

49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them.

50 † He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave || their life over to the pestilence;

51 ^k And smote all the firstborn in Egypt; the chief of their strength in ^l the tabernacles of Ham:

52 But ^m made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 And he ⁿ led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea ^o † overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And he brought them to the border of his ^p sanctuary, even to this mountain, ^q which his right hand had purchased.

55 ^r He cast out the heathen also before them, and ^s divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 ^t Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies:

57 But ^u turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside ^x like a deceitful bow.

58 ^y For they provoked him to anger with their ^z high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:

60 ^a So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men;

61 ^b And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.

62 ^c He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men; and ^d their maidens were not † given to marriage.

64 ^e Their priests fell by the sword; and ^f their widows made no lamentation.

65 Then the LORD ^g awaked as one out of sleep, and ^h like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.

66 And ⁱ he smote his enemies in the hinder part: he put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:

68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion ^k which he loved.

69 And he ^l built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath † established for ever.

70 ^m He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:

71 † From following ⁿ the ewes great with young he brought him ^o to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

72 So he fed them according to the ^p integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

1 The psalmist complaineth of the desolation of Jerusalem: 8 he prayeth for deliverance, 13 and promiseth thankfulness.

A Psalm of Asaph.

O God, the heathen are come into^a thine inheritance; ^b thy holy temple have they defiled; ^c they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.

2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; ^c and there was none to bury them.

4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

5 How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy ^b jealousy burn like fire?

6 Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have ^k not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have ^l not called upon thy name.

7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place.

8 O remember not against us ^m former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us: for we are ⁿ brought very low.

9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, ^p for thy name's sake.

10 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight by the ^q revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed.

11 Let ^r the sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of ^s thy power ^t preserve thou those that are appointed to die;

12 And render unto our neighbours ^u sevenfold into their bosom ^v their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O LORD.

13 So ^w we thy people and sheep of thy pasture will give thee thanks for ever: ^x we will shew forth thy praise ^y to all generations.

SING aloud unto God our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.

2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day.

4 For ^a this was a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob.

5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out || through the land of Egypt: ^b where I heard a language that I understood not.

6 ^c I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands ^d were delivered from ^e the pots.

7 ^f Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; ^g I answered thee in the secret place of thunder: I ^h proved thee at the waters of || Meribah. Selah.

9 ^j There shall no ^k strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god.

10 ^l I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: ^m open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would ⁿ none of me.

12 ^o So I gave them up || unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels.

13 ^p Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!

1 The psalmist complaineth to God of a powerful confederacy among the enemies of Israel: 9 he prayeth against them.

A Song or Psalm || of Asaph.

KEEP ^a not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.

2 For, lo, ^b thine enemies make a tumult: and they that ^c hate thee have lifted up the head.

3 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted ^d against thy hidden ones.

4 They have said, Come, and ^e let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they have consulted together with one ^f consent: they are confederate against thee:

6 ^g The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes;

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre;

8 Assur also is joined with them: ^h they have helped the children of Lot. Selah.

9 Do unto them as unto the ⁱ Midianites; as to ^j Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison:

10 Which perished at En-dor: ^k they became as dung for the earth.

10 † The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reaſon of ſtrength they be fourſcore years, yet is their ſtrength labour and ſorrow; for it is ſoon cut off, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, ſo is thy wrath.

12 ° So teach us to number our days, that we may † apply our hearts unto wiſdom.

13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it ° repent thee concerning thy ſervants.

14 O ſatisfy us early with thy mercy; ° that

1 The Psalmist celebrateth God's salvation toward Israel: 4 he exciteth the whole world to join in acclamations of praise because of God's righteous judgment.

A Psalm.

O Sing unto the LORD a new song; for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.

2 The LORD hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

3 He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

4 Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.

5 Sing unto the LORD with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

6 With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King.

7 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

8 Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together

2 The LORD is great in Zion; and he is high above all the people.

3 Let them praise thy great and terrible name; for it is holy.

4 The king's strength also loveth judgment; thou dost establish equity, thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

5 Exalt ye the LORD our God, and worship at his footstool; for he is holy.

6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name; they called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

David maketh a vow and profession of godliness.

A Psalm of David.

I Will sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.

2 I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.

4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

7 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

11 My days are like a shadow that declineth; and ^r I am withered like grass.

12 But ^s thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever; and ^t thy remembrance unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and ^u have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the ^v set time, is come.

14 For thy servants take pleasure in ^w her stones, and favour the dust thereof.

15 So the heathen shall ^x fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16 When the LORD shall build up Zion, ^y he shall appear in his glory.

17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

18 This shall be ^z written for the generation to come: and ^a the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.

19 For he hath ^b looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth;

20 To hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose ^c those that are appointed to death;

21 To ^d declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD. [†] Heb. afflicted.

23 He [†] weakened my strength in the way; he ^h shortened my days.

24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: * thy years are throughout all generations.

25 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but ⁿ thou shalt [†] endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

27 But ^o thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

28 The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

1 An exhortation to bless God for his mercy, 15 and for the constancy thereof.

A Psalm of David.

BLESS ^a the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

3 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who ^c healeth all thy diseases;

4 Who ^d redeemeth thy life from destruction; * who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that ^e thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6 The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

7 He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

8 The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and [†] plenteous in mercy.

9 He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.

10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

11 For [†] as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he ⁿ removed our transgressions from us.

13 Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth our frame; ^p he remembereth that we are dust.

15 As for man, ^r his days are as grass: * as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

16 For the wind passeth over it, and [†] it is gone.

1 A meditation upon the majesty, power, and wonderful providence of God. 31 God's glory is eternal. 33 The prophet voweth to praise God perpetually.

BLESS ¹ the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; ² thou art clothed with honour and majesty.

2 ³ Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: ⁴ who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:

3 ⁵ Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: ⁶ who maketh the clouds his chariot: ⁷ who walketh upon the wings of the wind:

4 ⁸ Who maketh his angels spirits; ⁹ his ministers a flaming fire:

5 ¹⁰ Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.

6 ¹¹ Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.

7 ¹² At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hastened away.

8 ¹³ They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto ¹⁴ the place which thou hast founded for them.

9 ¹⁵ Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; ¹⁶ that they turn not again to cover the earth.

10 ¹⁷ He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which ¹⁸ run among the hills.

11 They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses ¹⁹ quench their thirst.

12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which ²⁰ sing among the branches.

13 ²¹ He watereth the hills from his chambers: ²² the earth is satisfied with ²³ the fruit of thy works.

14 ²⁴ He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth ²⁵ food out of the earth;

15 And ²⁶ wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and ²⁷ oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon, ²⁸ which he hath planted;

17 Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for ²⁹ the conies.

19 ³⁰ He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun ³¹ knoweth his going down.

20 ³² Thou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein ³³ all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

21 ³⁴ The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.

22 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth unto ³⁵ his work and to his labour until the evening.

24 ³⁶ O LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

25 So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26 There go the ships: there is that ³⁷ Leviathan, whom thou hast ³⁸ made to play therein.

27 ³⁹ These wait all upon thee; that thou mayest give ⁴⁰ them their meat in due season.

28 That thou givest them they gather: thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.

29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: ⁴¹ thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

30 ⁴² Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth.

31 The glory of the LORD ⁴³ shall endure for ever: the LORD ⁴⁴ shall rejoice in his works.

32 He looketh on the earth, and it ⁴⁵ trembleth: ⁴⁶ he toucheth the hills, and they smoke.

33 ⁴⁷ I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

34 My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the LORD.

O ^a Give thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name: ^b make known his deeds among the people.

² Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: ^c talk ye of all his wondrous works.

³ Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

⁴ Seek the LORD, and his strength: ^d seek his face evermore.

⁵ ^e Remember his marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

⁶ O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.

⁷ He is the LORD our God: ^f his judgments are in all the earth.

⁸ He hath ^g remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations.

⁹ ^h Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;

¹⁰ And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant:

¹¹ Saying, ⁱ Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, [†] the lot of your inheritance:

¹² ^k When there were but a few men in number; yea, very few, [†] and strangers in it.

¹³ When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people;

¹⁴ ^m He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, ⁿ he reprov'd kings for their sakes;

¹⁵ ^o Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

¹⁶ Moreover ^p he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole ^q staff of bread.

¹⁷ ^r He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant:

¹⁸ ^s Whose feet they hurt with fetters: [†] he was laid in iron:

¹⁹ Until the time that his word came: ^t the word of the LORD tried him.

²⁰ ^u The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free,

²¹ ^v He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his [†] substance:

²² To bind his princes at his pleasure; and teach his senators wisdom.

²³ ^w Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned ^z in the land of Ham.

²⁴ And ^a he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies.

²⁵ ^b He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants.

²⁶ ^c He sent Moses his servant; and Aaron ^d whom he had chosen.

²⁷ ^e They shewed [†] his signs among them, ^f and wonders in the land of Ham.

²⁸ ^g He sent darkness, and made it dark; and ^h they rebelled not against his word.

²⁹ ⁱ He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.

³⁰ ^k Their land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings.

³¹ ^l He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coats.

³² ^m [†] He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.

³³ ⁿ He smote their vines also and their fig trees; and brake the trees of their coats.

³⁴ ^o He spake, and the locusts came, and caterpillars, and that without number,

³⁵ And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

³⁶ ^p He smote also all the firstborn in their land, ^q the chief of all their strength.

³⁷ ^r He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

³⁸ ^s Egypt was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them.

³⁹ ^t He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give light in the night.

⁴⁰ ^u The people asked, and he brought quails, and ^v satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

⁴¹ ^w He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river.

⁴² For he remembered ^z his holy promise, and Abraham his servant.

⁴³ And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with [†] gladness:

⁴⁴ ^a And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people;

⁴⁵ ^b That they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws. [†] Praise ye the LORD.

3 Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that ^d doeth righteousness at ^e all times.

4^f Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation;

5 That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

6^g We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; ^h but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea.

8 Nevertheless he saved them ⁱ for his name's sake, ^k that he might make his mighty power to be known.

9^l He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so ^m he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he ⁿ saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11^o And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left.

12^p Then believed they his words; they sang his praise.

13^q † They soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel:

14^r But † lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.

15^s ^t and he gave them their request; but ^u sent leanness into their soul.

16^v They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD.

17^w The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

18^x And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.

19^y They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus ^z they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

21 They^a forgot God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt;

22 Wondrous works in ^b the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red sea.

23^c Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen^d stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised ^e † the pleasant land, they^f believed not his word:

25^g But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.

26^h Therefore he ⁱ lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 †^j To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

28^k They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them.

30^l Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him^m for righteousness unto all generations for evermore.

32ⁿ They angered him also at the waters of strife, ^o so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:

33^p Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34^q They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them:

35^r But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36 And^s they served their idols: ^t which were a snare unto them.

37 Yea, ^u they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto ^v devils, 38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and ^w the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they^x defiled with their own works, and^y went a whoring with their own inventions.

40 Therefore^z was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred ^a his own inheritance.

41 And^b he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

P S A L. CVII.

1 The psalmist exhorteth God's redeemed to praise his goodness, 4 particularly in his providence over travellers, 10 captives, 17 sick men, 23 seamen, 33 and in the prosperity and affliction of whole countries.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and † from the south.

4 They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

6 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7 And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

8 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

9 For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron;

11 Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the most High:

12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help.

13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the gates of iron in sunder.

17 Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

20 He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

21 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with † rejoicing.

23 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

24 These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.

25 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end.

28 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

29 He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

31 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

33 He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground;

34 A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

35 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings.

36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;

1 David complaining of the slanders and ingratitude of his enemies devoteth them to destruction; 21 complaining of his own misery he prayeth for help; 30 he promiseth thankfulness. To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HOLD not thy peace, O God of my praise;

2 For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred; and fought against me without a cause.

4 For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer.

5 And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

6 Set thou a wicked man over him: and let Satan stand at his right hand.

7 When he shall be judged, let him be condemned: and let his prayer become sin.

8 Let his days be few; and let another take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

10 Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.

11 Let the extortioner catch all that he hath; and let the strangers spoil his labour.

12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children.

13 Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

15 Let them be before the LORD continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

16 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the broken in heart.

17 As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

20 Let this be the reward of mine adver-

39 Again, they are diminished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

40 He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.

1 David encourageth himself to praise God: 5 whose assistance he prayeth for, in confidence of success according to his promise.

A Song or Psalm of David.

O GOD, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

2 Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

3 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth;

6 That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me.

7 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine; Manassah is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head;

9 Judah is my lawgiver; Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe; over Philistia will I triumph.

10 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

11 Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off? and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

12 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.

13 Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

saries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul.

21 But do thou for me, O GOD the Lord, for thy name's sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

24 My knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness.

25 I became also a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me they shaked their heads.

26 Help me, O LORD my God: O save me according to thy mercy:

27 That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, LORD, hast done it.

28 Let them curse, but blest thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let thy servant rejoice.

29 Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.

30 I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yea, I will praise him among the multitude.

31 For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those that condemn his soul.

P S A L. CX.

1 A prediction of the kingdom, 4 priesthood, 5 triumphs, 7 and sufferings of Christ.

A Psalm of David.

THE LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

2 The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

3 Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.

4 The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

5 The LORD at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

6 He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.

7 He shall drink of the brook in the way: he therefore shall he lift up the head.

8 He shall say, I will not move, because I am righteous, because I am upright.

P S A L. CXI.

1 The psalmist by his example inciteth others to praise God for his glorious and gracious works.

10 The fear of God is the source of true wisdom.

PRAISE ye the LORD. I will praise the LORD with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

2 The works of the LORD are great, fought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

3 His work is honourable and glorious: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: the LORD is gracious and full of compassion.

5 He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works, that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The works of his hands are verity and judgment; all his commandments are sure.

8 They stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness.

9 He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his name.

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.
4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

P S A L. CXXIV.

The church blesteth God for a miraculous deliverance.

A Song of degrees of David.

IF it had not been the LORD who was on our side, ^a now may Israel say;
2 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against us:
3 Then they had ^b swallowed us up quick,
when their wrath was kindled against us:
4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us,
the stream had gone over our soul:
5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.
6 Blessed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.
7 Our soul is escaped ^c as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.

8 ^d Our help is in the name of the LORD,

1 The safety of such as trust in God. 4 A prayer for the godly, and against the wicked.

A Song of degrees.

THEY that trust in the LORD shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

2 As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round about his people from henceforth even for ever.

3 For ^a the rod of [†] the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

4 Do good, O LORD, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

5 As for such as turn aside unto their ^b crooked ways, the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but ^c peace shall be upon Israel.

ter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The LORD

3 The LORD hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.

4 Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south.

1 The vanity of human endeavours without God's blessing. 3 Children are God's good gift.

A Song of degrees ¶ for Solomon.

EXCEPT the LORD build the house, they labour in vain † that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.

2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

3 Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.

4 As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth.

5 Happy is the man that † hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

P S A L. CXXVIII.

The sundry blessings which follow them that fear God.

A Song of degrees.

BLESSED is every one that feareth the LORD; that walketh in his ways.

2 For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

3 Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table.

4 Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the LORD.

5 The LORD shall bless thee out of Zion: and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.

6 Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Israel.

1 God's goodness in saving Israel out of their great afflictions. 5 A prayer against the enemies of the church.

A Song of degrees.

MANY a time have they afflicted me from my youth, may Israel now say:

2 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me.

3 The plowers plowed upon my back: they made long their furrows.

4 The LORD is righteous: he hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.

5 Let them all be confounded and turned back that hate Zion.

6 Let them be as the grass upon the housetops, which withereth afore it groweth up:

7 Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand; nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom.

8 Neither do they which go by say, The blessing of the LORD be upon you: we bless you in the name of the LORD.

1 The psalmist in distress prayeth to God, trusting in his mercy for pardon: 5 his own patience in hope: 7 he exhorteth Israel to hope in God.

A Song of degrees.

OUT of the depths have I cried unto thee, O LORD.

2 LORD, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

3 If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O LORD, who shall stand?

4 But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.

5 I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.

6 My soul waiteth for the LORD more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that watch for the morning.

7 Let Israel hope in the LORD: for with the LORD there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.

8 And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

- 1 David acknowledgeth God's all-seeing providence: 14 he praiseth him for the wonders of his formation; 17 and for his infinite mercies: 19 his confidence in the destruction of the wicked: 21 his professed hatred of them: 23 he prayeth for God's inspection and guidance.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

O LORD, ^a thou hast searched me, and ^b known me.

2 ^b Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou ^c understandest my thought afar off.

3 ^d Thou || compassedst my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

4 For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, ^e thou knowest it altogether.

5 Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6 ^f Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

7 ^g Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

8 ^h If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: ⁱ if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

9 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

10 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

11 If I say, Surely the darknesses shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

12 Yea, ^k the darknesses ^l hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: ^m the darknesses and the light are both alike to thee.

13 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

14 I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth ⁿ right well.

15 ^o My || substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book ^p all my members were written, || which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

17 ^q How precious are also thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt ^r slay the wicked, O God: ^s depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.

20 For they ^t speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

21 ^u Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

22 I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

23 ^v Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

24 And see if there be any ^w wicked way in me, and ^x lead me in the way everlasting.

PSAL. CXLI.

1 David prayeth that his suit may be acceptable, 3 his conscience free from guilt, 9 and his person safe from the snares of the wicked.

A Psalm of David.

• Pf. 70. 5. LORD, I cry unto thee : * make haste unto me ; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.

2 Let ^b my prayer be [†] set forth before thee ^c as incense ; and ^d the lifting up of my hands as ^e the evening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth ; keep the door of my lips.

4 Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity : ^f and let me not eat of their dainties.

5 ^g Let the righteous smite me ; it shall be a kindness : and let him reprove me ; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head : for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

6 When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words ; for they are sweet.

7 Our bones are scattered ^h at the grave's mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.

8 But ⁱ mine eyes are unto thee, O GOD the LORD : in thee is my trust ; [†] leave not my soul destitute.

9 Keep me from ^k the snares which they have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity.

10 ^l Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that I withal [†] escape.

PSAL. CXLI.

David sheweth that in his trouble all his comfort was in prayer unto God.

* Maschil of David ; A Prayer * when he was in the cave.

I Cried unto the LORD with my voice ; with my voice unto the LORD did I make my supplication.

2 ^m I poured out my complaint before him ; I shewed before him my trouble.

3 ⁿ When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path, ^o In the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

4 ^p I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but ^q there was no man that would know me : refuge [†] failed me ; [†] no man cared for my soul.

† Heb. no man sought after my soul.

5 I cried unto thee, O LORD : I said, Thou art my refuge and ^r my portion ^s in the land of the living.

6 Attend unto my cry ; for I am ^t brought very low : deliver me from my persecutors ; for they are stronger than I.

7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name : ^u the righteous shall compass me about ; ^v for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

PSAL. CXLI.

1 David prayeth to be considered with favour in judgment : 3 his griefs caused by his enemy's persecution : 5 he strengtheneth his faith by meditation and prayer : 7 he prayeth for speedy help and deliverance, 10 for God's guidance and support, 12 and destruction of his enemies.

A Psalm of David.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, give ear to my supplications : ^w in thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

2 And ^x enter not into judgment with thy servant : for ^y in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul ; he hath smitten my life down to the ground ; he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

4 ^z Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me ; my heart within me is desolate.

5 ^{aa} I remember the days of old ; I meditate on all thy works ; I muse on the work of thy hands.

6 ^{ab} I stretch forth my hands unto thee : ^{ac} my soul thirsteth after thee, as a thirsty land. Selah.

7 Hear me speedily, O LORD : my spirit faileth : hide not thy face from me, ^{ad} I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 Cause me to hear thy loving kindness ^{ae} in the morning ; for in thee do I trust : ^{af} cause me to know the way wherein I should walk ; for ^{ag} I lift up my soul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies : I [†] flee unto thee to hide me.

10 ^{ah} Teach me to do thy will ; for thou art my God : ^{ai} thy Spirit is good ; lead me into ^{aj} the land of uprightness.

11 ^{ak} Quicken me, O LORD, for thy name's sake : for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And of thy mercy ^{al} cut off mine enemies, and destroy all them that afflict my soul : for ^{am} I am thy servant.

2 ^b My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my

3 ^c LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him!

4 ^d Man is like to vanity: ^e his days are as a shadow that passeth away.

5 ^f Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down: ^g touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

6 ^h Cast forth lightning, and scatter them:
shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.

7 ⁱ Send thine † hand from above; ^k rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of ^l strange children;

8 Whose mouth ^m speaketh vanity, and 9 I will ⁿ sing a new song unto thee, O

God: upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.

10 ^o It is he that giveth ^p salvation unto kings: who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

11 ^q Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falshood:

12 That our sons may be ^r as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones, † polished after the similitude of a palace:

13 That our garners may be full, afford-

14 That our oxen may be † strong to labour; that there be no breaking in, nor going out; that there be no complaining in our streets.

15 ^s Happy is that people, that is in such a case: yea, happy is that people, whose God is the LORD.

P S A L. CXLV.

1 David extolletb God's mighty power and renown; 7 he celebrateth God's goodness, 11 the glory and eternity of his kingdom, 14 his providence, 17 justice, and holiness, 18 and his especial regard for the righteous.

David's ^a Psalm of praise.

I WILL extol thee, my God, O king; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

3 ^b Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; † and ^c his greatness is un-searchable.

4 ^d One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

5 I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous † works.

6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will † declare thy greatness.

7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

8 ^e The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and † of great mercy.

9 ^f The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.

10 ^g All thy works shall praise thee, O
LORD; and thy saints shall bless thee.

11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power;

12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

13 ^h Thy kingdom is † an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

14 The LORD upholdeth all that fall, and ⁱ raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

15 ^k The eyes of all † wait upon thee;
and ^l thou givest them their meat in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand, ^m and sa-tisfiest the desire of every living thing.

17 The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and † holy in all his works.

18 ⁿ The LORD is high unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him ^o in truth.

19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

20 ^p The LORD preserveth all them that

8 My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

9 For they shall be + an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

10 My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit:

13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:

15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them; * refrain thy foot from their path:

16 For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

17 Surely in vain the net is spread + in the sight of any bird.

18 And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

11 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

12 ¶ A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth.

13 He winketh with his eyes, he speak-fingers;

14 Frowardness is in his heart, he de-

15 Therefore shall his calamity come without remedy.

16 ¶ These six things doth the LORD hate: yea, seven are an abomination to him:

17 A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,

18 An heart that deviseth wicked imaand the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life:

24 To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.

25 ¶ Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids.

26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread:
and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?

28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned?

29 So he that goeth into his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry;

31 But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house.

32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul:

33 A wound and dishonour shall he get;
and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

34 For jealousy is the rage of a man:
therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

35 He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Solomon recommendeth obedience to his precept, and such a familiarity with wisdom as may prove a guard to chastity. 6 In a recital of what had passed under his own eye he sheweth the cunning and impudence of a lewd woman, and the desperate folly of a youth seduced by her: 24 He dissuadeth from such dangerous courses.

MY son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.

2 Keep my commandments, and live;
and my law as the apple of thine eye.

3 Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.

4 Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister;
and call understanding thy kinswoman:

5 That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.

6 ¶ For at the window of my house I looked through my casement,

7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,

8 Passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house,

9 In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night:

10 And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and sub-til of heart.

11 She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:

12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)

13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him,

14 I have peace offerings with me;
this day have I payed my vows.

15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.

16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.

17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves.

19 For the good man is not at home, he is gone a long journey:

20 He hath taken a bag of money [†] with him, and will come home at ^{||} the day appointed.

21 With [†] her much fair speech she caused him to yield, [™] with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

22 He goeth after her [†] straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;

23 Till a dart strike through his liver; [™] as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

24 [¶] Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.

25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths.

26 For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, [°] many strong men have been slain by her.

27 [°] Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

C H A P. VIII.

1 The solemn call, 6 sound teaching, 10 inestimable worth, 12 nature, 15 benefits, 22 and eternity of wisdom. 32 Wisdom is to be attended to for the blessedness it bringeth.

DO TH not [°] wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom: and ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 [¶] Hear; for I will speak of [°] excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is [†] an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing [†] froward or perverse in them.

9 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

10 [¶] Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 [°] For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 [¶] I wisdom dwell with ^{||} prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

13 [°] The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: [°] pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and [°] the froward mouth, do I hate.

14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; [°] I have strength.

15 [¶] By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

17 I love them that love me; and [°] those that seek me early shall find me.

18 Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.

19 [™] My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.

20 I ^{||} lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment:

21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures.

22 [¶] The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

23 [°] I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 [°] Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth:

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the ^{||} fields, nor ^{||} the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set ^{||} a compass upon the face of the depth:

28 When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep:

29 [°] When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when [°] he appointed the foundations of the earth:

30 [°] Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: [°] and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him;

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and [°] my delights were with the sons of men.

32 [¶] Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: for [°] blessed are they that keep my ways.

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

34 [°] Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

35 For who so findeth me findeth life,

Wisdom hath [†] builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars:
2 [†] She hath killed [†] her beasts; [†] she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table.

3 She hath [†] sent forth her maidens: [†] she crieth [†] upon the highest places of the city,

4 [†] Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

5 [†] Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 Forake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 [†] Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: [†] rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, [†] and he will increase in learning.

10 [†] The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

11 [†] For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 [†] If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 [†] A foolish woman is clamorous:
she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat [†] in the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

16 [†] Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

17 [†] Stolen waters are sweet, and bread
[†] eaten in secret is pleasant.

18 But he knoweth not that [†] the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

CHAP. X.

From this chapter to the five and twentieth are sundry observations of moral virtues and their contrary vices.

THE proverbs of Solomon. [†] A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

2 [†] Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: [†] but righteousness delivereth from death.

3 [†] The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away ^{||} the substance of the wicked.

4 [†] He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but [†] the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is [†] a son that causeth shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just:
but [†] violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 [†] The memory of the just is blessed:
but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: [†] but [†] a prating fool ^{||} shall fall.

9 [†] He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

10 [†] He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: [†] but a prating fool ^{||} shall fall.

11 [†] The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but [†] violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but [†] love covereth all sins.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding, wisdom is found: but [†] a rod is for the back of him that is void of [†] understanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but [†] the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 [†] The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof
^{||} erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and [†] he that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

19 [†] In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but [†] he that refraineth his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many:
but fools die for want [†] of wisdom.

22 [†] The blessing of the LORD, it mak-eth rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.

23 [†] It is as sport to a fool to do mischief:

C H A P. XI.

A^a [†]False balance is abomination to the LORD : but [†]a just weight is his delight.

2^b When pride cometh, then cometh shame : but with the lowly is wisdom.

3^c The integrity of the upright shall guide them : but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.

4^d Riches profit not in the day of wrath : but ^e righteousness delivereth from death.

5 The righteousness of the perfect shall [†]direct his way : but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them : but ^f transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness.

7^g When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish : and the hope of unjust men perisheth.

8^h The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

9 An ⁱ hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour : but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

10^{*} When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth : and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

11[†] By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted : but it is overthrowa by the mouth of the wicked.

12 He that is [†]void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour : but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

13^m [†]A talebearer revealeth secrets : but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

14ⁿ Where no counsel is, the people fall : but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.

15^o He that is surety for a stranger [†]shall smart for it : and he that hateth [†]suretiship is sure.

16^p A gracious woman retaineth honour : and strong men retain riches.

17^q The merciful man doeth good to his own soul : but he be that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

18 The wicked worketh a deceitful work : but ^r to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.

19 As righteousness tendeth to life : so he that pursueth evil pursueth it to his own death.

20 They that are of a froward heart are abomination to the LORD : but such as are upright in their way are his delight.

21^s Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished : but ^t the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

22 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which [†]is without discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good : but the expectation of the wicked ^uis wrath.

24 There is that ^vscattereth, and yet increaseth ; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

25^w [†]The liberal soul shall be made fat : ^z and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

26^a He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him : but ^b blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

27 He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour : ^c but he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.

28^d He that trusteth in his riches shall fall : but ^e the righteous shall flourish as a branch.

29 He that troubleth his own house ^fshall inherit the wind : and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life ; and ^g he that [†]winneth souls is wise.

31^h Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth : much more the wicked and the sinner.

^e ch. 14. 30. ⁵ The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

^f ch. 1. 11, 18. ⁶ The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

^g Ps. 37. 36, 37. ⁷ The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.

^h 1 Sam. 25. 17. ⁸ A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: but he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised.

ⁱ Heb. ⁹ He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.

^k Deut. 25. 4. ¹⁰ A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

^l Gen. 3. 19. ¹¹ He that tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vain persons is void of understanding.

^m ch. 6. 32. ¹² The wicked desireth the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.

ⁿ Heb. ¹³ The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble.

^o ch. 18. 7. ¹⁴ A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: and the recompence of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

^p ch. 13. 2. ¹⁵ The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.

^q ch. 3. 7. ¹⁶ A fool's wrath is presently known: but a prudent man covereth shame.

^r Lu. 18. 11. ¹⁷ He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

^s ch. 29. 11. ¹⁸ There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.

^t Heb. ¹⁹ The lip of truth shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

^u Ps. 57. 4. ²⁰ Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors of peace is joy.

^v 59. 7. ²¹ There shall no evil happen to the just:

but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.

^w 22. ²² Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly are his delight.

^x 23. ²³ A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.

^y 24. ²⁴ The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute.

^z 25. ²⁵ Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop: but a good word maketh it glad.

^{aa} 26. ²⁶ The righteous is more excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked seduceth them.

^{ab} 27. ²⁷ The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.

^{ac} 28. ²⁸ In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death.

C H A P. XIII.

A Wise son beareth his father's instruction: but a scorner heareth not rebuke.

^{ad} 2. ² A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence.

^{ae} 3. ³ He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.

^{af} 4. ⁴ The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.

^{ag} 5. ⁵ A righteous man hateth lying: but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame.

^{ah} 6. ⁶ Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way: but wickedness overthroweth the sinner.

^{ai} 7. ⁷ There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

^{aj} 8. ⁸ The ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the poor heareth not rebuke.

^{ak} 9. ⁹ The light of the righteous rejoiceth: but the lamp of the wicked shall be put out.

^{al} 10. ¹⁰ Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

^{am} 11. ¹¹ Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour shall increase.

^{an} 12. ¹² Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.

^{ao} 13. ¹³ Whofo despiseth the word shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment shall be rewarded.

15 Godd understanding giveth favour :
but the way of transgressors is hard.

16 Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge : but a fool + layeth open his folly.

17 A wicked messenger falleth into mischief : but + a faithful ambassador is health.

18 Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction : but he that regardeth reproof shall be honoured.

19 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul : but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil.

20 He that walketh with wise men shall be wise : but a companion of fools + shall be destroyed.

21 Evil pursueth sinners : but to the righteous good shall be repayed.

22 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children : and the wealth of the finner is laid up for the just.

23 Much food is in the tillage of the poor : but there is that is destroyed for want of judgment.

24 He that spareth his rod hateth his son : but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.

25 The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul : but the belly of the wicked shall want.

CHAP. XIV.

EVERY wife woman buildeth her house : but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

2 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD : but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride : but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean :
but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 A faithful witness will not lie : but a false witness will utter lies.

6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not : but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way : but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 Fools make a mock at sin : but among the righteous there is favour.

10 The heart knoweth + his own bitterness ; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.

11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrown : but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

12 There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful ;
and the end of that mirth is heaviness.

14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways : and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

15 The simple believeth every word : but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

16 A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil : but the fool rageth, and is confident.

17 He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly : and a man of wicked devices is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly : but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil bow before the good ; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 The poor is hated even of his own neighbour : but the rich hath many friends.

21 He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth : but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.

22 Do they not err that devise evil ? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

23 In all labour there is profit : but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

24 The crown of the wife is their riches :
but the foolishness of fools is folly.

25 A true witness delivereth souls : but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

26 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence : and his children shall have a place of refuge.

27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

28 In the multitude of people is the king's honour : but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

29 He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding : but he that is + hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

30 A sound heart is the life of the flesh :
but envy the rottenness of the bones.

31 He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker : but he that honoureth him hath mercy on the poor.

32 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness : but the righteous hath hope of his death.

33 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding : but that which is in the midst of fools is made known.

34 Righteousness exalteth a nation : but sin is a reproach to any people.

his sorrow : and the father of a fool hath no joy.

22^a A merry heart doeth good || like a medicine : ^a but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom ^a to pervert the ways of judgment.

24 ^a Wisdom is before him that hath understanding ; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

25 ^a A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him.

26 Also ^b to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity.

27 ^c He that hath knowledge spareth his words : and a man of understanding is of || an excellent spirit.

28 ^d Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise : and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

C H A P. XVIII.

Through || desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach.

4 ^a The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, ^b and the well-spring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

5 ^c It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 ^d A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

8 ^e The words of a || talebearer are || as wounds, and they go down into the || innermost parts of the belly.

9 He also that is slothful in his work is ^f brother to him that is a great waster.

10 ^g The name of the LORD is a strong tower : the righteous runneth into it, and || is safe.

11 ^h The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.

12 ⁱ Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

13 He that || answereth a matter ^k before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity ; but a wounded spirit who can bear ?

15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge ; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

16 ^a A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

17 ^b He that is first in his own cause seemeth just ; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city : and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

20 ^c A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth ; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21 ^d Death and life are in the power of the tongue : and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

22 ^e Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD.

23 The poor useth intreaties ; but the rich answereth ^f roughly.

24 A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly : ^g and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

C H A P. XIX.

Better ^a is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than ^b he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good ; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

3 The foolishness of man perverteth his way : ^c and his heart fretteth against the LORD.

4 ^d Wealth maketh many friends ; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

5 ^e A false witness shall not be || unpunished, and ^f he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

6 ^g Many will intreat the favour of the prince : and ^h every man is a friend to || him that giveth gifts.

7 ⁱ All the brethren of the poor do hate him : how much more do his friends go ^j far from him ? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

8 He that getteth || wisdom loveth his own soul : he that keepeth understanding ^k shall find good.

9 ^l A false witness shall not be unpunished, and ^m he that speaketh lies shall perish.

10 Delight is not seemly for a fool ; much less ⁿ for a servant to have rule over princes.

11 ^o The || discretion of a man deferreth his anger ; ^p and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

13 ° A foolish son is the calamity of his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

14 ° House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife is from the LORD.

15 ° Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.

16 ° He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

17 ° He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.

18 ° Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying.

19 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again.

20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in the latter end.

21 ° There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.

22 The desire of man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.

23 ° The fear of the LORD tendeth to life: and be that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil.

24 ° A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25 ° Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware: and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.

26 He that wasteth his father, and chafeth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

27 Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

28 † An ungodly witness scorneth judgment: and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.

W H E N thou sittest to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before thee:

2 And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.

3 Be not desirous of his dainties: for they are deceitful meat.

4² Labour not to be rich: ¹ cease from thine own wisdom.

5¹ Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.

6² Eat thou not the bread of him that bath ¹ an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats:

7 For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, ² saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.

8 The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.

9¹ Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.

10² Remove not the old || landmark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:

11² For their redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.

12 Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.

13¹ Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and ² shalt deliver his soul from hell.

15 My son, ¹ if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, || even mine.

16 Yea, my reins shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things.

17² Let not thine heart envy sinners: ¹ but ² be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.

18² For surely there is an || end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off.

19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and ² guide thine heart in the way.

20² Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:

21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and ¹ drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

22² Harken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

23¹ Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

C H A P. XXV

1 In this and the four following chapters are contained sundry maxims and observations of Solomon, collected by the men of Hezekiah, about kings, and other subjects of both private and publick concern.

THESE are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

2 * It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is * to search out a matter.

3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings † is unsearchable.

4 * Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

5 * Take away the wicked from before the king, and † his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 † Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:

7 * For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither; than that thou shouldest be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.

8 * Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

9 † Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself; and † discover not a secret to another:

10 Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn not away.

11 * A word † fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

12 As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprove upon an obedient ear.

13 † As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him: for he refresheth the soul of his masters.

14 * Who so boasteth himself † of a false gift is like * clouds and wind without rain.

15 * By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

16 * Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

17 † Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house; lest he be † weary of thee, and so hate thee.

18 * A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

20 As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre, so is he that † singeth songs to an heavy heart.

21 * If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:

22 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, † and the LORD shall reward thee.

23 * † The north wind driveth away rain: so doth an angry countenance * a backbiting tongue.

24 † It is better to dwell in the corner of the house top, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house.

25 As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.

26 A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.

27 * It is not good to eat much honey: so for men * to search their own glory is not glory.

28 * He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

C H A P. XXVI.

AS snow in summer, * and as rain in harvest, so honour is not seemly for a fool.

2 As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so * the curse causeless shall not come.

3 * A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back.

4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

5 * Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in † his own conceit.

6 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool cutteth off the feet, and drinketh † damage.

7 The legs of the lame † are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 The great God that formed all things both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.

11 As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly.

12 Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets.

14 As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.

15 The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.

17 He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

18 As a mad man who casteth fire-brands, arrows, and death, 19 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, Am not I in sport?

20 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth.

21 As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

22 The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

23 Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

24 He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;

25 When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26 Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation.

27 Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.

28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

C H A P. XXVII.

BOAST not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

2 Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

3 A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

4 Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy?

5 Open rebuke is better than secret love.

6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

7 The full soul loatheth an honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.

9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.

10 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.

11 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

12 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

13 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

14 He that blesteth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.

15 A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike.

16 Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which bewrayeth itself.

17 Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.

18 Whoso keepeth the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured.

19 As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man.

20 Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.

21 As the refining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise.

22 Though thou shouldest bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

23 Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds.

24 For riches are not for ever: and doth the crown endure to every generation?

25 The hay appeareth, and the tender

THE † wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but || by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

3 A poor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain † which leaveth no food.

4 † They that forsake the law praise the wicked: † but such as keep the law contend with them.

5 † Evil men understand not judgment: but † they that seek the LORD understand all things.

6 † Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

7 † Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that || is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

8 † He that by usury and † unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 † He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, † even his prayer shall be abomination.

10 † Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: † but the upright shall have good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise † in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 † When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is || hidden.

13 † He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man † that feareth † alway: † but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 † As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; † so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

17 † A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.

18 † Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but † he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19 † He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: † but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be || innocent.

21 † To have respect of persons is not good: for † for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

22 || † He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

23 † He that rebuketh a man afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of † a destroyer.

25 † He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: † but he that putteth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat.

26 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 † He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

28 † When the wicked rise, † men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

CHAP. XXIX.

† HE, that being often reprov'd hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 † When the righteous are || in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

3 † Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: † but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

4 The king by judgment establisheth the land: but † he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

7 † The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 † Scornful men || bring a city into a snare: but wise men † turn away wrath.

9 † If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, † whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 † The bloodthirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Agur's confession of his own simplicity. 5 The purity of God's word, and danger of adding thereto. 7 The two points of Agur's prayer.

10 A servant not to be wrongfully accused. 11 Four wicked generations. 15 Four things insatiable. 17 Parents not to be despised. 18 Four things hard to be known. 24 Four things little, but wise. 29 Four things stately.

32 Silence in case of error the way to prevent wrath.

THE words of Agur the son of Ja-keh, even ^a the prophecy : the man spake unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel and Ucal,

2 Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

3 I neither learned wisdom, nor [†] have the knowledge of the holy.

4 Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended ? ^a who hath gathered the wind in his fists ? who hath bound the waters in a garment ? who hath established all the ends of the earth ? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell ?

5 Every word of God is [†] pure : ^a he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

6 Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things have I required of thee ; [†] deny me them not before I die :

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies : give me neither poverty nor riches ; ^b feed me with food [†] convenient for me :

9 Left I be full, and [†] deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD ? or left I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

10 [†] Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation ^k that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

13 There is a generation, O how ^l lofty are their eyes ! and their eyelids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, ⁿ to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, [†] It is enough :

16 The grave ; and the barren womb ; the earth that is not filled with water ; and the fire that saith not, It is enough.

17 The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of || the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, four which I know not :

19 The way of an eagle in the air ; the way of a serpent upon a rock ; the way of a ship in the [†] midst of the sea ; and the way of a man with a maid.

¹⁷ ^r And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

¹⁸ For ^s in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

CHAP. II.

¹ The vanity which the preacher found in the pursuits of pleasure. 12 Wisdom excelleth folly, yet a like event happeneth to both. 18 The vanity of human labour, the fruit of which must soon be left to a man knoweth not whom. 24 Nothing better than a cheerful use of what a man hath gotten; but that is the gift of God to the good only.

¹ ^s I said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, ^t this also is vanity.

⁴ I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards:

12 ¶ And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madnefs, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? || even that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw † that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darknefs.

14 * The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darknefs: and I myself perceived also that † one event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it † happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 ¶ Yea, I hated all my labour which I had † taken under the sun: because † I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he † leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil.

22 * For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

24 ¶ * There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he † should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten bereunto, more than I?

26 For God giveth to a man that is good † in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

C H A P. III.

1 By the necessary change of times vanity is added to human travail. 11 There is a fitness in God's works, which man cannot thoroughly find out. 12, 22 Man's object is to enjoy present good, so far as God alloweth; whose counsels are immutable. 16 From the abuses of human judicatures God's judgment is inferred. 18 Men and Beasts are visibly alike in their mortal bodies; 21 their spirits, which go different ways, are unknown.

† Every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

2 A time † to be born, and † a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and † a time † to refrain from embracing;

6 A time to † get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

8 A time to love, and a time to † hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

9 What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

10 * I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

11 ¶ He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that † no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 ¶ I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

13 And also * that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

14 I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: † nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him.

15 * That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth † that which is past.

16 ¶ And moreover † I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

17 I said in mine heart, ° God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.

18 ¶ I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, || that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

19 ¶ For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

20 All go unto one place; ° all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

21 ¶ Who knoweth the spirit † of man that † goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

22 ¶ Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for ° that is his portion: ° for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

CHAP. IV.

1 The vanity of human life increased by oppression; 4 and by envy. 5 The absurdity of idleness. 6 The good of contentment. 7 The folly and misery of covetousness. 9 The advantages of society. 13 The throne of kings is not exempt from vanity and vexation.

SO I returned, and considered all the ° oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the † side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

2 ° Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive.

3 ° Yea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 ¶ Again, I considered all travail, and † every right work, that † for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 ¶ The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh.

6 ¶ Better is an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

7 ¶ Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his ° eye satisfied with riches; ° neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

9 ¶ Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¶ Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, † who will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAP. V.

1 Cautions against abuses in divine service; 8 against murmuring at oppression. 9 The vanity of riches. 18 The cheerful enjoyment of what a man hath is good, and the gift of God, and a blessing to him that hath it.

KEEP ° thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, ° than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any || thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words ° be few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and ° a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

4 ° When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: ° pay that which thou hast vowed.

5 ° Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; ° neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but ° fear thou God.

12 ¶ Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that^m it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him :

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow ; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth ; that there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked ; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous : I said that this also is vanity.

15 ¶ Then I commendeth mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry : for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 ¶ When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth : (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes :) 17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that^a a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun : because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it ; yea farther ; though a wise man think to know it,^a yet shall he not be able to find it.

C H A P. IX.

1 Like things happen on earth to good and bad men. 4 With the living is hope, but the dead have no more concern with this world. 7 An exhortation cheerfully to enjoy the goods of life, and to act with vigour, while the time serveth.

11 Human probabilities are not always justified by the event. 13 Wisdom is better than strength.

FOR all this[†] I considered in my heart even to declare all this,^a that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God : no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2^b All things come alike to all : there is no event to the righteous, and to the wicked ; to the good and to the clean ; and to the unclean ; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not : as is the good, so is the sinner ; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all : yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil ; and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 ¶ For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope : for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die : but^a the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward ; for^a the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished ; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun :

7 ¶ Go thy way ; eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart ; for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be always white ; and let thy head lack no ointment.

9 † Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity :[†] for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might ; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

11 ¶ I returned,^a and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill ; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

12 For^b man also knoweth not his time : as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare ; so are the sons of men[†] snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

13 ¶ This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me :

14^k There was a little city, and few men within it ; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it :

15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city ; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16[†] Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength : nevertheless^m the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18ⁿ Wisdom is better than weapons of war : butⁿ one sinner destroyeth much good.

Flies of death.

DEAD flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, † his wisdom faileth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, † leave not thy place; for † yielding pacifieth great offences.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth † from the ruler:

6 † Folly is set † in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen servants † upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 † He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the serpent will bite † without enchantment; and a † babbler is no better.

12 † The words of a wise man's mouth are † gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of † his talk is mischievous madness.

14 † A fool also † is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and † what shall be after him, who can tell him?

15 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

16 ¶ Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and † thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18 ¶ By much slothfulness, the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

19 ¶ A feast is made for laughter, and † wine † maketh merry: but money answereth all things.

CHAP. XI.

1 Exhortations to charitableness. 7 Death ought to be remembered in life, 9 and the day of judgment in the days of youth.

CAST thy bread † upon the waters: † for † thou shalt find it after many days.

2 † Give a portion † to seven, and also to eight; † for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

5 As † thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, † nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether † shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 ¶ Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes † to behold the sun:

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 ¶ Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, † and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things † God will bring thee into judgment.

10 Therefore remove † sorrow from thy heart, and † put away evil from thy flesh: † for childhood and youth are vanity.

9 And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge ; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

10 The preacher sought to find out acceptable words : and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

11 The words of the wife are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished : of making many books there is no end ; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

9 My beloved is like a roe, or a young hart : behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, + shewing himself through the lattice.

10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

11 For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone ;

12 The flowers appear on the earth ; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land ;

13 The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

17 Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be thou like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains of Bethel.

CHAP. III.

1 The church's fight and victory in temptation.

6 The church glorieth in Christ.

BY a night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth : I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth : I sought him, but I found him not.

3 The watchmen that go about the city found me : to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth ?

4 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth : I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

6 Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant ?

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's ; threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.

8 They all hold swords, being expert in war : every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night.

9 King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.

11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

CHAP. IV.

1 Christ setteth forth the graces of the church : 8 he sheweth his love to her. 16 The church prayeth to be made fit for his presence.

BEhold, thou art fair, my love ; behold, thou art fair ; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks : thy hair is as a flock of goats, that appear from mount Gilead.

2 Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which come up from the washing ; whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.

3 Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely : thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.

4 Thy neck is like the tower of David builded for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

5 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

6 Until the day + break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

7 Thou art all fair, my love ; there is no spot in thee.

CHAP. V.

1 Christ awaketh the church with his calling. 2 The church having a taste of Christ's love is sick of love. 9 A description of Christ by his graces.

1 ^a I AM come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; ^b I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O ^c friends; drink, ^{||} yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

2 ¶ I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved ^d that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

3 I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

4 My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved ^{||} for him.

5 I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with ⁺ sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

6 I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed when he spake: ^e I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

7 The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.

8 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, ⁺ that ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

9 ¶ What is thy beloved more than another beloved, ^s O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

10 My beloved is white and ruddy, ⁺ the chiefest among ten thousand.

11 His head is as the most fine gold, his locks are ^{||} bushy, and black as a raven.

12 ^b His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and ⁺ fitly set.

13 His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as ^{||} sweet flowers: his lips like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh.

14 His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires.

15 His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

16 ⁺ His mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

1 Under the parable of a vineyard God justifieth the severity of his dealings with his people : 8 his judgments upon their covetousness ; 11 riot, and disregard of him ; 18 profaneness ; 20 perverseness, selfconceit, excess, and injustice. 26 The executioners of God's judgments.

NOW will I sing to my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching † his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in † a very fruitful hill :

2 And he || fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also † made a winepress therein : † and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, † judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it ? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes ?

5 And now go to ; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard : † I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up ; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be † trodden down :

6 And I will lay it waste : it shall not be pruned, nor digged ; but there shall come up briars and thorns : I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah † his pleasant plant : and he looked for judgment, but behold † oppression ; for righteousness, but behold a cry.

8 ¶ Woe unto them that join † house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that † they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth !

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David? Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

15 Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

16 ^a For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of ^m both her kings.

17 ¶ ^a The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that ^a Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD ^a shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes.

20 In the same day shall the Lord shave with a ^a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep;

22 And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give that he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left ^a in the land.

23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, ^a it shall even be for briers and thorns.

24 With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns.

1 God mustereth the armies of his wrath; 6 He threateneth to destroy Babylon by the Medes; 19 Her utter desolation.

2 Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

5 They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

6 Howl ye; for the day of the LORD is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt:

8 And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames.

9 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.

10 For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.

14 And it shall be as the chafed roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 God's merciful restoration of Israel. 3 Their triumph in the fall of the king of Babylon.

24 God's purpose against Assyria. 29 Palestina is threatened.

FOR the LORD ^a will have mercy on Jacob, and ^b will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: ^c and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

2 And the people shall take them; ^d and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants' and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, † whose captives they were; ^e and they shall rule over their oppressors.

3 ¶ And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve,

4 That thou ^f shalt take up this † proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the † golden city ceased!

5 The LORD hath broken ^g the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers.

6 He who smote the people in wrath with † a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth.

7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.

8 ⁱ Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

9 ^k † Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the † chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.

10 All they shall speak and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us?

11 Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.

12 ^l How art thou fallen from heaven, † O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

13 For thou hast said in thine heart, ^m I will ascend into heaven, ⁿ I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, ^o in the sides of the north:

14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; ^p I will be like the most High.

15 Yet thou ^q shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

16 They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms;

17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that † opened not the house of his prisoners?

18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house.

19 But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcase trodden under feet.

20 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: ^r the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned.

21 Prepare slaughter for his children ^s for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

22 For I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon ^t the name, and ^u remnant, ^v and son, and nephew, saith the LORD.

23 ^w I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

17 ¶ Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.

18 And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report.

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord God of hosts a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth.

23 ¶ Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.

24 Doth the plowman plow all day to sow? doth he open and break the clods of his ground?

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principal wheat and the appointed barley and the rie in their place?

26 ¶ For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28 Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

29 This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust.

5 Moreover the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly.

6 Thou shalt be visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.

7 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be as a dream of a night vision.

8 It shall even be as when a hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion.

9 Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

10 For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered.

11 And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed:

12 And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.

13 Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men:

14 Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

15 Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?

16 Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay; for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?

17 Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?

18 And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.

19 The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

20 For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner is consumed, and all that watch for iniquity are cut off:

21 That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just for a thing of nought.

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob, Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale.

23 But when he seeth his children, the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel.

24 They also that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine.

4 And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree.

5 For my sword shall be bathed in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment.

6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the LORD hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

7 And the unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

3 Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.

4 Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence; he will come and save you.

5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

6 Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

7 And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes.

8 And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the way-faring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

9 No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there:

10 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

6 Lo, thou trustest in the ^c staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give ¶ pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

19 Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind, as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant?

20 Seeing many things, † but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make || it honourable.

22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; || they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for † a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken, and hear † for the time to come?

24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: † and it hath set him on fire round about, † yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

C H A P. XLIII.

1 God comforteth the church with gracious promises: 8 he calleth the people to witness his omnipotency: 14 he foretelleth the destruction of Babylon, 18 and his wonderful deliverance of his people: 22 he reproveth their neglect of his service.

BUT now thus saith the LORD † that created thee, O Jacob, † and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: † for I have redeemed thee, † I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.

2 † When thou passest through the waters, † I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou † walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: † I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

4 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy || life.

5 Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west;

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;

7 Even every one that is † called by my name: for † I have created him for my glory, † I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

8 ¶ † Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: † who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 † Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, † and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: † before me there was || no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I, † am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no † strange god among you: † therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

13 † Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall † let it.

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their † nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which † maketh a way in the sea, and a † path in the mighty waters;

17 Which † bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 ¶ Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a † new thing; now

22 But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.

23 Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy will not remember thy sins.

26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

CHAP. XLIV.

1 God again comforteth his church with gracious promises. 9 The folly of the makers of idols.
21 God exhorteth Israel to trust in his mercy, and promiseth restoration by Cyrus.

YET now hear, O Jacob my servant;
and Israel, whom I have chosen:

2 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, Jesurun, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground:
I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

4 And they shall spring up as among the grafs, as willows by the water courses.

5 One shall say, I am the LORD's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts;

I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.

7 And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no
God; I know not any.

9 They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image, that is profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed: and the workmen, they are of men:
let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.

12 The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule;
he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn:
for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread;
yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire;
with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roast-eth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god.

stood: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.

19 And none [†] considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to [†] the stock of a tree?

20 He feedeth on ashes: [†] a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

21 ¶ Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for [†] thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

22 [†] I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for [†] I have redeemed thee.

23 [†] Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel.

24 Thus saith the LORD, [†] thy redeemer, and [†] he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; [†] that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself:

25 That [†] frustrateth the tokens [†] of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, [†] and maketh their knowledge foolish;

26 [†] That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the [†] decayed places thereof:

27 [†] That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers:

28 That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, [†] Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

C H A P. XLV.

1 God calleth Cyrus for his church's sake: 5 he asserteth his own omnipotency, and promiseth salvation thereby to Israel. 20 Idols convinced of vanity. 22 God's salvation will extend unto all nations.

THUS saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose [†] right hand I || have holden, [†] to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut;

2 I will go before thee, [†] and make the crooked places straight: [†] I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron:

3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, [†] that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which [†] call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

4 For [†] Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast [†] not known me.

5 ¶ I [†] am the LORD, and [†] there is none else, [†] there is no God beside me: [†] I girded thee, though thou hast not known me:

6 [†] That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that [†] there is none beside me. I am the LORD, and [†] there is none else.

7 I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and [†] create evil: I the LORD do all these things.

8 [†] Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it.

9 Woe unto him that striveth with [†] his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd of the earth. [†] Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

10 Woe unto him that saith unto his father, What begettest thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

11 Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning [†] my sons, and concerning [†] the work of my hands command ye me.

12 [†] I have made the earth, and [†] created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and [†] all their host have I commanded.

13 [†] I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will || direct all his ways: he shall [†] build my city, and he shall let go my captives, [†] not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 Thus saith the LORD, [†] The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; [†] in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, [†] Surely God is in thee; and [†] there is none else, [†] there is no God.

15 Verily thou art a God^f that hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour.
16 They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them : they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols.
17^h But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation : ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.
18 For thus saith the LORDⁱ that created the heavens ; God himself that formed the earth and made it ; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited : I am the LORD ; and there is none else.
19 I have not spoken in¹ secret, in a dark place of the earth : I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain : I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.
20 ¶ Assemble yourselves and come ; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations : they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.
21 Tell ye, and bring them near ; yea, let them take counsel together : who hath declared this from ancient time ? who hath told it from that time ? have not I the LORD ? and there is no God else beside me ; a just God and a Saviour ; there is none beside me.
22 ¶ Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth : for I am God, and there is none else.
23 I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.

C H A P. XLVII.

1 God's judgments upon Babylon for her unmercifulness and pride shall be irresistible. 12 All her forceries will not avail her.

COME^a down, and^b sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground : there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans : for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

2^c Take the millstones, and grind meal : uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3^d Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen : I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

4 As for ^rour redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou ^s silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: ^b for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.

6 ¹ I was wroth with my people, ^k I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; ¹ upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 And thou saidst, I shall be ^m a lady for ever: so that thou didst not ^a lay these things to thy heart, ^o neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, ^p I am, and none else beside me; ^q I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9 But ^r these two things which shall come ¹ in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection ¹ for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 For thou ^u hast trusted in thy wickedness: ^x thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath ^{||} perverted thee; ^y and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me.

11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know [†] from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to [†] put it off: and ² desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 ¶ Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 ^a Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now ^b the [†] astrologers, the stargazers, [†] the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shall be ^c as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver [†] themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even ^d thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

C H A P. XLVIII.

1 God revealed himself by prophecy, that his works might not be ascribed to idols: 9 he saveth his people for his own sake: 12 he exhorteth them to be obedient because of his power and providence: 16 he lamenteth their disobedience: 20 he sendeth his people out of Babylon.

H E A R ye, this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and ^a are come forth out of the waters of Judah, ^b which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, ^c but not in truth, nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves ^d of the holy city, and ^e stay themselves upon the God of Israel; The LORD of hosts is his name.

3 ^f I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, ^g and they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art [†] obstinate, and ^h thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow bras;

5 ⁱ I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called ^k a transgressor from the womb.

9 ¶ ^l For my name's sake ^m will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, ⁿ I have refined thee, but not ^{||} with silver; I have chosen thee ^o in the furnace of affliction.

11 ^p For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for ^q how should my name be polluted? and ^r I will not give my glory unto another.

12 ¶ Harken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; ^s I am he; I am the ^t first, I also am the last.

13 ^u Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and ^{||} my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when ^v I call unto them, they stand up together.

14 ^w All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; which among them hath declared these things? ^x The LORD hath loved him: ^y he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken; yea, ^b I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 ¶ Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now ^d the LORD GOD, and his Spirit, hath sent me.

17 Thus saith ^e the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, ^f which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

18 ^g O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! ^h then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:

19 ⁱ Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

20 ¶ ^k Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath ^l redeemed his servant Jacob.

21 And they ^m thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he ⁿ caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

22 ^o There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

CHAP. XLIX.

1 Christ complaineth of the unsuccessfulness of his mission to the Jews: 5 he is sent to the Gentiles with gracious promises. 13 God's love to his church is perpetual. 18 Its restoration and enlargement. 24 The certainty of its deliverance out of captivity.

L Isten, ^a O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far; ^b The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

2 And he hath made ^c my mouth like a sharp sword; ^d in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me ^e a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me;

3 And said unto me, 'Thou art my servant, O Israel, ^f in whom I will be glorified.

4 ^g Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely my judgment is with the LORD, and ^h my work with my God.

5 ¶ And now, saith the LORD ⁱ that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, ¶ Though Israel ^k be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength.

6 And he said, ¶ It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the ^l preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a ^m light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the LORD the redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One; ⁿ ¶ to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, ^o kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee.

8 Thus saith the LORD, ^p In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, ^q and give thee for a covenant of the people, to ^r establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages;

9 That thou mayest say ^s to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.

10 They shall not ^t hunger nor thirst; ^u neither shall the heat nor sun finite them: for he that hath mercy on them ^v shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

11 ^w And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold, ^x these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.

13 ¶ Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted.

14 ^y But Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.

15 ^z Can a woman forget her sucking child, ^{aa} that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, ^{ab} yet will I not forget thee.

16 Behold, ^{ac} I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me.

17 Thy children shall make haste; ^{ad} thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee.

18 ¶ Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe

2 Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to an-

15 But I am the LORD thy God, that ^k divided the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name.

16 And ^l I have put my words in thy mouth, and ^m I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, ⁿ that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

17 ¶ Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which ^o hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; ^p thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is none to guide her among all the sons ^q whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons ^r that she hath brought up.

19 These two things ^s are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and ^t destruction, and the famine, and the sword: ^u by whom shall I comfort thee?

20 Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

21 ¶ Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, ^v but not with wine:

22 Thus saith thy Lord the LORD, and thy God ^w that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again:

23 But ^x I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; ^y which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over.

1 The church is roused with God's promise of free redemption. 7 The welcome news of Christ's kingdom: 9 the church is exhorted to rejoice therein; 11 and to flee from bondage and its defilements. 13 A prophecy of the glory of Christ after his sufferings.

A Wake, ^a awake; put on thy strength O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, ^b the holy city: for ^c henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised ^d and the unclean.

2 Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: ^e loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus saith the LORD, ¹ Ye have sold yourselves for naught; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

4 For thus saith the Lord God, My people went down aforetime into ² Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is ³ blasphemed.

6 Therefore my people shall know my name: Therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.

7 ¶ ⁴ How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, ⁵ Thy God reigneth!

8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

9 ¶ Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: ⁶ for the LORD hath comforted his people, ⁷ he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10 ⁸ The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and ⁹ all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 ¶ Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; ¹⁰ be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For ¹¹ ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: ¹² for the LORD will go before you; ¹³ and the God of Israel will ¹⁴ be your rereward.

13 ¶ Behold, ¹⁵ my servant shall ¹⁶ deal prudently, ¹⁷ he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

14 As many were astonished at thee; his ¹⁸ visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men:

15 ¹⁹ So shall he sprinkle many nations; ²⁰ the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that ²¹ which had not been told them shall they see; and that ²² which they had not heard shall they consider.

C H A P. LIII.

1 The prophet complaining of want of faith describeth the humiliation of Christ; 4 his sufferings; 10 and the good success thereof.

WHO ¹ hath believed our ² report? and to whom is ³ the arm of the LORD revealed?

2 For ⁴ he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: ⁵ he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 ⁶ He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and ⁷ acquainted with grief: and ⁸ we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and ⁹ we esteemed him not.

4 ¶ Surely ¹⁰ he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was ¹¹ wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his ¹² stripes we are healed.

6 ¹³ All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD ¹⁴ hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet ¹⁵ he opened not his mouth: ¹⁶ he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 ¶ He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for ¹⁷ he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people ¹⁸ was he stricken.

9 ¹⁹ And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his ²⁰ death; because he had done no violence, neither was any ²¹ deceit in his mouth.

10 ¶ Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: ²² when thou shalt make his soul ²³ an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, ²⁴ he shall prolong his days, and ²⁵ the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: ²⁶ by his knowledge shall ²⁷ my righteous ²⁸ servant ²⁹ justify many; ³⁰ for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 ³¹ Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, ³² and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was ³³ numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and ³⁴ made intercession for the transgressors.

SING ^a, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for ^b more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

2 ^c Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes;

3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; ^d and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 ¶ Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 ^e For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; ^f The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

6 For the LORD ^h hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7 ⁱ For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; ^k but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

9 For this is as the waters of ^l Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For ^m the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; ⁿ but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on me.

11 ¶ O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with ^o fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

12 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

13 And all thy children shall be ^p taught of the LORD; and ^q great shall be the peace of thy children.

14 In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near thee.

15 ¶ Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.

16 Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.

17 No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, ^r and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

CHAP. LV.

The prophet with the free offers of grace through Christ exhorteth to faith, 6 and to repentance.

8 The happy state of believers.

HO, ^a every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; ^b come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye [†] spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, and ^c come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; ^d and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the ^e sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for ^f a witness to the people, ^g a leader and commander to the people.

5 ^h Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, ⁱ and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; ^k for he hath glorified thee.

6 ¶ Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

7 ^m Let the wicked forsake his way, and [†] the unrighteous man ⁿ his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, ^o and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for [†] he will abundantly pardon.

8 ¶ ^p For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 ^q For as the heavens ^r are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For ^s as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater;

CHAP. LVI.

1 An exhortation to holiness of life : 3 God promiseth that it shall be accepted without respect of persons. 9 The calamities of the church imputed to blind watchmen.

THUS saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice : ^a for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it ; ^b that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 ¶ Neither let ^c the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people : neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant ;

5 Even unto them will I give in ^d mine house and within my walls a place ^e and a name better than of sons and of daughters : I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant ;

7 Even them will I ^f bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer : ^g their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar ; for ^h mine house shall be called an house of prayer ⁱ for all people.

8 The LORD God ^k which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, ' Yet will I gather others to him, ^l beside those that are gathered unto him.

CHAP. LVII.

1 The blessedness of the righteous in death, who are taken out of the way of evil. 3 God reproveth the Jews for their idolatry : 13 he comforteth the penitent with promises of mercy.

THE righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart : and ^a merciful men are taken away, ^b none considering that the righteous is taken away ^c from the evil to come.

2 He shall ^d enter into peace : they shall rest in ^e their beds, each one walking ^f in his uprightness.

3 ¶ But draw near hither, ^g ye sons of the forcerers, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves ? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue ? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood,

5 Enflaming yourselves ^h with idols ⁱ under every green tree, ^j slaying the children in the valleys under the cliffs of the rocks ?

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion ; they, they are thy lot : even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these ?

7 ^k Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set ^l thy bed : even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance : for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up ; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and ^m made thee a covenant with them ; ⁿ thou lovedst their bed ^o where thou fastest it.

9 And ^p thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

C H A P. LIX.

1 The calamities of the Jews not owing to want of saving power in God, but to their own enormous sins. 16 Salvation cometh of God only. 20 The covenant of the Redeemer.

Behold, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

4 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them;

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment.

16 And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17 For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke.

18 According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence.

19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

20 And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

21 As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.

10 And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee, shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty one of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also 20 Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

22 A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

THE Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

4 And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.

6 But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

FOR Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

2 And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzi-bah, and thy land Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

5 For as a young man marryeth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

6 I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence,

7 And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

8 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

9 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.

10 Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

12 And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken.

CHAPTER LXIII.

1 Christ sheweth his power to save, and his vengeance upon his enemies. 7 A thankful commemoration of God's old loving kindnesses to his people. 15 A prayer for the return of his mercy to them.

WHO is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat?

3 I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.

9 ^h In all their affliction he was afflicted, ⁱ and the angel of his presence saved them: ^k in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and ^l he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they ^m rebelled, and ⁿ vexed his holy spirit: ^o therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that ^p brought them up out of the sea with the ^q shepherd of his flock? ^r where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses ^s with his glorious arm, ^t dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

13 That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, ^u to make thyself a glorious name.

15 ¶ Look down from heaven, and behold ^v from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, ^w the sounding ^x of thy bowels, and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

16 Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham ^y be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our father, ^z our redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.

17 O LORD, why hast thou ^a made us to err from thy ways, and ^b hardened our heart from thy fear? ^c Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: ^d our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.

19 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; ^e they were not called by thy name.

1 The church prayeth God to shew himself with power. 4 She acknowledgeth God's mercy to them that seek him, and confesseth her own unworthiness. 9 She pleadeth for compassion toward her desolate state.

O H that thou wouldst ^f rend the heavens, that thou wouldst come down, that ^g the mountains might flow down at thy presence,

2 As when ^h the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence!

3 When ⁱ thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence.

4 ¶ For since the beginning of the world ^j men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye ^k seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

5 Thou meetest him that rejoiceth ^l and worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: ^m in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all ⁿ our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do ^o fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

7 And ^p there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast ^q consumed us, ^r because of our iniquities.

8 But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, ^s and thou our potter; and we all are ^t the work of thy hand.

9 ¶ Be not ^u wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, ^v we are all thy people.

10 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, ^w Jerusalem a desolation.

11 Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned up with fire: and all ^x our pleasant things are laid waste.

5 ^g Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my ^h nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

6 Behold, ⁱ it is written before me: ^j I will not keep silence, ^k but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom,

7 Your iniquities, and ^l the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, ^m which have burned incense upon the mountains, ⁿ and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

8 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not; for ^o a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and mine ^p elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.

10 And ^q Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and ^r the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.

12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: ^w because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil ^x before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry; behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed;

14 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and ^y shall howl for ^z vexation of spirit.

17 ¶ For, behold, I create ^f new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor ^g come into mind.

18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

19 And ^h I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the ⁱ voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; ^j but the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed.

21 And ^k they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their foul delighteth in their abominations.

4 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 ¶ Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies.

7 ¶ Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 ¶ Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

15 ¶ For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

19 And I will let a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

21 And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD.

22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

23 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

24 And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcases of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

The Book of the Prophet J E R E M I A H.

CHAP. I.

The time when Jeremiah prophesied. 4. His calling and commission. 11 His visions of an almond tree and a seething pot, denoting God's speedy judgments against Judah. 17 He is encouraged with a promise of God's assistance.

THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin:

2 To whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

4 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child.

7 But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

8 Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth.

10 See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot; and the face thereof is toward the north.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem; and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.

16 And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

17 ¶ Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them.

18 For, behold, I have made thee this day a defended city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

19 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

CHAP. II.

God reminding the Jews of his former kindness expostulateth with them on their causeless and unexampled revolt. 14 They are the authors of their own calamities. 18 God upbraideth them with their fondness for idolatrous worship. 35 The vain confidences of Judah are rejected.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and the firstfruits of his increase: all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 Thus saith the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

9 Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass I over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

11 Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 Is Israel a servant? is he a home-born slave? why is he spoiled?

15 The young lions roared upon him, and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes have broken the crown of thy head.

17 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way?

18 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

20 For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy hands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

Deut. 32. 33. Isai. 1. 21. & 5. 4.

22 For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord God.

23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

24 A wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.

25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets,

27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

29 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.

30 In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 O generation, see ye the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? wherefore say my people, We are lords; we will come no more unto thee?

32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number.

33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

34 Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these.

35 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me. Behold, I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned.

36 Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? * thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, * as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.

37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and * thine hands upon thine head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

C H A P. III.

1 God inviteth Judah to return to him notwithstanding her vile whoredom. 6 Israel, though rejected for her lewdness, is still less criminal than Judah. 12 Both are called to repentance upon the promises of the Gospel. 20 The people reproached with their unfaithfulness make a solemn confession of their sins.

THEY † say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's * shall he return unto her again? shall not that * land be greatly polluted? but thou hast * played the harlot with many lovers; * yet return again to me, saith the LORD.

2 Lift up thine eyes unto * the high places, and see where thou hast not been lien with. In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; * and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness.

3 Therefore the * showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a * whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art * the guide of my youth?

5 * Will he reserve his anger for ever?
will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldst.

6 ¶ The LORD said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which * backsliding Israel hath done?
she is * gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

7 And I said after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me. But she returned not. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it.

8 And I saw, when * for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had * put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; * yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with * stones and with stocks.

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me

* with her whole heart, but † feignedly, saith the LORD.

11 And the LORD said unto me, * The backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

12 ¶ Go and proclaim these words toward * the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you:
for I am * merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever.

13 Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast * scattered thy ways to the * strangers * under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; * for I am married unto you: and I will take you * one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15 And I will give you * pastors according to mine heart, which shall * feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: * neither shall it † come to mind:
neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall || that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, * to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they * walk any more after the || imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days * the house of Judah shall walk || with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of * the north to * the land that I have || given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee * a † pleasant land, † a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me; * My father; and shalt not turn away † from me.

20 ¶ Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her † husband, so * have ye departed treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A voice was heard upon * the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 * Return, ye backsliding children, and I will hear your backslidings. Behold,

²³ Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

²⁴ For shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

²⁵ We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

C H A P. IV.

¹ Israel is excited to repentance by promises, 3 and Judah by threats of hostile invasion and the calamities of war. ¹⁹ The prophet lamenteth bitterly the afflictions of his country.

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, return unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

² And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.

³ For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns.

⁴ Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

⁵ Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities.

⁶ Set up the standard toward Zion: retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.

⁷ The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.

⁸ For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

⁹ And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

¹⁰ Then said I, Ah, Lord God! surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

¹¹ At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse, ¹² Even a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I give sentence against them.

¹³ Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled.

¹⁴ O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

¹⁵ For a voice declareth from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.

¹⁶ Make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

¹⁷ As keepers of a field, are they against her round about; because the hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

¹⁸ Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee; this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

¹⁹ My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

²⁰ Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

²¹ How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

²² For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

²³ I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.

²⁴ I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

²⁵ I beheld, and, lo, there was no man; and all the birds of the heavens were fled.

²⁶ I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

28 For this " shall the earth mourn, and ' the heavens above the black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and ' will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clovest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, ' though thou rentest thy ' face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; ' thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that ' spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

C H A P. V.

1 The judgments of God upon the Jews for their universal depravity and incorrigibleness; 7 for their adultery; 10 their blasphemous impiety; 15 their worship of strange Gods; 20 their injustice and oppression for want of fearing the true God; 30 and their prevarication in religion.

R U N ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, ' if ye can find a man, ' if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; ' and I will pardon it.

2 And ' though they say, ' The LORD liveth; surely they ' swear falsely.

3 O LORD, are not ' thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast ' stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but ' they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for ' they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for ' they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether ' broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore ' a lion out of the forest shall slay them, ' and a wolf of the ' evenings shall spoil them, ' a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings ' are increased.

7 How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and ' sworn by them ' that are no gods: ' when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 ' They were as fed horses in the morning: every one ' neighed after his neighbour's wife.

9 ' Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: ' and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 ¶ ' Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; ' but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORD's.

11 For ' the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 ' They have belied the LORD, and said, ' It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; ' neither shall we see sword nor famine:

13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, ' behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 ¶ Lo, I will bring a ' nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall eat up thine ' harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I ' will not make a full end with you.

land, so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not your's.

20 ¶ Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

21 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not:

22 ¶ Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

25 Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you.

26 For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men.

27 As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28 They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

29 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

30 ¶ A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land;

31 The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

C H A P. VI.

1 The enemies sent against Judah are eager to fall upon her. 6 God directeth the siege because of her sins. 9 The prophet lamenteth the evils that would follow from the corrupt manners that prevailed: 18 he proclaimeth God's judgments: 26 he calleth the people to mourn for the impending calamities.

O Ye children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Beth-haccerem: for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction.

Isa. 1. 1.

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Wo unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6 ¶ For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grape-gatherer into the baskets.

10 To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.

12 And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.

14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Harken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

18 ¶ Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.

19 Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

20 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

26 ¶ O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way.

28 They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brais and iron; they are all corrupters.

29 The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away.

30 ¶ Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.

CHAP. VII.

1 Jeremiah is sent to call the Jews to repentance in order to prevent their captivity. 8 Their vain confidence rejected after the example of Shiloh. 17 God threateneth them for their idolatry: 21 he requireth not the sacrifices of the disobedient. 29 A call to mourning for the abominations in Tophet: 32 Judgments denounced because of them.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the Lord, are these.

5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt:

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 ¶ Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

9 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

10 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?

11 Is this house, which is called by my name, because a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.

12 But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not;

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my fight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee.

17 ¶ Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices:

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

24 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward.

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them:

26 Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers.

27 Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 ¶ Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it.

31 And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my heart.

32 ¶ Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

33 And the carcasses of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

34 Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for the land shall be desolate.

1 The calamities of the Jews, both of the dead and the living. 4 The prophet upbraideth their stubborn and shameless impenitency: 13 he sheweth God's severe judgments against them, 18 and bewaileth the misery of his people.

AT that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

3 And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

ment hath taken hold on me.

22 Is there no balm in Gilead; is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

C H A P. IX.

The prophet bewalleth the manifold sins of his people, 9 and the judgments coming upon them:

12 he sheweth that disobedience is the cause of their calamity: 17 he exhorteth them to lament over their desolation; 23 and not to trust in human abilities, but in knowing God: 25
he threateneth the Jews and their neighbours.

Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them!
for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

3 And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me,
saith the LORD.

4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders.

5 And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth:
they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out;
it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in heart he layeth his wait.

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; † both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem a heap, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah † desolate, without an inhabitant.

12 ¶ Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

14 But have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Balaam, which their fathers taught them:

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation.

21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcases of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvest man; and none shall gather them.

23 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

24 But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise loving kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.

25 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised;

26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

CHAP. X.

1 The great disparity between God and idols.

17 The prophet warneth to prepare for a removal out of the land: 19 he lamenteth over the spoil and desolation of it: 23 he prayeth God to correct his people with moderation, and to turn his fury upon the heathen that wasted them.

HEAR ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:

2 Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

3 For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the ax.

4 They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

5 They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

6 Forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is great in might.

7 Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.

8 But they are altogether brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

20 ^a My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

21 For the pastors are become brutish, and have not fought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

22 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the ^a north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a ^a den of dragons.

23 ^{||} O LORD, I know that the ^a way of man is not in himself; it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

25 ^a Pour out thy fury upon the heathen ^a that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and ^a devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

C H A P. XI.

1 The prophet proclaimeth God's covenant, and rebuketh the Jews for disobeying it: 11 he denounceth evil against them for their idolatries, 18 and against the men of Anathoth, who devised his death.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; ^a Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

4 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, ^a from the iron furnace, saying, ^a Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God:

5 That I may perform the ^a oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, [†] So be it, O LORD.

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, ^a and do them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, ^a rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 ^a Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but ^a walked every one in the ^{||} imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, ^a A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They are turned back to ^a the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their trouble.

15 What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest.

16 The LORD called thy name, A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts, that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.

18 And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Prophecy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine:

23 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

CHAP. XII.

Jeremiah complaining of the prosperity of the wicked praying against them. 5 God sheweth him what ill usage he might expect from others, seeing his own kindred dealt so ill with him. 7 God lamenteth the desolation of his heritage, 14 he threateneth their evil neighbours, but promiseth restoration and grace to the penitent.

Righteous art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, knowest me: thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

5 If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan?

6 For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak fair words unto thee.

7 I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a speckled bird, the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour.

10 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to heart.

12.

17 But if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

C H A P. XIII.

Under the type of a linen girdle bidden at Euphrates God prefigureth the destruction of his people. 12 Under the parable of bottles filled with wine he foretelleth their excess of misery. 15 He exhorteth them to prevent their impending judgments by repentance: 22 and sheweth that their abominations are the cause of these evils.

cir. 602.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness.

be captains, and as chief over thee: shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail? 22 ¶ And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 ¶ This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.

26 Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.

27 I have seen thine adulteries, and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills in the fields. Woe unto thee, O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? when shall it once be?

C H A P. XIV.

1 A grievous dearth. 7 The prophet's prayer. 10 God will not be intreated for the people. 13 Both the lying prophets, and the people who believe them, shall perish. 17 Jeremiah is commanded to bewail their calamities.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the dearth.

2 Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish; they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads.

4 Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

5 Yea, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass.

6 And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

7 ¶ O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many, we have sinned against thee.

8 O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

9 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not.

10 ¶ Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the LORD doth not accept them; he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me, Pray not for this people for their good.

12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

13 ¶ Then said I, Ah, LORD GOD! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give your assured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

17 ¶ Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them; Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.

19 Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul lothed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good, and for the time of healing, and behold trouble!

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: for we have sinned against thee,

21 Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake, do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us
22 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things.

C H A P. XV.

1 The determined rejection and manifold judgments of the Jews. 10 Jeremiah complaining that he is the object of universal hatred, God promiseth good to him amidst the general calamity. 15 He complaineth of the evils he underwent for God's sake. 19 God promiseth to support and favour him in the due discharge of his office.

THEN said the LORD unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

4 And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

5 For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside to ask how thou doest?

6 Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; I am weary with repenting.

7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destroy my people, since they return not from their ways.

8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noonday: I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city.

9 She that hath borne seven languisheth: she hath given up the ghost; her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.

10 Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me.

11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.

12 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel?

13 Thy substance and thy treasures will I give to the spoiler without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders.

14 And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not: for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.

15 O LORD, thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy long suffering: know that for thy sake I have suffered rebuke.

16 Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts.

17 I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation.

18 Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me as a liar, and as waters that fail?

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD, If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before me: and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them.

20 And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brasen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

21 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

C H A P. XVI.

1 Under the types of the prophet's abstaining from marriage, and from the houses of feasting and mourning, the utter ruin of the Jews is fore-shewed; 10 and that because they were even worse than their fathers. 14 Their return from captivity shall be more memorable than Before CHRIST their deliverance out of Egypt. 16 God will recompense their idolatry double, and the Gentiles shall turn to God. Chr. 601.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

2 Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place; and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

4 They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even loving kindness and mercies.

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:

7 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

10 And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;

12 And ye have done worse than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me:

13 Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour.

14 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

15 But, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.

16 Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

17 For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.

18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcases of their detestable and abominable things.

19 O LORD, my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit.

20 Shall a man make gods unto himself, and they are no gods?

21 Therefore, behold, I will this once cause them to know, I will cause them to know mine hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is The LORD.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The captivity of Judah for her sin. 5 Trust in man is cursed, in God is blessed. 9 The heart, though deceitful, cannot impose upon God.

12 In God alone is sure salvation. 15 The prophet complaining of scoffers prayeth God to support him: 19 he is sent to exhort to a due observation of the sabbath.

THE sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars;

2 Whilst their children remember their altars and their groves by the green trees upon the high hills.

house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house; and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

4 And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it;

8 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 ¶ Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

12 And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things: the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.

14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

15 Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up;

16 To make their land desolate, and a perpetual hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head.

17 I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will shew them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

18 ¶ Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.

20 Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.

21 Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

23 Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee; deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Zedekiah sending to Jeremiah to enquire the event of Nebuchadrezzar's war against him, 3 the prophet foretelleth a calamitous siege, and desolation in the end; 8 he counselleth the people to fall to the Chaldeans: 11 he exhort-eth the king's house to execute right judgment, with threats against those that trusted in the strength of their situation.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,

2 Enquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

3 ¶ Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

4 Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

5 And I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

7 And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life:

and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

8 ¶ And unto this people thou shalt say,
Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.

9 He that abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey.

10 For I have set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD:
it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.

11 ¶ And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

12 O house of David, thus saith the LORD; Execute judgment in the morning, and deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

13 Behold, I am against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the LORD; which say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations?

14 But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD:
and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it.

and thy people that enter in by these gates:

30 Therefore, behold, 'I am against the prophets, faith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, faith the LORD, || that use their tongues, and say, He faith.

32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, faith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by * their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, faith the LORD.

33 ¶ And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? * I will even forsake you, faith the LORD.

34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even † punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus faith the LORD; Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, * will utterly forget you, and † I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence:

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Under the type of good and bad figs 4 the prophet forebaweth the restoration of them that were in captivity, 8 and the desolation of Zedekiah and the residue of Jerusalem.

THE LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive † Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, † they were so bad.

3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seeest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Thus faith the LORD, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge † them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.

6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and † I will bring them again to this land: and † I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them † an heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be † my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me † with their whole heart.

8 ¶ And as the evil † figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus faith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and † them that dwell in the land of Egypt:

9 And I will deliver them † to † be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, † to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt † and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

5 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a king shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6 In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8 But, The LORD liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

9 Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourneth; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Harken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.

18 For who hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

28 The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

29 Is not my word like a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

3^b From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.

4 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

5 They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever:

6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words, 9 Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.

14 For many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of them also: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

15 ¶ For thus saith the LORD God of Israel unto me; Take the wine cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it.

16 And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me:

18 To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; as it is this day;

19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people;

20 And all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod,

21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon,

22 And all the kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea,

23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all that are in the utmost corners,

24 And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the desert,

25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes, 26 And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink.

29 For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

30 Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter

C H A P. XXVI.

1 Jeremiah exhorting the people with severe threats to repentance 8 is apprehended, and arraigned before the princes for so doing: 12 his apology: 16 he is acquitted by the example of Micah and Urijah, and the assistance of Abikam.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoia-kim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD; Stand in ^a the courts of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, ^b all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; ^c diminish not a word:

3 ^d If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may ^e repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; ^f If ye will not hearken to me to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, ^g whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

6 Then will I make this house like ^h Shiloh, and will make this city ⁱ a curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 ¶ Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down ^j in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, ^k This man is worthy to die; ^l for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 ¶ Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now ^m amend your ways ⁿ and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will ^o repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, ^p I am in your hand: do with me ^q as seemeth good and meet unto you.

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

16 ¶ Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

Acts 5:39.

17 * Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 † Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; † Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? † did he not fear the LORD, and besought † the LORD, and the LORD † repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? † Thus might we procure great evil against our souls.

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah:

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt;

22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt.

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the † common people.

24 Nevertheless † the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

C H A P. XXVII.

1 Under the type of bonds and yokes Jeremiah prophesieth the subjection of the neighbouring kings to Nebuchadnezzar, and exhorteth them to submit quietly, and to give no heed to false prophets: 12 he adviseth the like to Zedekiah: 16 he warneth the priests and the people not to credit lying prophecies; 19 and sheweth that the remainder of the sacred vessels shall be carried to Babylon, and there continue until the day of visitation.

I N the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah † king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus † saith the LORD to me; Make thee bonds and yokes, † and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 And command them † to say unto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 † I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and † have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

6 † And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, † my servant; and † the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 † And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, † until the very time of his land come: † and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your † dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your forcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

10 † For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¶ I spake also to † Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 † Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy † a lie unto you.

CHAP. XXX.

1 God sheweth Jeremiah the return of the Jews, 4 and their deliverance out of their trouble.

10 He comforteth Jacob, 18 and promiseth the Jews a gracious reestablishment in their ancient privileges. 23 Wrath shall fall on the wicked.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD; that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 ¶ And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.

10 ¶ Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13 There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines.

14 All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.

15 Why criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

7 For thus saith the LORD; Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

9 They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.

11 For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he.

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

15 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

16 Thus saith the LORD; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD; and ^a they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 ¶ I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: ^a turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely ^a after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: ^a therefore my bowels ⁺ are troubled for him; ^b I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps: ¹ set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 ¶ How long wilt thou ^k go about, O thou ¹ backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah, and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; ^m The LORD blest thee, O habitation of justice, and ⁿ mountain of holiness.

24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and ^o in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that ^p I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have ^q watched over them, ¹ to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I ^r watch over them, ¹ to build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 ¶ In those days they shall say no more,

The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

30 ^a But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 ¶ Behold, the ^a days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that ^v I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, ^{||} although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD:

33 ^a But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, ^a I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; ^b and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for ^c they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for ^d I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, ^e which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth ^f the sea when the waves thereof roar; ^g The LORD of hosts is his name:

36 ^h If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD; ¹ If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD ^k from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.

39 And ¹ the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath.

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook of Kidron, ^m unto the corner of the horsagate toward the east, ⁿ shall be holy unto the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.

6 by God's direction buyeth Hanameel's field.
13 Baruch is charged to keep the evidences safe, as tokens of the people's return. 16 Jeremiah in prayer expostulateth with God. 26 God confirmeth his threats against Judah for their sins, 36 and his promise of a gracious return.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD ^a in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up ^b in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, ^c Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah ^d shall not escape out of the hand of the Chal-deans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be ^e until I visit him, saith the LORD: ^f though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.

6 ¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the ^g right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and ^h weighed him the money, even || seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I ⁱ subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open:

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto ^j Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the ^k witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 ¶ And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards ^l shall be possessed again in this land.

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Ah Lord GOD! behold, ^m thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and ⁿ there is nothing || too hard for thee:

18 Thou shewest ^o lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, ^p the Mighty God, ^q the LORD of hosts, is his name,

19 Great in counsel, and mighty in ^r work: for thine ^s eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: ^t to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made thee ^u a name, as at this day;

21 And ^v hast brought forth thy people
Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror;

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, ^w a land flowing with milk and honey;

23 And they came in, and possessed it;
but ^x they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them:

24 Behold the || mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city ^y is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of ^z the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord GOD, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; || for ^{aa} the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 Behold, I am the LORD, the ^{ab} God of all flesh: ^{ac} is there any thing too hard for me?

8 And I will ^k cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will ^l pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 ^m And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall ⁿ fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.

10 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, ^o which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast, 11 The ^p voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, ^q Praise the LORD of hosts: for the LORD is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring ^r the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For ^s I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the LORD.

12 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^t Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.

13 ^u In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks ^x pass again under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.

14 ^y Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that ^z I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

15 ¶ In those days, and at that time, will I cause the ^a Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

16 ^b In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, ^c The LORD our righteousness.

17 ¶ For thus saith the LORD; ^d David shall never ^e want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;

18 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to ^f offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

19 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD; ^g If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;

21 Then may also ^h my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.

22 As ⁱ the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.

23 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, ^j The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the LORD; If ^k my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not ^l appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;

26 ^m Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for ⁿ I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and † he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, ⁵ so shall they burn odours for thee; and ^h they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, 7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for ¹ these defended cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 ¶ This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim ^k liberty unto them;

9 ¹ That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; ^m that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free; that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But ⁿ afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

12 ¶ Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying,

14 At the end of ^o seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which ^h hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were [†] now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had ^p made a covenant before me ^q in the house [†] which is called by my name:

16 But ye turned and ^r polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: ^s behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, ^t to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you [†] to be ^u removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when ^v they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof,

19 The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their ^w dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, ^z which are gone up from you.

22 ^a Behold, I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, ^b and take it, and burn it with fire: and ^c I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

thren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the † door:

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for ⁴Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; ^{*}that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: ^{}notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, ^{}rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ^{*}Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: ^{*}because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

18 ¶ And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you:

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; † Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to ^mstand before me for ever.

6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD's house upon the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.

7 ^{*} It may be [†] they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the [¶] entry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 ¶ When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, 12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

Before CHRIST
cir. 606.

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in ^m the winter-house in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor ⁿ rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words. ^{n 2 Kings 22. 11. Isai. 36. 22. & 37. 1.}

25 Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 Jeremiah, accused of disheartening the people by his prophecies, is cast into the dungeon of Malchiah; 7 out of which he is taken at the suit of Ebed-melech. 14 In a secret conference he counselleth the king to save himself and the city by submitting to the Chaldeans. 24

b. ch. 38. 17. 3 ^b And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarfchim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rabmag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

d. ch. 32. 4. & 38. 18, 23. 5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and ^d overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho : and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to ^e Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he † gave judgment upon him.

7 Moreover ' he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him † with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

8 ¶ And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 ^b Then Nebuzar-adan the † captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

10 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields † at the same time.

11 ¶ Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah † to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying,

13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes ;

14 Even they sent, ^e and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him ^k unto Gedaliah the son of ' Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home : so he dwelt among the people.

15 ¶ Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying, 16 Go and speak to ^m Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel ; Behold, ⁿ I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good ; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

C H A P. XLIII.

1 Johanan and the captains discrediting Jeremiah's prophecy carry him and the rest of the people into Egypt. 8 Jeremiah by a type prophesieth the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Ho-shai; and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes.

8 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brickkiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid;

27 For ^a was not Israel a derision unto thee? ^a was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou ^a skippedst for joy.

28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and ^a dwell in the rock, and be like ^a the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

29 We have heard the ^a pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogance, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD; but it shall not be so; ^a his lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore ^a will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.

32 ^a O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage.

33 And ^a joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail upon the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.

34 ^a From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, ^a from Zoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old: for the waters also of Nimrim shall be ^a desolate.

35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, ^a him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore ^a mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because ^a the riches that he hath gotten are perished.

37 For ^a every head shall be bald, and every beard ^a clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and ^a upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the housetops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like ^a a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the ^a back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^a he shall fly as an eagle, and shall ^a spread his wings over Moab.

41 ^a Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and ^a the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

42 And Moab shall be destroyed ^a from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD.

43 ^a Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD.

44 He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for ^a I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but ^a a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and ^a shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the ^a tumultuous ones.

46 ^a Woe be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken ^a captives, and thy daughters captives.

47 ¶ Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab ^a in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

C H A P. XLIX.

1 The judgment of the Ammonites: 6 their restoration. 7 The judgment of Edom, 23 of Damascus, 28 of Kedar, 30 of Hazor, 34 and of Elam. 39 The restoration of Elam.

CONCERNING ^a the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth ^a their king inherit ^a Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in ^a Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, ^a gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for ^a their king shall go into captivity, and his ^a priests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, ^a thy flowing valley, O ^a backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me?

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord God of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 ¶ And ^a afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

7 ¶ ¹ Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^k Is wisdom no more in Teman? ^l Is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?

8 ^m Flee ye, ⁿ turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of ⁿ Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.

9 If ^o grapegatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy [†] till they have enough.

10 ^p But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and ^q he is not.

11 Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.

12 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^r they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

13 For ^s I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that ^t Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 I have heard a ^u rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terriblest hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: ^x though thou shouldest make thy ^y nest as high as the eagle, ^z I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation: ^a every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18 ^b As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 ^c Behold, he shall come up like a lion from ^d the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for ^e who is like me? and who will ^f appoint me the time? and ^g who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

20 ^h Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 ⁱ The earth is moved at the noise of their fall, at the cry the noise thereof was heard in the [†] Red sea.

22 Behold, ^j he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 ¶ ^k Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are [†] fainthearted; ^l there is sorrow ⁿ on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: ^m anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.

25 How is ⁿ the city of praise not left, the city of my joy!

26 ^o Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.

27 And I will kindle a ^p fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.

28 ¶ ^q Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil ^r the men of the east.

29 Their ^s tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, ^t Fear is on every side.

30 ¶ ^u Flee, ^v get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

31 Arise, get you up unto ^w the ⁿ wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which ^y dwell alone.

32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will ^z scatter into all winds ^a them that are [†] in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

1, 9, 21, 35 ^f The judgment of Babylon. 4, 17,

33 ^g The redemption of Israel.

THE word that the LORD spake ^a against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans [†] by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and [†] set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, ^b Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; ^c her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 ^d For out of the north there cometh up ^e a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

4 ¶ In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, ^f they and the children of Judah together, ^g going and weeping: they shall go, ^h and seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, ⁱ saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in ^j a perpetual covenant ^k that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been ^l lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away ^m on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their ⁿ restingplace.

7 All that found them have ^o devoured them: and ^p their adversaries said, ^q We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, ^r the habitation of justice, even the LORD, ^s the hope of their fathers.

8 ^t Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks.

9 ¶ For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall ^u set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows ^v shall be as of a mighty ^w expert man; ^x none shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: ^y all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 ^z Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown ^{aa} fat ^{ab} as the heifer at grass, and ^{ac} bellow as bulls;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations ^{ad} shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, ^{ae} but it shall be wholly desolate: ^{af} every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 ^{ag} Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye ^{ah} that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD.

15 Shout against her round about: she hath ^{ai} given her hand: her foundations are fallen, ^{aj} her walls are thrown down: for ^{ak} it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; ^{al} as she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the ^{am} sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword ^{an} they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 ¶ Israel is ^{ao} a scattered sheep; ^{ap} the lions have driven ^{aq} him away: first ^{ar} the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this ^{as} Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, ¹ the iniquity of Israel shall be fought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them ² whom I reserve.

21 ¶ Go up against the land ¹ of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of ² Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do ³ according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 ¹ A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How is ² the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, ³ and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth ⁴ the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord God of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her ¹ from the utmost border, open her storehouses: ² cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her ³ bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of ⁴ their visitation.

28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, ⁵ to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: ⁶ all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: ⁷ recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: ⁸ for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.

30 ¹ Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou ² most proud, saith the Lord God of hosts: for ³ thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And ⁴ the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and ⁵ I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

34 ¹ Their Redeemer is strong; ² the LORD of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 ¶ A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and ³ upon her princes, and upon ⁴ her wife men.

36 A sword is ⁵ upon the ⁶ liars; and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all ⁷ the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and ⁸ they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

38 ⁹ A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of ¹⁰ graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

39 ¹ Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: ² and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon ; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans : Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out : surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

[†] Rev. 18. 9. 46 [†] At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.

C H A P. LI.

1 The severe judgment of God against Babylon in revenge of Israel. 59 Jeremiah delivereth the book of this prophecy to Seraiah, to be cast into Euphrates, in token of the perpetual sinking of Babylon.

THUS saith the LORD ; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the [†] midst of them that rise up against me, ^a a destroying wind ;

2 And will send unto Babylon ^b fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land : ^c for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

3 Against him that bendeth ^d let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine : and spare ye not her young men ; ^e destroy ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, ^f and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts ; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

6 ^g Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul : be not cut off in her iniquity ; for ^h this is the time of the LORD's vengeance ; ⁱ he will render unto her a recompence.

7 ^k Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken : ^l the nations have drunken of her wine ; therefore the nations ^m are mad.

8 Babylon is suddenly ⁿ fallen and destroyed : ^o howl for her ; ^p take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed : forsake her, and ^q let us go every one into his own country : ^r for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10 The LORD hath ^s brought forth our righteousness : come, and let us ^t declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

11 ^u Make [†] bright the arrows ; gather the shields : ^v the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes : ^w for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it ; because it is ^x the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple.

12 ^y Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ^z ambushes : for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

13 ^{aa} O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness.

14 ^{ab} The LORD of hosts hath sworn [†] by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, ^{ac} as with caterpillers ; and they shall ^{ad} lift ^e up a shout against thee.

15 ^{ae} He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and ^{af} hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

16 ^{ag} When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens ; and ^{ah} he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth : he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringing forth the wind out of his treasures.

17 ^{ai} Every man ^{aj} is brutish by his knowledge ; every founder is confounded by the graven image : ^{ak} for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

18 ^{al} They are vanity, the work of errors : in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

19 ^{am} The portion of Jacob is not like them ; for he is the former of all things : and Israel is the rod of his inheritance : the LORD of hosts is his name.

20 ^{an} Thou art my battle ax and weapons of war : for ^{ao} with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms ;

21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider ; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider ;

22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman ; and with thee will I break in pieces ^{ap} old and young ; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid ;

23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock ; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen ; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

24 ^{aq} And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, I am against thee, ^{ar} O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth : and I will stretch out

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon is † like a threshing floor, * || it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, † and the time of her harvest shall come.

34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath † devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 † The violence done to me and to my || flesh be upon Babylon, shall the † inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, * I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; † and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

37 † And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwellingplace for dragons, † an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant.

38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall || yell as lions' whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and † I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he goats.

41 How is † Shephach taken! and how is † the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

42 † The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 † Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

44 † And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, † the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 * My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And || lest your heart faint, and ye fear † for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that † I will † do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then † the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: † for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.

49 || As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all || the earth.

50 † Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind.

51 † We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, † that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

53 † Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.

54 † A sound of a cry cometh from Baby-

CHAP. I.

1 The miserable estate of Jerusalem by reason of her sin: 12 she bemoaneth her afflictions: 18 she confesseth God's judgments to be just, and prayeth against her insulting enemies.

HOW doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! ^a how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and ^b princeſs among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2 She ^c weepeth fore in the ^d night, and her tears are on her cheeks: ^e among all her lovers ^f she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.

3 ^g Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and ^h because of great servitude: ⁱ she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries ^j are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her ^k for the multitude of her transgressions: her ^l children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her ^m pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 ⁿ Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she ^o is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because ^p they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; she ^q remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: ^r she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon ^s all her ^t pleasant things: for she hath seen that ^u the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that ^v they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, ^w they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat ^x to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.

12 ^y Is it nothing to you, all ye that ^z pass by? behold, and see ^{aa} if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them: he hath ^{ab} spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 ^{ac} The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wretched, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty ^{ad} men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: ^{ae} the LORD hath trodden ^{af} the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.

16 For these things I weep; ^{ag} mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because ^{ah} the comforter that should ^{ai} relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 ^{aj} Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and ^{ak} there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 ^{al} The LORD is ^{am} righteous; for I have ^{an} rebelled against his ^{ao} commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but ^{ap} they deceived me: my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, ^{aq} while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O LORD; for I am in distress: my ^{ar} bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: ^{as} abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh: ^{at} there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring ^{au} the day that thou hast ^{av} called, and they shall be like unto me.

22 ^{aw} Let all their wickedness come before

C H A P. II.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the misery of Jerusalem : 20 he complaineth thereof to God.

HOW hath the LORD covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, ° and cast down from heaven unto the earth ° the beauty of Israel, and remembered not ° his footstool in the day of his anger !

2 The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, ° and hath not pitied : he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah ; he hath † brought them down to the ground : ° he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel : ° he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, ° and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 ° He hath bent his bow like an enemy : he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew † all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion : he poured out his fury like fire.

5 ° The LORD was as an enemy : he hath swallowed up Israel, ° he hath swallowed up all her palaces : he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently ° taken away his tabernacle, ° as if it were of a garden : he hath destroyed his places of the assembly : ° the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

7 The LORD hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath † given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces ; ° they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion : ° he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from † destroying : therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament ; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground ; he hath destroyed and ° broken her bars : ° her king and her princes are among the Gentiles : ° the law is no more ; her ° prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion ° sit upon the ground, and keep silence :

they have ° cast up dust upon their heads ; they have ° girded themselves with sackcloth : the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 ° Mine eyes do fail with tears, ° my bowels are troubled, ° my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people ; because ° the children and the sucklings || swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine ? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee ? ° what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem ? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion ? for thy breach is great like the sea : who can heal thee ?

14 Thy ° prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee : and they have not ° discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity ; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

15 ° All that pass † by ° clap their hands at thee ; they hiss ° and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call ° The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth ?

16 ° All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee : they hiss and gnash the teeth : they say, ° We have swallowed her up : certainly this is the day that we looked for ; we have found, ° we have seen it.

17 The LORD hath done that which he had ° devised ; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old : ° he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied : and he hath caused thine enemy to ° rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the LORD, O ° wall of the daughter of Zion, ° let tears run down like a river day and night : give thyself no rest ; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, ° cry out in the night : in the beginning of the watches ° pour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord : lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, ° that faint for hunger ° in the top of every street.

20 ¶ Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this. ° Shall the women eat their fruit, and children || of a span long ? ° shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the LORD ?

CHAP. III.

1 The prophet bewaileth his own calamities :
22 he acknowledgeth God's mercies and truth to be a proper ground of patient hope : 37 he maketh humble confession of the sins which had drawn down God's severe judgments : 55 he prayeth to be avenged of his enemies.

I Am the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned ; he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old ; he hath broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travel.

6 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

7 He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out : he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked.

10 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces : he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was a derision to all my people ; and their song all the day.

15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he hath covered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace : I forgot prosperity.

18 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD :

19 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is humbled in me.

21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.

22 ¶ It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new every morning : great is thy faithfulness.

24 The LORD is my portion, faith my soul ; therefore will I hope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.

29 He putteth his mouth in the dust ; if so be there may be hope.

30 He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him : he is filled full with reproach.

31 For the LORD will not cast off forever :

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth,

35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the most High, 36 To subvert a man in his cause, the LORD approveth not.

37 ¶ Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD commandeth it not ?

38 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not evil and good ?

39 Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins ?

40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.

41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

42 We have transgressed and have rebelled : thou hast not pardoned.

43 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us : thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.

44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through.

45 Thou hast made us as the offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people.

C H A P. IV.

1 The prophet bewaileth the wretched condition of Zion: 21 he threateneth Edom, and comforteth Zion.

HOW is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out * in the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to find gold, how are they esteemed † as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the † sea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 † The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: † the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet † embrace dunghills.

6 For the || punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was † overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire:

8 Their visage is † blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: † their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these † pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

10 † The hands of the † pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their † meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury; † he hath poured out his fierce anger, and † hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 † For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, † that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,

14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, † they have polluted themselves with blood, † so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cried unto them, Depart ye; || it is † unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16 The † anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: † they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 As for us, † our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

18 † They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for † our end is come.

19 Our persecutors are † swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

A pitiful complaint of Zion in prayer unto God.

Remember, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold ^{||} our reproach.

2 ^c Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

3 We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers ^{are} as widows.

4 We have drunken our water for money; our wood [†] is sold unto us.

5 [†] Our necks ^{are} under persecution: we labour, and have no rest.

6 ^e We have given the hand ^f to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

7 ^g Our fathers have sinned, and ^h are not; and we have borne their iniquities.

8 ⁱ Servants have ruled over us: there is none that doth deliver us out of their hand.

9 We gat our bread with the peril of our lives because of the sword of the wilderness.

10 Our ^k skin was black like an oven because of the ^{||} terrible famine.

11 ⁱ They ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Judah.

12 Princes are hanged up by their hand: ^m the faces of elders were not honoured.

13 They took the young men ⁿ to grind, and the children fell under the wood.

14 The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their musick.

15 The joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning.

16 [†] The crown is fallen from our head: woe unto us, that we have sinned!

17 For this ^p our heart is faint; ^q for these things our eyes are dim.

18 Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it.

19 Thou, O LORD, ^r remainest for ever; ^s thy throne from generation to generation.

20 ^t Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, and forsake us [†] so long time?

21 ^u Turn thou us unto thee, O LORD, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old.

The BOOK of the Prophet EZEKIEL.

CHAP. I.

1 The time of Ezekiel's prophecy by the river Chebar. 4 His vision of four cherubims and four wheels, 26 and of the glory of God above them.

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the [†] captives ^a by the river of Chebar, that ^b the heavens were opened, and I saw ^c visions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of ^d king Jehoiachin's captivity,

3 The word of the LORD came expressly unto [†] Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and ^e the hand of the LORD was there upon him.

4 ¶ And I looked, and, behold, ^f a whirlwind came ^g out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire [†] infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

5 ^h Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And ⁱ this was their appearance; they had the ^k likeness of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were [†] straight feet; the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled ^l like the colour of burnished brass.

8 ^m And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 ⁿ Their wings were joined one to another; ^o they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.

10 As for ^p the likeness of their faces, they four ^q had the face of a man, ^r and the face of a lion, on the right side: ^s and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; ^t they four also had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were ^{||} stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and ^a two covered their bodies.

12 And ^a they went every one straight forward: ^y whither the spirit was to go, they went; and ^z they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, ^a and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ^b ran and returned ^c as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold ^d one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 ^e The appearance of the wheels and their work was ^f like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: ^g and they turned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their ^h rings were ⁱ full of eyes round about them four.

19 And ^j when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20 ^k Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was ^l their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: ^m for the spirit ⁿ of the living creature was in the wheels.

21 ^o When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit ^p of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 ^q And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 ^r And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, ^s like the noise of great waters, as ^t the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the fir-mament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 ¶ ^u And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, ^v as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

27 ^w And I saw as the colour of amber, ^x as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28 ^y As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about.

^z This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, ^a I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

1 Ezekiel's commission: 6 his instructions. 9 The roll of heavy judgments spread before him.

AND he said unto me, Son of man, ^b stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And ^c the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious ^d nation that hath rebelled against me: ^e they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 ^f For they are ^g impudent children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

5 ^h And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet ⁱ shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 ¶ And thou, son of man, ^j be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though ^k ^l briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: ^m be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, ⁿ though they be a rebellious house.

26 And ^c I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them [†] a prover: ^d for they are a rebellious house.
 27 ^e But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, ^f Thus saith the Lord God; He that heareth, let them hear; and he that forbear, let him forbear: ^g for they are a rebellious house.

C H A P. IV.

¹ The prophet is directed to represent a mock siege of Jerusalem for a sign to the Jews: 4 and to lie before it in one posture for a set number of days, in order to denote the time of their sins for which God did visit: 9 His allotted provisions, with design to prefigure the people's defilement among the Gentiles, 16 and the scarcity they should be reduced to by the siege.

THOU also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pour-tray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:

2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set ^{||} battering rams against it round about.

3 Moreover take thou unto thee ^{||} an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. ^a This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: ^b so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee [†] each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 ^c And, behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee [†] from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 ^{||} Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and ^{||} fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the LORD said, Even thus ^d shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, ^e Ah Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of ^f that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there ^g abominable flesh into my mouth.

15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 ^{||} Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the ^h staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall ⁱ eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall ^k drink water by measure, and with astonishment:

17 That they may want bread and water, and be astonished one with another and ^l consume away for their iniquity.

C H A P. V.

¹ Under the type of the prophet's hair, 5 is shewed God's judgment upon Jerusalem, 12 by pestilence, by famine, by the sword, and by dispersion.

AND thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, ^a and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair.

2 ^b Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of ^c the city, when ^d the days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword after them.

3 ^e Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy [†] skirts.

4 Then take of them again, and ^f cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 ^{||} Thus saith the Lord God; This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her.

6 And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, ⁸ neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

9 ^h And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers ⁱ shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I ^k scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God; Surely, because thou hast ^l defiled my sanctuary with all thy ^m detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; ⁿ neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

12 ¶ ^o A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and ^p I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and ^q I will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine anger ^r be accomplished, and I will ^s cause my fury to rest upon them, ^t and I will be comforted: ^u and they shall know that I the Lord have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover ^x I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15 So it shall be a ^y reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger and in fury and in ^z furious rebukes. I the Lord have spoken it.

16 When I shall ^a send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your ^b staff of bread:

17 So will I send upon you famine and ^c evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee; and ^d pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee. I the Lord have spoken it.

1 The judgment of Israel for their idolatry. 8 A remnant shall be saved. 11 The prophet is directed to lament their abominations and calamities.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^e set thy face toward the ^f mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,

3 And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the vallies; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and ^g I will destroy your high places.

4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your ^h images shall be broken: and ⁱ I will cast down your slain men before your idols.

5 And I will ⁺ lay the dead carcases of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwellingplaces the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ^j ye shall know that I am the Lord.

8 ¶ ^k Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because ^l I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and ^m with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and ⁿ they shall lothe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

10 And they shall know that I am the Lord, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

11 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; Smite ^o with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! ^p for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

2 ^c Then I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, ^d as the colour of amber.

3 And he ^e put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and ^f the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and ^g brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; ^h where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which ⁱ provoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I ^k saw in the plain.

5 ¶ Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 ¶ And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall.

6 † Slay † utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but † come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and † begin at my sanctuary. † Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I † fell upon my face, and cried, and said, † Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and † the land is † full of blood, and the city full of † perverseness: for they say, † The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and † the LORD seeth not.

10 And as for me also, mine † eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but † I will recompense their way upon their head.

11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, † reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

CHAPTER. X.

1 The vision of the coals of fire, which are ordered to be taken from between the cherubims, and scattered over the city. 8 The vision of the cherubims and the glory of God removing from the temple.

THEN I looked, and, behold, in the † firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

2 † And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill † thine hand with † coals of fire from between the cherubims, and † scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

3 Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.

4 † Then the glory of the LORD † went up from the cherub, and † stood over the threshold of the house; and † the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory.

5 And the † sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as † the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

6 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub † stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out.

8 ¶ † And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 † And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a † beryl stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11 † When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole † body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and † the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, † it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel.

14 † And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubims were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

16 And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

18 Then the glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubims.

19 And the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

20 This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims.

21 Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight forward.

CHAP. XI.

1 Ezekiel showed the presumption of the princes of Judah: 4 he declareth their sin, and the manner of their punishment. 13 He is terrified at the sudden death of Pelatiah. 14 God sheweth him his purpose of restoring the captives with favour, and of punishing the idolaters. 22 The glory of God leaveth the city. 24 Ezekiel carried back by the spirit prophesieth to them of the captivity.

Moreover the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and behold at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city:

3 Which say, It is not near; let us build houses: this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh.

4 Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.

5 And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the LORD; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord God.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you.

10 Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel:

12 And ye shall know that I am the LORD: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things

19 And ^y I will give them one heart, and I will put ^z a new spirit within you; and I will take ^a the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh: 20 ^b That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: ^c and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, ^d I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord God.

22 ¶ Then did the cherubims ^e lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

23 And ^f the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood ^g upon the mountain ^h which is on the east side of the city.

24 ¶ Afterwards ⁱ the spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

C H A P. XII.

1 Under the type of Ezekiel's removing of his household stuff is shewed the captivity of Zedekiah and his people. 17 Under another type of his eating and drinking with trembling and anxiety is signified the consternation of the people and desolation of the land. 21 The prophet reproveth the presumptuous proverb of the Jews: 26 he repeateth the reproof.

594. THE word of the LORD also came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of ^a a rebellious house, which ^b have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: ^c for they are a rebellious house.

3 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee ^d stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house.

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at even in their sight, ^e as they that go forth into captivity.

5 ^f Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

6 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: ^g for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel.

7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I ^h digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, ⁱ the rebellious house, said unto thee, ^j What doest thou?

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; This ^k burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

11 Say, ^l I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: ^m ⁿ they shall remove and go into captivity.

12 And ^o the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My ^p net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and ^q I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

14 And ^r I will scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and ^s I will draw out the sword after them.

15 ^t And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

16 ^u But I will leave ^v a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

17 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, ^w eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness;

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord God of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel; They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may ^x be desolate from ^y all that is therein, ^z because of the violence of all them that dwell therein.

21 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

22 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, "The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth?"

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, "The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision."

24 For ^{there} shall be no more any ^{vain} vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.

25 For I am the LORD: I will speak, and ^{the} word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord GOD.

26 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 ^{Son} of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is ^{for} many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.

28 ^{Therefore} say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; There shall none of my words be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XIII.

1 False prophets reprov'd, and their daubing with untemper'd mortar; 17 the prophetesses also reprov'd with their impostures under the title of pillows and kerchiefs.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto ^{them} that prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

3 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe unto the foolish prophets, that ^{follow} their own spirit, ^{and} have seen nothing!

4 O Israel, thy prophets are ^{like} the foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye ^{have} not gone up into the ^{gaps}, neither ^{made} up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD.

6 ^{They} have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith: and the LORD hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The LORD saith it; albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord GOD.

9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the ^{assembly} of my people, ^{neither} shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, ^{neither} shall they enter into the land of Israel; ^{and} ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

10 Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, "Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up ^a wall, and, lo, others ^{daubed} it with untemper'd mortar:

11 Say unto them which daub it with untemper'd mortar, that it shall fall: ^{there} shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untemper'd mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: ^{and} ye shall know that I am the LORD.

15 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untemper'd mortar, and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it;

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which ^{see} visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord GOD.

17 ¶ Likewise, thou son of man, ^{set} thy face against the daughters of thy people, ^{which} prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them, ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against your pillows, where-with ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life:

23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

C H A P. XIV.

1 God reproveth those hypocrites, who came to enquire of him with idolatry in their hearts. 6 They are exhorted to repent for fear of his judgments. 12 No intercession shall save the guilty land from God's judgment of famine, 15 noisome beasts, 17 the sword, 19 the pestilence, 21 or from the four judgments together. 22 A remnant shall be left for the instruction and consolation of others.

THEN came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should I be enquired of at all by them?

4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols;

5 That I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

Before CHRIST 594.
Or, others.

6 ¶ Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; Repent, and turn yourself from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.

7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to enquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by myself:

8 And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him;

11 That the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord God.

12 ¶ The word of the LORD came again to me, saying,

13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it:

14 Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts:

16 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate.

17 ¶ Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it:

18 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves.

1 Under the similitude of an helpless exposed infant is represented the original state of Jerusalem, 6 whom God is described to have bred up, married, and treated with kind indulgence : 15 her unnatural whoredoms : 35 God threateneth her with severe judgment : 44 her sin, equal to her mother's, the Hittite, and exceeding that of her sisters, Sodom and Samaria, shall not go unpunished. 60 A promise of mercy in the end.

2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; A great eagle with great wings, long-winged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar:

4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow tree.

6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God; Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

11 Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

12 Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon;

13 And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land:

14 That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

15 But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered?

16 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die.

17 Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons:

18 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

20 And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me.

21 And all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered toward all winds: and ye shall know that I the Lord have spoken it.

22 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a tender one, and will plant it upon a high mountain and eminent:

23 In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it: and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell.

24 And all the trees of the field shall know that I the Lord have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree; have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the Lord have spoken and have done it.

C H A P. XVIII.

1 God disalloweth the parable of four grapes: 5 he sheweth his dealing with a just man, 10 with the wicked son of a just father, 14 and with the just son of a wicked father: 19 he declareth that the treatment of both son and father shall be according to their respective deserts: 21 and that the wicked, if he repent, shall live; 24 but he that revolteth from his righteousness shall die: 25 he defendeth the equity of his dealings: 31 and exhorteth to repentance.

stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you :

34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out.

35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face.

36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord God.

37 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant :

38 And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me : I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel : and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord God ; Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me : but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

40 For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord God, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me : there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the firstfruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered ; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen.

42 And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled ; and ye shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed.

44 And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

45 Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

46 Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field ;

47 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the Lord ; Thus saith the Lord God ; Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree : the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned therein.

48 And all flesh shall see that I the Lord have kindled it : it shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I, Ah Lord God ! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables ?

1 Ezekiel prophesieth the sword of the Lord against all flesh in the land of Israel, sighing bitterly for a sign. 8 Another prophecy of a bright and sharp sword, commissioned to destroy. 18 The sword of the king of Babylon, in suspense which of two ways to take, by divination is directed the way to Jerusalem. 25 The fall of the profane prince of Israel, and of his kingdom for a time. 28 The destruction of the Ammonites.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to ¹⁸ Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced.

21 For the king of Babylon stood at the ¹⁹ parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his || arrows bright, he consulted with ²⁰ images, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint || ²¹ captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to ²² lift up the voice with shouting, ²³ to appoint ²⁴ battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

25 || And thou, ²⁶ profane wicked prince of Israel, ²⁷ whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end, 26 Thus saith the Lord God; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: ²⁸ exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

27 ²⁹ I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: ³⁰ and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.

28 || And thou, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God ³¹ concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, ³² The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering:

29 Whiles they ³³ see vanity unto thee, whiles they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of ³⁴ them that are slain, of the wicked, ³⁵ whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.

30 || ³⁶ Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? ³⁷ I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, ³⁸ in the land of thy nativity.

31 And I will ³⁹ pour out mine indignation upon thee, I will ⁴⁰ blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of || brutish men, and skilful to destroy.

and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years :
 4 therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art † infamous and much vexed.

6 Behold, ° the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their † power to shed blood.

7 In thee have they † set light by father and mother : in the midst of thee have they † dealt by || oppression with the stranger : in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

8 Thou hast † despised mine holy things, and hast † profaned my sabbaths.

9 In thee are † men that carry tales to shed blood : † and in thee they eat upon the mountains : in the midst of thee they commit lewdness.

10 In thee have they † discovered their fathers' nakedness : in thee have they humbled her that was † set apart for pollution.

11 And || one hath committed abomination ° with his neighbour's wife ; and || another † hath || lewdly defiled his daughter in law ; and another in thee hath humbled his † sister, his father's daughter.

12 In thee † have they taken gifts to shed blood ; † thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and † hast forgotten me, saith the Lord God.

13 Behold, therefore I have † smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 † Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee ? † I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And † I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and † will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou || shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and † thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

17 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, ° the house of Israel is to me become dross : all they are brags, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace ; they are even the † dross of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God ; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

20 † As they gather silver, and brags, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace, so will I gather you, and you shall be as dross. See Pl. 119. 219. † Heb. dresses. † iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it ; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and † blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof ; and ye shall know that I the LORD have † poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.

25 † There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey ; they † have devoured souls ; † they have taken the treasure and precious things ; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 † Her priests have † violated my law, and have † profaned mine holy things : they have put no † difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her † princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And † her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, ° seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord God, when the LORD hath not spoken.

29 † The people of the land have used || oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy : yea, they have † oppressed the stranger † wrongfully.

30 † And I sought for a man among them, that should † make up the hedge, and † stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it : but I found none.

31 Therefore have I † poured out mine indignation upon them ; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath : † their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord God.
